Bells Of Memory

Along the gently sloping fields The timid cattle quiet grazed The mellow music of their bells Was wafted softly o'er the breeze. Mild "queenie" of the lowing herd Down to the pasture gate would come And proudly toss her glossy head To sound her bell of silver tone. On distant hills, in meadows green, Adown the lane at eventide The bells of lilting melody Lent mystic charm to the countryside. And when the busy day was done And silence reigned in field and dell There came from out the eerie calm The sleepy tinkling of a bell. To scenes like these my memory clings Dear simple joys of sight and sound Of cattle on the sunlit hills And distant bells of mellow tones. —DEB.

WHIM ROAD W. I.

The Whim Road Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Leslie Stuart. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Wesley Campbell, the meeting was opened by Mrs. George Clarey with the Institute Creed. Roll call was answered by home-made valentines. The secretary, Mrs. Robert Campbell, read the minutes of the previous meeting, together with the correspondence received during the month.

A letter was received from the Institute office in Charlottetown in answer to a request by the Institute for information concerning the educational portion of the program at the annual district convention. A number of suggestions were advanced, which will be considered by the members. Other letters and pamphlets were distributed among the members. It was agreed that an amount be donated to the annual March of Dimes campaign. The secretary reported an acknowledgement from the T. B. League for a donation made them.
