

From sunrise to sunset on Friday, February 21st, women all over the world joined in the Day of Prayer services. In Charlottetown a large number of women from the various churches gathered in Zion Church, Friday afternoon to give their voices in a service of prayer. The theme of the service was the "Bread of Life" arranged this year by the women of Australia.

Mrs. Annie Darrach, President of the Women's Missionary Society of Zion Church, presided and extended a warm welcome to all.

Mr. Lea-Morgan was organist, and the choir loft was filled with members from the different churches. The hymns sung during the service were "Break Through the Bread of Life", "The Lord is King", "Lift up Thy voice", and "Depth of Mercy". The first three parts of the service were led by Mrs. Darbell (Trinity), and the Intercession by Mrs. Carter (Salvation Army). Mrs. Carter was assisted by Mrs. Lynn Davison (St. Peter's), Mrs. Lemuel Webster (Baptist), Mrs. Joseph Neale (Trinity), Mrs. Chas. Cotes (St. Paul's), Mrs. Eva Mutow (Church of Scotland), and Mrs. Gordon White (St. James).

Mrs. M. D. Dunbar brought a challenging and impressive message taking as her theme "The Broken Bread". She used three thoughts concerning Jesus, the Bread of Life: Jesus, the Broken Bread for the needs of the body; Jesus, the broken Bread for the soul; and Jesus, the Broken Bread for the empowered life.

Following Mrs. Dunbar's address a solo "Prayer Perfect" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Neil MacLean.

The offering received on the World Day of Prayer is given chiefly for the production and distribution of Christian literature around the world. This work is done by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada.

The offering was dedicated with prayer.

The inspiring service was brought to a close by singing the hymn "The Day Thou Gavest Linn is Ended", and the Benediction.

A SPEAKING LIKENESS
Portrait For McGill Of Noted P. E. Islander

Mrs. Cyrus Macmillan, 294 Richmond Street, Charlottetown is presenting a portrait of her husband the late Hon. Dr. Cyrus Macmillan, to McGill University where Dr. Macmillan was Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Science in the 1940's. The painting shows him as he looked at that time. He is wearing his Harvard gown and hood which he wore when he officially opened the new Prince of Wales College building here.

The portrait is by Jabi Bibby who is a sister of Mrs. Heber Percy of Fortune Bridge in this province. Mrs. Bibby has enjoyed summer vacations here at various times. She has spent several winters in Montreal but now has returned to California for permanent residence.

At the Sausolito Episcopal Church is a beautiful screen by Mrs. Bibby given to the church in memory of her mother. She held a small exhibition of her works at the Civic Centre in the War Two he was Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of National Defence for Air.

In addition to his work at McGill, and as a parliamentarian Dr. Macmillan served his country in many other capacities. He was a member of the commission on Maritime Claims 1926 (commonly known as the Duncan Commission), a member of the Royal Commission on Maritime Fisheries 1927-28 and chairman of the Royal Commission on Education in Prince Edward Island in 1929.

He wrote a number of books and was a contributor during his lifetime to a number of prominent Canadian and American magazines and other publications.

Canadian Wonder Tales was one of his best known books during his lifetime. Gloopscaps Country was published after his death which occurred in 1953.

During his period of service with the Canadian Artillery in the First Great War Dr. Macmillan was twice mentioned in despatches. He commanded the 6th Battery, Canadian Siege Artillery from October 1916 to May 1919.

The portrait will hang in Redpath Hall.

Charged With Theft Of Sleigh

A resident of Charlottetown scheduled to be sentenced in Queens County Magistrate's Court Friday afternoon on a charge of possession of stolen goods, had a second charge laid against him, that of theft. He was charged with the theft of a one horse wood sleigh, valued at under $50.00, the property of Francis McKenna of Tracadie. Magistrate Gilbert A.

"BROTHERHOOD"

It is evident that the foundation of real brotherhood, the cause of loving co-operation and reciprocity and the source of real kindness and unselfish devotion is none other than the breaths of the Holy Spirit.

For example consider the foundation of brotherhood laid by Christ. Observe how that fraternity was conducive to unity and accord and how it brought various souls to a plane of uniform attainment where they were willing to sacrifice their lives for each other.

When through the breaths of the Holy Spirit this perfect fraternity and agreement are established among men, this brotherhood and love being spiritual in character, this loving kindness being heavenly, these constraining bonds being divine, a unity appears which is indissoluble, unchanging and never subject to transformation.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR FOR THE MUTUAL LIFE OF CANADA

NEW LIFE INSURANCE SOLD	$ 306,160,000
LIFE INSURANCE IN FORCE	$2,411,410,000
SURPLUS EARNINGS	$ 14,020,000
ASSETS	$ 551,847,000
DIVIDENDS TO POLICYHOLDERS	$ 10,135,000

Behind these figures is the real story of accomplishment ...

The report of an insurance company must necessarily be made in figures, for its growth and conditions are measured in dollars. Back of those figures, however, the real story of accomplishment can be told in service to people.

SALES OF NEW INSURANCE MEAN:
thousands of Canadian families made more secure for today and the days to come ... financial security for employees and employers through group insurance ... stability and security for proprietors, partners and business corporations through business insurance.

SERVICE TO POLICYHOLDERS MEANS:
helping and advising people in countless ways so that they may get the best protection from insurance and keep their insurance programmes up to date.

PAYMENTS TO POLICYHOLDERS MEAN:
cash and income for widows ... education for children ... monthly income and independence for unmarried women from endowment and pension policies ... retirement income for older people so that they are not dependent on relatives or charity ... reduction in the cost of life insurance, or increase in pension income, through the payment of high Mutual Life of Canada dividends ... loans on policies for emergencies in times of need.

COMPANY INVESTMENTS MEAN:
more capital for Canada's industries, transportation and government ... aid to Canadians through mortgage loans.

A complete report, as presented at the 88th Annual Meeting, will be mailed to policyholders, and to others on request.
