FEDERAL AND CONFEDERATE LOSSES IN THE ATLANTA CAMPAIGN.

An Atlanta correspondent of the Chicago Times, in summing up the results of Gen. Sherman's campaign, estimates the losses of the Federal army, in killed, wounded and missing, at 31,300, in the march from Chattanooga to Atlanta. In the above is embraced the cavalry losses, including the loss of portions of Stoneman's and McCook's forces around Atlanta, which has been reduced to 1000. The loss in cannon was fifteen—ten at the battle of the 22d July, three taken from Stoneman and two abandoned by McCook. The missing, prisoners, including the loss of portions of Stoneman's and McCook's commands, will not amount to 5,500 men. Federals lost two general officers killed, McPherson and Harker, and six wounded, four of whom have returned to duty. Gresham lost a leg; Willich was shot through the body. Both are doing well. Johnston, Kilpatrick and Manson have returned, and Dodge will return in a few days. Several other general officers were slightly injured, at various times, but did not leave the field.

The same writer estimates the rebel loss in the same campaign at 43,700. The enemy has suffered severely in the loss of general officers, losing four killed and seventeen wounded, according to their own papers. Their loss in cannon will exceed thirty, including eight 64-pounders, while at least twenty thousand stand of small arms have been left by them upon the field, or come into Federal possession otherwise. In two battles they lost twenty-three stand of colors, which were for a time in possession of Gens. Hooker and Blair. The statements of the extent of the enemy's losses of stores, ordnance and ammunition at Atlanta are contradictory. The Columbus Sun, of the 6th instant, says that they were very heavy. "Before Atlanta was lost," says the Sun, "all our railroad stock that had been retained was destroyed. It amounted to more than one hundred and fifty cars and several engines. Eighteen of the cars were heavily loaded with ordnance stores, among which were about five thousand splendid Enfield or Tower muskets, entirely new, with all their equipments. A large number of bridles, saddles, canteens, with splendid web slings, sword bayonets, axes, shovels, and other hardware in large quantity. About three million rounds of catridges and ammunition of all kinds, and of the very finest quality and character, were fired. That such an enormous amount of material, which cannot be replaced, was permitted to accumulate and remain in Atlanta until it became completely isolated and eventually destroyed, exhibits not only most culpable negligence, but the most reprehensible incompetency on the part of those who mismanaged the affair."

ANTICIPATED DOWNFALL OF PRICES.—The Chicago Tribune of Wenesday thus foreshadows the stringency in money, and decline in prices of produce:—"The money market continues close, but at present all legitimate calls are met by bankers at the regular rate. Our leading houses however anticipate a severe stringency in the market as soon as the packing season shall begin. A close investigation shows that from $7,000,000 to $8,000,000 are now invested on speculation in whisky in this city, scarcely any of which will be available for other uses before the first or middle of February, about the time packing season closes. There is also a large amount invested in the same manner in wool, which will be out of use for the packers. The combined amounts will hardly fall short of $10,000,000 thus withdrawn from use when most needed. In what way this vacuum is to be filled is what puzzles business circles. The immense crops gathered will require the use of large sums of money. Taken altogether, the conclusion is inevitable that there will be an almost unparalleled stringency in money circles during the incoming packing season, which can only be relieved by other sources of supply, the prospect of which is not good now. It looks as if one result would follow, and that is a downfall in prices of pork and grain, and if this prove true the stringency anticipated will hardly bring with it any serious results. We shall probably continue to have large supplies of money from the Eastern banks, as the manufacturers of that section are receiving large profits upon their products, and are likely to have heavy deposits in the banks; but at present a considerable proportion of the Eastern funds sent here is invested in certificates of debt, and tends little to supply the wants of the money market."

