RAID ON THE NEWSPAPERS.

The Spanish Army Officers Attempt to Destroy the Printing Outfit.

HAVANA Jan 13.—At 10 o'clock yesterday morning about a hundred army officers, incensed by the violent attacks made by some of the local dapers on the general in chief and principal officers of the Spanish army in Cuba, went to the printing offices of the Daily Journal, La Discussion and El Reconcentrado, and began smashing the windows and destroying the printing outfit, as well as cuffing the employes.

A mob of thousands followed, shouting "Long live Spain, "long live the army," "long live the volunteers." The appearance at the office of La Discussion of Gen. Garriche, acting military commander at Havana, and Gen. Solana, chief of staff, prevented more serious outrages. These officers then proceeded to the office of El Diario De Da Marian, the mob shouting meanwhile: "Death to El Reconcentrado" and "Death to La Discussion," but on the appearance of Gen. Parrado, the people scattered.

At half past eleven large crowds of civilians appeared opposite the offices of El Diario De La Marina and began smashing the doors and shouting "Long live Spain." "long live the army," "long live the volunteers." The horses and infantry of the gen d'armie dispersed the rioters.

Order was finally established and Central Park has been transformed into a military park. The troops have been ordered into barracks.

Gen. Solano will deal most energetically with the initiators of the outbreak. Tonight the police are guarding the printing offices.

NEWS NOTES.

Giblin the famous cantab and international footballer, has left for the Klondike.

Enquaries at the war office elicit the statement that there was not the slightest foundation for the reported intention of the imperial government to call upon Canada to furnish a battalion in the event of trouble in the east.

The New Zealand shipping company, limited, has presented a petition for liquidation for James Huddart's Canadian Australian Royal Mail Steamship Company, limited. The application will be heard on the 19th inst.

The English engineers are beaten. It has taken them a long time to find it out, and they might have saved their families a great deal of suffering by awakening to the fact sooner. But for anybody's sake it is cause for congratulation that the struggle is at last over.

Lord Ava the son of Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, formerly governor general of Cansda, viceroy of India and British embassador of Paris, has arrived in Montreal from England. It is the intention of his lordship to proceed to Ottawa where he will be the guest of their excelliences, the Governor General and Countess of Aberdeen.

Le Reveil thinks that the second act in the political drama in Quebec province, the first act of which was the Langelier-Chapleau incident, will soon be enacted, and will prove still more interesting than the first. It claims that the calm of the last few days is but the result of a ten days' truce, which is now about expired.

The Minister of Customs has decided that the dogs imported into Canada, even for use on the Yukon trails, must pay a duty of 20 per cent. Three hundred dogs from Newfoundland reached Ottawa on Saturday en route to the Pacific coast. When the animals landed at Sydney, C. B., the Customs collector charged duty upon them at the rate of 20 per cent. or about $1 per head. The men in charge of the outfit saw Hon. Mr. Patterson, and asked that the duty be refunded, a request while the Minister refused. Another consignment of 160 dratt dogs is now on way from Halifax.

The sending of more British troops to Egypt, to support the 20,000 men who are already on the road to Khartoum indicates both that the next advance will complete the work begun three years ago, and that it will not be long delayed. So far General Kitchener has hastened slowly. He has foreseen and provided for everything, and his movements have been timed almost as exactly as were those of Lord Wolseley when he announced the day on which he would attack and defeat Arabi at Tel-el-Kebir. He has given reason for trusting that in the last, most trying and most perilous stage of his enterprise, he and his men, English and Egyptian, will be found equal to the duty before them.

Y. W. C. T. U.

Last evening the first year students of the Prince of Wales College were pleasantly and profitably entertained by the Y. W. C. T. U. at their rooms on Grafton St. The chair was occupied by Rev. Geo. Campbell, who performed his duties in his usual good style. The programme opened by singing a Gospel hymn followed by the Lord's prayer. Miss Daisy Lewis then sang a solo very sweetly, and a recitation by Mrs. R. C. Goff was very impressive. Rev. Mr. Bryan gave an earnest temperance talk to the boys, which was attentively listened to and could not fail to have its effect. The next on the programme was a solo by Mr. Cecil McNeil, but a bad cold had laid its voice destroying hand upon him and he could not fill the call. Dr. Maloney rendered an excellent cornet solo accompanied by Miss Mary Large on the organ. This was followed by a very pleasing talk to the young ladies by Rev. Mr. Sutherland. Both Messrs. Bryan and Sutherland urged the necessity of total abstinence, and during the interval a large number of the students signed the pledge, and by all indications mean to keep it. The coffee and cake were of usual good quality, and, as a consequence immensely enjoyed. Misses. Chappell, Mellish, Phillips, Hodgson and Bremner, although not Y's, made excellent saleswomen at the candy table, and realized the sum of $2.68, which is to be added to the fund for the relief of Y. W. C. T. U. sufferers at Windsor.

—The Right Hon. James Bryce, Radical M. P. for South Aberdeen, speaking at Wolverhampton a few evenings ago on foreign competition, dwelt specially upon that of the United States. Mr. Bryce, after pointing out that steel rails, electrical plants and cycles were all produced in the United States, "enormously cheaper" than in England, said, "It is a pity that we should allow this. While if, as is not unlikely, protection in America should be pushed to such extravagant lengths as to be overthrown, we would have to face a more severe competition."

Earl Russell, freed from his divorce court troubles, is agitating the "one man one bath" questions in British workhouses. At Maidenhead, the scene of the recent typhoid fever outbreak, where the earl is one of the board of guardians, he discovered that they had washed 40 tramps in six bathfuls of water. With some difficulty he put through a proposal to use the same water for only two or three persons, one overseer objecting that "he did not know when they were going to stop giving luxuries to tramps."

We thank those who so promptly paid their accounts rendered this month. There are hundreds still unpaid; these represent thousands of dollars, which we require this month. We again request a generous response; receipts given each day from 8 a. m, to 6 p m,—Stanley Bros.
