Overreached Himself.

English railways have a very sensible rule that passengers are not allowed to stand in the cars if anyone objects thereto. The following incident of recent occurrence shows that it does not always pay to insist too strongly on one's rights:

"Will you kindly allow me to stand?" asked a gentleman as he got into a railway carriage, which carriage already contained the specified number.

"Certainly not, sir!" exclaimed a passenger occupying a corner seat near the door. "The way these trains are overcrowded is shameful!"

"As you appear to be the only person who objects to my presence," replied the gentleman, "I shall remain where I am."

"Then I shall call the guard and have you removed, sir."

Suiting the action to the word, the aggrieved passenger rose, and, putting his head out of the window, vociferously demanded the guard. The new-comer saw the opportunity, and quietly slipped into the corner seat.

"One over the number," said the new-comer to the guard, coolly.

"You must come out, sir! the train's going on," and without waiting for further explanation the guard pulled out the aggrieved passenger, who was left wildly gesticulating on the platform.

Absorbents and Deodorizers.

Are you using absorbents in your stable or milking-place, or do you depend on simply cleaning the floor or platform and leave the rest to nature? You are making a mistake if you are not using absorbents, which are also deodorizers. They take up the liquid portion of the droppings, keep the atmosphere sweet, and help to retain the fertilizing elements of the manure. This is also true of common land plaster, which fixes the nitrogen and keeps it to fertilize the fields. We see that some announce the use of lime. This is unwise, as the lime expels the gases instead of absorbing them. It may deodorize and sweeten, but it is at the expense of valuable fertilizing elements. Avoid the use of lime and ashes in the stable and barn-yard and on the manure heap, but use lime all you please in whitewashing. Better to try dry earth, which is a good absorbent, next to land plaster, and costs only the gathering and housing. One or the other every one can have. They work well together Put lime and ashes on your fields, if they need them, but use only plaster and dry earth as absorbents and deodorizers in your stables, milking-places and barn-yards.—Indiana Farmer.

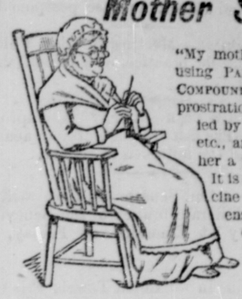
It Made Mother Strong



"My mother has been using PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND for nervous prostration, accompanied by melancholia, etc., and it has done her a world of good. It is the only medicine that strengthens the nerves.' G. H. BEERS, Orbisonia, Pa.

"I am in my 44th year. Have been afflicted in several ways—could not sleep, had no appetite, no courage, low spirits. I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound, and felt relief from the third day after using it. I now have a good appetite and can sleep well. My spirits and courage are almost like those of a young man." S. C. KINKAID, D. D., Gonzales, La.

Paine's Celery Compound

Strengthens and builds up the old, and cures their infirmities. Rheumatism, indigestion and nervousness yield quickly to the curative power of Paine's Celery Compound.

A Perfect Tonic and Invigorator, It GIVES NEW LIFE.

"I am now 69 years old and have tried several remedies, but none had any effect until I used Paine's Celery Compound. I feel entirely different for the short time I have used it. I can walk nearly straight, sleep sound and well, and feel as though there was new life and energy coming into my whole system." H. MYLIUS, Cleveland, Tenn.

Paine's Celery Compound is of unequaled value to women. It strengthens the nerves, regulates the kidneys and has wonderful power in curing the painful diseases with which women so often cruelly suffer.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and enjoys good health."