A SOLDIER MURDERED UNDER "MILITARY NECESSITY."—A shocking and brutal murder was committed yesterday afternoon at Baldwinsville, on the Syracuse and Oswego line of railroad, the person murdered being a newly enlisted volunteer in the regiment now being raised at Oswego to fill its quota. The name of the murdered soldier is Daniel Sullivan, who, as we are informed, was enjoying a brief furlough granted to new recruits before they are sent to the front. Sullivan, with another volunteer in the new Oswego regiment, named Foley, took the cars at Oswego yesterday morning to visit some relatives residing on the line of the road, and it was thought by the commanding officer of the regiment that they did so for the purpose of deserting. A sergeant of the Sixteenth Regular Infantry, named Whelan, was known to be aboard of the same train, and when it reached Apulia a telegram was placed in the hands of sergeant Whelan apprising him that there were two deserters on the train, whom he was directed to arrest. He had scarcely read the telegram when, on looking about him, he saw two soldiers sitting in a seat, and proceeded immediately to arrest them. Foley acquiesced in the arrest, but Sullivan resisted. He was choked and otherwise roughly handled by Sergeant Whelan, and on the train stopping at Baldwinsville, Sullivan sprang from it through the open door, closely followed by the sergeant, who seized him by the collar and threw him on the ground. The sergeant was unarmed, and observing the tussel, an artilleryman stepped up and said; "Sergeant, I have a knife, if that will do you any good." The sergeant then replied, "Give it to me," and immediately on receiving it, plunged the blade into Sullivan under the left shoulder, making two desperate wounds, of which the unfortunate man died in about two hours. Our informant tells us that the sergeant, after his bloody deed, jumped aboard the cars as they were moving from Baldwinsville, and boasted of his deed, to the great admiration of several of the passengers. The man thus cruelly butchered was left behind at Baldwinsville, and it seems that his wife was waiting his arrival in the depot here. When the train stopped, Mrs. Sullivan upon seeing a soldier alight, from the cars, went up to Sergeant Whelan and asked where her husband was. He is said to have replied coarsely, that she would find him at Baldwinsville in a coffin!—Cyracuse Courier, August 31.

MELANCHOLY AFFAIR.—We learn from a contemporary the death of Ensign Fitzgerald of the 25th Regiment, which took place yesterday at the military encampment on the Island of Orleans, under circumstances of the most melancholy nature. For some time past this young gentleman had been in a state of great mental depression, in consequence of some reverses or difficulties of a pecuniary nature. For several days back he appears to have been in a state of derangement from this cause; and sad to relate, the result was his death by his own hand—but he appears to have been in such a condition of mind as not to be responsible for his own acts. It appears that yesterday morning the servant of the deceased left his master's lodging at his request, in order to procure him a cup of tea. The servant did so, and returned almost immediately, to find the unfortunate gentleman, whom he had left in a very weak and apparently depressed state, lying on his bed with his throat cut from ear to ear. Death was instantaneous.—Quebec Gazette.

London has been made the scene of another tragedy. In consequence of a suspicion that all was not right in a house occupied by a Mr. Backingham, at Mile End, the place was entered on Friday night by some of the neighbors. Mrs. Backingham and her sister, Mary Gribben, were found dead, and Mr. Backingham, who is said to have shown signs of temporary insanity for some time past, was discovered partly naked lying on the floor. He greeted those who entered with an idiotic stare, and could give no explanation of the women's deaths. The front parlour, where the bodies were found, was in a very disordered state, as though a severe struggle had taken place, and according to the opinion of a medical man, there is reason to believe that the women have been poisoned.

DREADFUL MURDER.—It is our painful duty, this morning, to inform our readers that at about 12 o'clock last night, just as we were going to press, a young man named Keefe was stabbed in the throat, causing instant death, in Upper Water St. A young man is now in custody on suspicion. We are able to give no further particulars, but regret the unhappy occurrence deeply.—Acadian Recorder, Sept. 23.

Our Canadian exchanges as well as our local contemporaries, come to us laden with matter respecting the proposed Federal Union. It is an excellent topic to write upon, but the people, so far as we have been able to judge, care very little about it; the predominant feeling is one of apathy, and this has its origin in the want of faith felt in Canada. If we could only feel satisfied that that Province is in earnest, we might be inclined to look into the general subject.—St. John Daily Evening Globe, Sept. 22.

It is sickening to read the accounts which come to hand of the executions in Warsaw and Poland generally, now that the insurrection has been put down. Those wholesale butcheries in the capital of Poland, under the eye of the minions of the Czar, make all the statements relative to the humanity of Alexander the Second sound like a voice from the grave.

