

Baptist Church
Group Meeting

Mrs. W.S. McMurtry entertained the Victoria Group of the Baptist Church, Tuesday evening, April 17th, at her new home on Brackley Point Road. Fifteen members were present.

The worship service was led by Mrs. Lloyd Hawkes, who spoke on the words of Jesus, "Come ye yourselves apart" — dwelling particularly on the prayer Jesus made for His followers in St. John's Gospel, Chapter 17. Roll call was answered with a verse of Scripture beginning with the letter "E". Routine business followed. $35. was pledged by the members for the U.B.W.M.U. Acadia Scholarship fund which is used to train young women for fulltime missionary service. The president, Mrs. Earle Norrie, thanked the four members of the group who assisted with the father and son banquet Monday evening. Plans were discussed for a closing group dinner in May. An interesting Bible quiz was conducted by Edith Hawkes.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edward MacPhail. A hymn singing brought an enjoyable evening to a close.
