For The Children

Her Idea of Punishment.

There are many who think that had they but been born in a higher sphere of life they would have known what com, lette happiness meant. That this would not have been the case the following story goes a good deal toward showing, says the New York Herald. It was against the strict etiquette of the Dutch court of the young Queen Wilhelmina to be allowed to play with any other little boys and girls, and she grew up practically alone.
Wilhelmina was only about 6 or 7 years of age when she was one day heard playing with her dolls. One wax baby miscondacted itself in some way, and the small mother holding up a warning finger, said sternly:
"If you are so naughty, I shall make you into a princess, and then you won't have any other children to play with and you'll always have to throw kisses with your hands whenever you go out driving."
This she evidently considered the most severe punishment that could be administered.

A Little Nigger's Discovery.

Lor' a-massa! Don't you heah it,
Dar am suthin' in de well."
'Oh, my golly! I don feah it!
I'se de nigger that can tell."
With a fish-pole, then the nigger
Felt around among the stones:
While the scared one's eyes grew bigger,
As he uttered fearful groans.
'Dar ain't nuffin' in the watah,'
Cried the brave one in surprise,
'And I'm thingin' that you awtah
Quit yo' cunnin' nigger lies.'
Said the other: 'It am certain,
Yes am' sure as yo' stan' dare,
I was howlin' from de hurtin
Ob a hornet in my hair.
'An' I see, dare in de watah,
De mos' ugliest lookin' ting,
Starin' at me, while de hottah
Got dat yaller hornet's sting.
My! he look so awful ebbil,
Showin' jes' his tect' ann eyes,
Dat I tink it am de debbil
Come to take me by surprise.
Said the other: 'Oh, de stuffin'!
I's been 'sidering de case,
An' I'm certain yo' see noffin'
But de shadow ob yo' face.'

The Homeless Cat.

She stood in the tender twilight,
While the soft wind whispered by;
Homeless friendless and weary,
Under the evening sky.
The scent of the violets wafted
From the grassy turf at her feet.
And the promise of coming summer
Made all things wondrous sweet.
But alone she stood in twilight,
With the dew on her roughened
hair,
And her soft eyes dimmed by unshed
tears,
Without a friend to care;
Nor even a roof to shelter her,
Or a kindly word is said,
As from door to door she moves along,
Begging her daily bread.
Oh, think of her in your cheerful
homes,
When the twilight shadows come,
As you gather around your bounteous board
In the safe and happy home.
Give her a kind and gentle word—
You can surely spare her that;
She may come to your door at any time—
The homeless deserted cat.

The Ambitious Boy.

Some fellers like to play baseball,
And some likes football, too,
An some thinks marbles better yet
(An plays fer keeps, they do),
But where they's any fun in them
Is more'n I kin see.
Fer Buff'lo Bill and cowboys
Is good 'nough fer me!
I'd rather roam the prairies wide
An hunt the Injuns wild
Than have to monkey round in school
Jes like some little child.
I don't see how my folks expect
Too make muck out o' me
Unless I'm roun' where Buff'lo Bill
An all his cowboys be!
If I could get a nice fast horse,
A gun and pistol too,

You bet I wouldn't stay roun' here
With sich prospects in v'aw!
I'd start right fer the wooly west,
An mighty soon I'd be
With Buff'lo Bill and cowboys—
They're good 'nough fer me!

I'm jest about discouraged
When I think o' what a name
I'd carve in letters big and bold,
'Sides winnin' piles o' fame!
I'd call myself the "Infant scout,"
An soon my ma would see
That Buff'lo Bill and cowboys
Wus jes' the men fer me
I'd wear my hair way down my back
And sport a buckskin coat
With fringes runnin down the seams
An open at the throat;
I'd wear a big sombrero
An boots with spurs—oh, gee,
If I could only live out west,
Where all the cowboys be!

My mamma says I'm orful bad
Cause I don't like my school
And sez if I keep on I'll be
Jes' nothin but a fool;
She sez she jes' can't understand
What hez got into me,
An what there is bout Buff'lo Bill
That's good she fails to see.

But then my ma she ain't a boy
So how is she to know,
Fer if she wus I bet she'd guess
The reason I tink so.
She never read o' Jesse James
Er Injuns shot out West.
Er else she'd see why Buff'lo Bill
And cowboys is the best!

I guess they's time 'nough fer me
To go to school bime by.
Jes' now I want to win a name—
How can I less I try?
If you like school why that is jes'
The place you'd orter be.
But Buff'lo Bill and cowboys
Is good 'nough fer me!

A LONDON CASE.
Proving the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills in Kidney Disease.

LONDON, March 20.—Mr. Charles Dean, stableman at the City Hotel, comes forward to add his quota to the mass of evidence in favor of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Dean states that he had for three years suffered from severe cutting pains in the small of his back. At times they were so great that he had to lie down to get relief. Several remedies were used without benefit. A doctor prescribed for him, saying his kidneys were affected, but no good resulted. Finally he took a friend's advice and used Dodd's Kidney Pills. The usual result followed. Three boxes cured him out and out.

Tailor-Made vs. Factory-Made!
Take up the printed announcements of makers and importers of ready-made clothing, and when they strive to give emphasis to the alleged merits of their clothing they invariably tell how nearly they approach to tailor-made.
Here are some quotations—
'Elegantly tailored.'
Cut and finished equal to ordered work,' Equal in quality, fit, and finish to suits made to order, or similar statements.
Then tailor-made clothes are different to imported factory-made, otherwise there would be no need to make comparisons. If tailor-made were not the better clothes they would not be held up as the ideal to which the ready-made strive to reach.
The fact is there is a great deal of difference between a factory-made imported suit and a tailor-made in style and durability.
The man that is indifferent as to the appearance of his clothes when he buys them and when worn a month, may be satisfied with a factory-made, but if he has regard to looks and economy, he will buy tailor-made garments.
For those who are not disposed to give the prices usually paid for clothes made to special order, and are not satisfied with the imported ready-made clothing, we have made, and are daily adding, Suits and Overcoats of superior workmanship that we are selling as low in price as imported makes of inferior quality.