The Presbyterian Tea at Summerside, on Tuesday was a highly respectable affair. The attendance was large, some having come from Charlottetown. Great credit is due to the ladies who got up the Tea. We have been at a good many Tea Parties in our time, some on both sides of the Atlantic, but must say that the arrangement of the tables and the display of cake at Summerside equalled, if not surpassed, anything of the kind we have seen. After Tea there was some excellent music, instrumental as well as vocal, and several Ministers who were present delivered short addresses. We understand that the handsome some of £60 was realized.—Isl.

The Bark Empress, of Port Hill, from Richibucto, bound to Bristol, timber and deal laden, sprung a leak in a heavy gale, about twelve days since, about 80 miles eastward of St. Paul's, and had to put back to Richmond Bay, where she will probably be discharged to find out the leak.

The Federal Steamer Iosco, Drake, Commander, came into Malpeque harbor on Saturday the 10th instant, and left again on the 17th. During her stay the Bark Empress, owned by the Hon. James Yeo, came too off the harbor in a leaky state, and not being able to get in on account of head winds, the gentlemanly Commander of the Iosco got up steam and gratuitously towed the Express into harbor. The Iosco is a vessel of about 500 tons, sharp at both ends—evidently a river boat.

The Schooner Pearl, Turnbull, from Pictou, for this Port, with coal, sunk in Orwell Bay, a few days since, having previously lost her rudder and part of her stern post. Captain Turnbull came near being drowned.

The Rochester Democrat, mentioning a visit of Joseph Leffel, of Springfield, Ohio, to the former city, says:—"He is the smallest business man in the world, and indeed quite an attom as compared with Gen. Tom Thumb, Mr. Leffel being only forty-four inches in height, and weighing but fifty-five pounds! Mr. Leffel is now thirty-two years of age. He is an intelligent, able-bodied, handsome featured man, and sports a moustache that would really do credit to the Scotch giant. He has filled the office of supervisor in Springfield, and is regarded as one of the most public-spirited citizens of that place." He is about to marry Miss Sarah E. Balton, who is smaller than Mrs. Thumb, and was formerly Dolly Dutton's maid of honor.

What the English editors think of the Germans may be inferred from an extract in a political paper:—"Englishmen might well cease to feel an interest in Germany. With the feeling that the Germans are morally incapable of doing justice to others, must come the belief that they have not the stuff in them to do patriotic right to themselves. Their character at present is that of of stupid egotism; their condition that of a great blue-bottle half smothered in the treacle he coveted.

When the war commenced, where the town of Corry, Pennsylvania, now stands was a dense wilderness. The discovery of oil wells in the vicinity has built up a flourishing place of over four thousand inhabitants.

The Quebec Mercury says that during the last few days no less than forty sailors have been carried off from that city to the States by crimps for the Federal army.

On the 20th a grand Military spectacle took place in the Champ De Mars, Paris, in the presence of the Emperor of the French, the Empress, the King of Spain, the Prince Imperial, and a brilliant staff. There were upwards of 70,000 troops on the ground, but their military movements were somewhat marred by the heavy rain which fell immediately after the inspection had commenced.

The other evening three young ladies went into the Oswego Palladium, for the purpose of getting a copy of that paper.—They were laughing and talking jocosely together, when one of them opened the paper and commenced reading. She uttered a cry of despair, and ejaculated, "Oh! my father, he is killed!" and sank into a chair. The others took up the paper and read the name of Sergeant McGrath in the list of killed, in the battle of the 18th instant. Two of the young ladies were daughters of Sergeant McGrath, and this was the first intimation they had of his death. The scene which followed was truly heart-rending.

At a recent trial of the Ames rifle gun at Bridgeport, a shell weighing 107 pounds, with a charge of 25 pounds of powder, went a distance of 7½ miles in 30 seconds.

