IN MEMORIAM
STEWART - In loving memory of our dear aunt Miss Edith Pearl Stewart, who passed away July 25th, 1954.
A loving aunt, true and kind No friend on earth like her we find.
For all of us, she did her best But God gave her Eternal rest.
Always remembered by Ellie and Watson.
STEWART - In loving memory of our dear sister Miss Edith Pearl Stewart, who passed away July 25th, 1954.
It's hard to think of sunsets, Or the glory of the dawn. It's hard to smile with courage When the one you loved has gone. But she left us treasured memories Of many happy years, And they always will be with us As we journey through the years.
Always remembered by the Stewart family.
FLEMING - In loving memory of my dear husband Percy Fleming, who passed away July 30th, 1956.
Sweet memories will linger forever, Time cannot change them it's true. Years that may come cannot sever, My loving remembrance of you. Ever remembered by wife Mae.

IN MEMORIAM
MRS. HENRY BEER BURHOE
"The Lord gave, the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord."
Passed peacefully into her Eternal home on Sunday afternoon, July 20th, 1958. Mrs. Henry Burhoe, Charlottetown, the former Miss Susannah Wood Jardine, the wife of the late Henry Beer Burhoe of Alexandria, in her 91st year.
The deceased had been ill for three months and although no hopes had been held for her recovery, the end came very suddenly.
Possessed of a wonderful Christian character, love for her home and dear ones, helping those who needed her assistance, makes that chair, which can never be filled, only by a mother, doubly vacant.
Mrs. Burhoe was a life time member of the Pownal United Church. Her home was open and welcome to all clergymen and people of all walks of life.
The funeral which was very largely attended was held in Pownal United Church and was conducted by the Rev. T.R. Goudge, assisted by Rev. Dr. A.S. Weir and Rev. F.H. Littlejohns, who gave the funeral sermon.
Mr. Littlejohns spoke of his years of friendship with Mr. and Mrs. Burhoe and their popularity in the community.
They hymns sung were favorites of the deceased, "O God Our Help in Ages Past", "Unto the Hills Around".
There were left to cherish her memory, two daughters, Hilda, Mrs. Harry Dunbrack, Waltham, Mass., Susan, Mrs. Earle Bailen, Cross Roads and two sons, Kelsey J., and Elwood, Charlottetown.
The pall bearers were Messrs. Gay Judson, Bruce Judson, John MacRae, Aubrey Gammie, Ernest MacCabe and George MacLennan.
Her remains were laid to rest in Pownal cemetery. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.
CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Mrs. Bernard Coady wish to thank all kind neighbours and friends, Rev. Urban Gillis, Rev. John Cash, Rev. Louis P. Callaghan, D. D., also all those who sent flowers, cards, messages of sympathy and flowers, and all who assisted them in their recent sad bereavement.
The United States, Germany and France are the world's three leading refrigerator makers.
IN MEMORIAM
MRS. BERNARD J. COADY
The death occurred on June 14, 1958, after a lengthy illness at her home in Vernon River of Mrs. Annie Coady, widow of the late Bernard Coady, who predeceased her ten years ago.
Mrs. Coady, formerly Annie Quilty, was born at South Shore, P.E.I., on April 10, 1884. Thirty-three years ago she married Bernard Coady of Vernon River, whose first wife had died leaving motherless three small children.
To these she became a kind and loving mother. Their devotion to her was her reward for what she had done for them, they in turn endeavoured to do for her, especially during her long painful illness. The loving care and tender nursing bestowed upon her especially by Mildred, Mrs. George MacPhee with whom she lived was a beautiful example of true Christian charity.
She died as she had lived, a pious faithful member of the Catholic Church whose sacraments and blessings were administered to her by her Pastor, Rev. Urban Gillis. The large concourse of people who attended her funeral service in St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River on Monday, June 16th, gave testimony to the high esteem in which she was held.
The solemn High Mass of Requiem was sung by a cousin of the family, Rev. Dr. Louis P. Callaghan of Indian River, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Urban Gillis as deacon and Rev. Bennett MacDonald of St. George's as sub-deacon.
The honorary pall bearers were Justice George J. Tweedy, Cyril Morrissey, Leo Praught, William Sherry, Edmund Handrahan, J. J. Acorn.
Active pallbearers were, Norman MacMillan, James Doyle, Andrew Doyle, Malcolm MacLean Irving Tweedy and Alphonsus MacIntyre.
Besides her three step-daughters Alice, Mrs. John A. MacDonald and Myrtle, Mrs. Fred Seale both of Charlottetown and Mildred, Mrs. George MacPhee, she leaves to mourn their loss a brother Walter Quilty of South Shore, P.E.I. and another brother, Patrick of Smartsville, California.
CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Mrs. Bernard Coady wish to thank all kind neighbours and friends, Rev. Urban Gillis, Rev. John Cash, Rev. Louis P. Callaghan, D. D., also all those who sent flowers, cards, messages of sympathy and flowers, and all who assisted them in their recent sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM
MRS. D.H. MULLINS
On Monday morning, July 28th, 1958, gently as this new day ushered in, there entered into rest at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, the spirit of David H. Mullins, Maple Plains, and who was greatly missed in the home where she was a devoted, loving wife and mother, and where everyone who came within its bounds were made welcome, for she was possessed of a kind and hospitable nature. She died as she had lived, trusting in the merits of a risen Saviour, so shall her memory live on in the hearts of those who knew her best.
Her funeral on Wednesday, July 29th, under the direction of H.M. Chisholm, was very largely attended, a short service at her late residence, followed by service at Tryon United Church, conducted by her pastor Rev. A.D.C. Earl of the Tryon United Church, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family and who officiated at the graveside in the adjoining cemetery where her remains were lovingly laid to rest.
The following acted as pallbearers, Alvah Walsh, Louis Walsh, Morley Mullins, Sheldon Dixon, Carl Mayhew and Charles MacLennan. Hymns sung during the service were "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Rock of Ages," favorites of the deceased.
The late Mrs. Mullins leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, a daughter Melinda at home, four brothers, Thomas and Newton of Mount Tryon, George of Shamrock and Robert of Westmoreland, besides a host of relatives and friends who will long cherish her memory.
