United Church YPU Fall Rally Held At Montague

The Eastern Presbytery Young People held their Fall Rally at Montague United Church on Friday, November 11th. The afternoon session opened with a worship service conducted by Betty Gillis, Kaye Brehaut, Phyllis MacLeod and Rev. P. MacKinnon of Orwell Head Y.P.U. The theme for the service was "The Beauty of the Earth". During the services Jean and Elizabeth Gillis sang "Jesus will Walk with Me". Organist was Mrs. S.A. MacLeod.

A cordial welcome was extended to all by Merrill Wigginton, which was responded to by Mrs. Neil Ross of Dundas.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Gordon Moore. Roll call was answered by 112 members, representing 12 Unions. A report on the Fall Convention held at Moncton was given by Gordon Moore.

Plans were discussed for a special Rally at Charlottetown during the Christmas Season when Rev. Earl Leard would be home from India. The Unions were urged to study the book of Luke for Bible Week this year. David MacDonald spoke briefly on Y. P. U. Week which is being observed, November 13th to 20th.

A Resolutions Committee comprising Rev. R.A. MacLeod, Anna Matheson and Betty Gillis was appointed. It was then moved and seconded that the business meeting adjourn.

PRESENT PROGRAMS
Programs, which would be suitable for a local Union, were presented by the Presbytery Convention. A dramatization of the Parable "The Mustard Seed" was given by Lorraine Coffin, Presbytery Faith and Evangelism Convener. She was assisted by Rev. R.A. MacLeod, Jean Webster, Cyril Webster, Eileen Sanderson and June Dingwell of Marie Y.P.U.

The Missions and World Outreach Convener held an interesting Debate, "Resolved that Christians Missions are doing more for the world than the United Nations". Others taking part in the Debate were: Veronica Taylor, Jimmie Johnston, Dorothy MacDonald, Charles Mair and Ann Moore and Billie MacIntyre, Presbytery Convener.

SHOW SLIDES
Slides on the Atlantic Christian Training Centre at Tatamagouche were shown by Jackie Aitken, the Stewardship and Training Convener.

The Citizenship and Community Service Convener, Ian MacLean, divided the group into smaller groups and a lively discussion took place on various citizenship questions.

Lunch was served by the members of Montague Y.P.U., assisted by the ladies of the church.

THE EVENING SESSION
The Evening Session opened with a worship service conducted by Carol Walker, Jean LeLacheur and Charles Hansen of Georgetown Y.P.U. The theme for this Service was "God Needs Samaritans". Organist was Mrs. J.M. Fraser.

The business meeting followed. The Report of the Resolutions Committee was read by Anna Matheson. The following are the Resolutions: (1) Resolved that we extend our thanks to Rev. J. M. Fraser and the trustees of the church for the use of their facilities at our Rally. (2) Resolved that we express our appreciation to Rev. A. Frank MacLean for his challenging Message. (3) Resolved that we express our appreciation to the members of the Unions who led in worship. (4) Resolved that we urge all Unions to seek out students for the Atlantic Christian Training Centre and volunteers for full-time service in the Church.

Resolved that we as Young People give more serious consideration to our Christian Convictions in relation to the balance between Church and social activities. (6) Resolved that Young People's groups include in their activities whatever Social Service activities may be feasible in their community.

The group was very pleased to have present at their Rally, Mr. Stewart Russell, President of the Maritime Conference Y.P.U. He stated our Y.P.U. program is to fit us for a life of Christian Service.

GUEST SPEAKER
Rev. J.M. Fraser, introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Rev. A. Frank MacLean of Trinity Church, Charlottetown. Rev. MacLean chose for his topic "Training for Christian Service". He spoke on the "4 D's" which were Design, Discipline, Devotion and Dedication. He stated how each one is necessary in the building of a life.

We all must have a purpose to our life. In closing he stated "Thus can give us the same power that He possessed if we dedicate our lives to Him".

The Rally closed by singing, "Rise up O Men of God", after which Rev. J.M. Sheen pronounced the Benediction.