Ohio's wool crop this year will be 12,000,000 pounds, worth $15,000,000.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Palpitation—Shortness of Breath—Dropsy.—This last named disease is commonly preceded by irregular action of the heart, and difficult respiration; which symptoms are always severe, and ever go from bad to worse, unless proper means of cure be resorted to. In Holloway's unrivalled Ointment and Pills, the dropsical patient will ever find succour; the present relief derived from the use of these remedies is marvellously quick, and perseverance in the steady application of this noble Oinment invariably results in a lasting and satisfactory cure. The two medicines act with such energy on the circulation and absorbent system, that the dropsical fluid vanishes, and the sufferer finds all his oppressive symptoms daily decline, till natural health returns.

ARE YOU DISTURBED AT NIGHT? and broken of rest, by a child suffering and crying with the pain of Cutting Teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the little sufferer immediately. It cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and is PERFECTLY SAFE IN ALL CASES. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.

Let not disease, with its fangs, pray upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an untimely grave. Shake of the feeling of despair and hopelessness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun, we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific form of the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, the stomach and the vital organs, JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all hurtful poison that there is in it. Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these Pills, and disease, in any form, will dissipate and vanish. As the Sun, with its glorious beams, first causes the morning dew to rise as mist, then growing stronger, casts his burning rays upon it—and behold 'tis gone—so cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. There is no blood purifier equal to JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS.

A CARD.

THE Subscriber having, for the last four months, been engaged in making large and important additions to his Factory, the CITY TANNERY, and which are now on the eve of completion, he deems the occasion to be one on which it most certainly behoves him to make some manifestation of the very grateful estimation in which he holds the liberal patronage which, for a period of six years—the time which has elapsed since he established his Factory—has been extended to him by his numerous friends in Town and Country; and which has not only incited him to the extension and improvement of his premises for manufacturing purposes, but also enabled him to meet the very heavy outlay thereby incurred.

To those friends, therefore, he now begs leave to tender his sincere and grateful acknowledgments for the very large amount of patronage for which he is already indebted to them; not doubting that his future endeavours, ON A MORE EXTENDED SCALE, to supply them, on the most reasonable terms, with the very best articles in his line, will, on their part, be met by a corresponding appreciation and encouragement of his enterprise.

The additions which he has made to his Factory, and the improvements which he has effected therein, are such as will enable him in future to manufacture about a year, besides his former usual quantity of UPPER LEATHER; and having, besides, succeeded in obtaining the services of an experienced from the United States, he confidently trusts that he shall have it in his power to offer to an appreciative public an article of SOLE LEATHER superior to any previously manufactured in the country, and fully equal to any imported.

Eight Thousand Sides of

Advice to the Farmers of P. E. Island.

AS the season for Harvest operations is approaching, and as the crops promise to be unusually abundant, the undersigned begs to remind FARMERS throughout the Island that he has just received an Invoice of his Stock of which save immense time, labor and money to those who use them, as is proved by the well established fact that they will enable a Farmer to save his crops four or five weeks sooner, and at less than half the cost, than he could do the work by the old fashioned Hook and Scythe, now rapidly going out of use, with the older and still more useless Flail. No enterprising or temperance Farmer should be without one of those wonderful Machines; the cost is comparatively trifling, and no man who is able to bear the cost should think of hiring one, as before it came to his turn to hire one of the Machines that might be in his neighbourhood, he would, perhaps, lose the chance of securing or selling his crop to advantage.

The MOWING and REAPING MACHINES were never in greater demand in the United States than at present. The scarcity of manual labor in that country, caused by the number of Farmers killed and wounded in the present War, renders such LABOUR-SAVING MACHINES more desirable than ever, and it will be almost impossible to secure a sufficient supply hereafter for the use of the agriculturalists of this Island. Now is THE TIME TO SECURE THEM. The undersigned, knowing that they would be in great demand, ordered a considerable number of them for the use of the Farmers of this Island, but could not get more than half he required, which he is prepared to sell for Cash or approved credit, for one or two years, if they are ordered before the 25th inst.

The following Agents will act for the Subscriber in selling those extraordinary and beautiful MACHINES which are so well adapted for saving labour and money; and the Subscriber hopes that they will send their orders immediately and use their best exertions to promote their sale, and thereby advance the best interests of the Colony. The Machines have JUST ARRIVED in the Steamer "COMMERCE," and one of them, together with some patent ploughs, will be on exhibition at the NORTH AMERICAN HOTEL, where an office will be opened for the sale of all such goods, during the season.
