E.I. Is Subject of Comment During Constitutional Debate

By FARMER TISSINGTON
OTTAWA, (The Guardian)—Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's proposal for a subject for comment in the House of Commons this week during discussion of the report of the Royal Commission on the Constitution of the Canadian constitution.

Champion Of B.C. Indians Dies At 76 After Stroke

VANCOUVER (CP)—Malcolm Hurley, 76, a beloved and eccentric woman who was the champion of British Columbia's Indian people, died in hospital Saturday after a stroke.

She was active in her death as editor and publisher of the Native Voice, which she founded 18 years ago as Canada's first Indian newspaper.

Her first marriage was in 1914 to a boxing promoter named Arthur, with whom she moved from England to the U.S. They had five children.

to give Canada the power and authority to amend its own constitution. He said the people of P.E.I. would be responsible in their views about problems facing Canada. The total population of P.E.I. amounted to 104,000, a little more than half of one per cent of the population of Canada.

RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

The decision, all-important to Mrs. Hurley, will be handed down at or about the end of the month. Her Indian name was Chief Sun-Klux, Mother of the Fire-Back Whites of the House of Good-Kan.

Her second husband, criminal lawyer Tom Hurley, died in 1961 and she lived on in a Vancouver apartment cluttered by countless pictures, newspapers, plants, birds and Pekinese dogs.

Her first marriage was in 1914 to a boxing promoter named Arthur, with whom she moved from England to the U.S. They had five children.

City Man Given 3 Months In Ont.

BRANTFORD, Ont. (CP)—Gerald Matthews, 24, of Charlottetown, convicted last week on a charge of theft by conversion, has been sentenced to three months.

Matthews was arrested near Brockville early last month after he had rented a car from a Brantford rental agency for a weekend and failed to return it. He said he was returning from the East Coast when arrested.

Matthews, who had been working on the tobacco harvest in the nearby Hatchery district, said he had no intention of stealing the car.

FLINT MINES FOUND
LONDON (Reuters)—Russian archaeologists have discovered more than 60 flint mines worked by stone-age people 3,000 years ago in Western Belyurinsk, near Volgograd in the Soviet zone, agency Tass reported Saturday.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER
South dealer. East-West vulnerable.

West had a difficult choice of opening leads and finally selected a spade. This might have worked out well if East had had some spade strength instead of dummy, but as the cards actually were, the ten won the opening lead.

He solved the problem all right when he led the ace of hearts, receiving the six from East. He continued with the seven, 4 u m m y playing the queen, and East contributed one bit to the partnership effort by playing the deuce.
