—IN MAGISTRATE'S COURT—A party from Tignish charged with breaking and entering at the store of Frank Shea, St. Louis, appeared before Magistrate R. S. Hinton, K.C., in Summerside on Tuesday and was remanded for a week. Three persons charged with insufficient lighting on their cars were fined $2 and costs. A drunken driver was given seven days in jail and another party charged with the same offence had his case adjourned. Evidence in an assault case was partly heard and adjourned.—S

—ROTARY MEETING — Squadron Leader Harry Mills, senior accounts officer at the R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Summerside Rotary Club Tuesday at the Olympia. He gave an informative address on accounting. Rotarian guests were R. C. Bradley, Haverhill, Mass., Athol MacLeod, Cambridge, Mass., Lewis Rodney, Yarmouth, N.S., E. S. Chandler, Charlottetown. Mr. J. S. Turnbull of Summerside was also a guest.—S

—KINSMEN MEETING — Jim Harris was chairman of the regular meeting of the Kinsmen Club of Summerside held in the Olympia Restaurant Tuesday evening. Alec MacRae, reporting for the carnival committee, thanked all the members for their splendid support and said that a detailed report would be given when all the bills had been received. Club president Elmer Offer also congratulated the committee and the members generally on the fine job done. Herb Stright reported that the matter of operating the Dominion Day concessions at the race track, as had been done for the past five years, is under discussion with the proprietor of the track, Mr. Harold Gaudet.—S

—IN SUPREME COURT — The June term of the Supreme Court for Prince County was held in Summerside Tuesday with practically no business on the docket. There were no criminal cases, no appeals, and the only civil case docketed was settled between the parties before court convened. Sheriff Hubert Hall presented Mr. Justice Mark R. McGuigan, who presided, with the customary pair of white gloves indicating no criminal cases on the docket. There was no Grand Jury present, as the law now demands that the Grand Jury be called only once a year if there are no criminal cases. The only members of the bar present were the Attorney-General, Hon. W. E. Darby, K.C., and Mr. Heath Strong, K.C.—S
