

and the Fishery Reserves Bills. He gave a satisfactory explanation of the purchase of the Worell Estate, and proved that in the end the measure would sustain itself.

It is stated that Mr. Doyle has since resigned, but whether he intends giving his support to Mr. Gaudet or not, I cannot say.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—I have seen in the Protector a letter signed "Andrew Loehhead," in which he states, that he attended the meeting held at Georgetown, and simply proposed Mr. Haviland as a candidate.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—Probably you will be kind enough to give me true information concerning the following questions:— Is it true that when the Liberal party endeavoured to pass the Tenants' Compensation Act, the Tory party strongly petitioned against its becoming law?

It is true that when the Liberal party passed the Elective Franchise Bill, conferring on every person a vote who was 21 years of age, and the Tories perceiving this likely to be a great boon to the tenantry in shaking off proprietary thraldom, and greatly obstructing the success of their party, at once petitioned the Home Government, praying that the royal sanction might be withheld from this Bill?

In this, Mr. Editor? Please let me know the real truth; for I cannot believe that there is any one in this Colony so diabolically inclined as to do such.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—A general election being so close at hand, it is not at all to be wondered at that the public mind should be agitated on a variety of questions. The Tories are bending every energy, and employing every means, dishonorable or otherwise, to secure the defeat of the Government; and a thousand things are said about reckless expenditure, corruption, misrepresentation, &c., &c., to blindfold the unwary.

Hoping some one more competent may take up the subject, and that no imprisonment for debt will soon be the law of the land, I remain, yours truly,

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—A short time since we observed in an issue of your paper two articles, one above the signature of "Bertram Moore," and the other above that of "Benjamin Davies," thanking the Agent of the Alliance Insurance Company, the Hon. Dr. Young, for his kindness in presenting to them a sum of money each, viz: ten pounds to the former, and twelve pounds to the latter, for their exertions at the late fire on Water-street.

encouragement, only receiving ten shillings per annum, with the exception of five out of each Company, who receive twenty-five shillings each for cleaning the engine in the fall and after every fire, (which amounted to seven times last year), and also a premium of thirty shillings for the first engine at a fire, which every person knows is a mere trifle compared to that which they ought to receive.

Instead of each Insurance Office giving at least five pounds per annum for the support and encouragement of the different Fire Engine Companies, and taking into consideration that there is scarcely a fire but one, or, sometimes, more of them, are benefitted by the prompt exertions of the Fire Department in general, yet, to their discredit and meanness, they actually refuse to grant one shilling.

We are confident that all the Engine Companies would resign at once, and would have done so long ago, were it not for the respect they have for the citizens of Charlottetown.

The Members of No. 3 Fire Engine Company.

Charlottetown, June 7, 1858.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—It affords the inhabitants of this vicinity great pleasure to see our friend and politician, A. McNeill, Esq., determined to carry forward his philanthropic deeds, by nobly stepping forth in the Second Electoral District of Queen's County; and it affords us still more pleasure when we consider that the people have given him every encouragement, and duly appreciate his services, by declaring him to be a fit and proper person to represent that District.

I cannot decline congratulating the electors of the Second District on the very judicious choice they have made; and I can conscientiously tell them, that if they return Mr. McNeill, their anticipations will be fully realized. He has always borne a good character in this District, and if the Tories but speak the truth, they cannot but give him the same in the Second. I caution the electors of that district not to give way to the croakings of selfish individuals respecting Mr. McNeill, who is a native of the place which he is likely to represent. His character whilst amongst us, I am happy to say, stood unimpaired; and no doubt the enlightened people which he is about to represent will confer on him the "distinguished honour" which is his due.

I remain, &c. JUNIUS.

KILDARE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The second quarterly meeting of this Institute took place at the Kildare Cross School-house, on Saturday the 29th ult., when a report of all the monthly meetings, and the doings of the Institute since the last quarterly meeting, was duly submitted by the Secretary. The reports of the schools visited by the different committees appointed were also duly read and entirely gained, viz: the arriving at a uniform system of teaching. All the members of the Institute have now the same method of teaching. The 21 article of the Constitution was altered so that one teacher, instead of two, be appointed to visit each school, and that he remain in the school all day. At the monthly meetings debates have taken place on the best method to be adopted for imparting instruction to youth. The following lectures have been delivered before the Institute since the last quarterly meeting, viz:—By Mr. A. McLachern, on the 15th March, on "The art of Printing;" and by Mr. McLachern, on the 25th March, on "Temperance;" Mr. C. Daly delivered an ex tempore lecture on "Astronomy," on the 15th April; and another on the 18th May, on "The Atmosphere and its Phenomena;" Mr. J. G. Murphy delivered a lecture on "The Philosophy of the Mind," on the 24th April; and Mr. M. Ryan delivered a lecture (the last for the season) on the 29th May, on "Ireland." All the lectures were delivered in such a manner as showed the lecturers to be perfect masters of their subjects. Interesting debates followed each lecture, and the lecturers were highly complimented by the audience.

Resolved, That this report be forwarded to one of the newspapers for publication, with an humble request that the other papers do copy.

MARTIN RYAN, Secretary pro tem.

LOT 50 TEACHERS' UNION.

On the 5th June, the members of the above Union availed themselves of the privilege of meeting. Some miscellaneous business was first transacted, when the Secretary made the members acquainted with certain gifts conferred on them by different lovers of education. After some appropriate remarks, it was moved by J. H. Fletcher and seconded by D. Euman, that a vote of thanks be given to the Hon. Charles Young, L. L. D., for his kindness in presenting this Union with three copies of the "Eclectic Magazine." It is Mr. Young's intention to continue forwarding the succeeding Nos. as he receives them, in return for which we have no other recompense at present to offer but thanks. A vote of thanks was also passed to Mr. A. A. McKenzie, teacher of the Academy, for several copies of the "Massachusetts Teacher." Both of these are excellent publications. The former will prove instrumental in giving us a better idea of popular literature, whilst the latter contains articles well adapted to answer the purpose for which our Society has been organized.

Mr. Joseph Currie having been then called to the chair, the subject previously given out was taken up and very well discussed, principally by Messrs. Eaman, Fletcher, M-Kenzie, Currie and McDonald.

It was agreed that the next meeting be held at the Uigg school-room, on the 3d of July, at 4 o'clock, p.m., when the quarterly report will be read, and the Visiting Committee appointed, after which, Mr. Fletcher will deliver a lecture on "The government of schools and duties of Teachers." The public are invited to attend. J. H. FLETCHER, Secretary.

To the Electors of the 4th District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,—In offering myself again, in compliance with the wishes of a large number of supporters, as a candidate for your suffrages at the approaching general Election, I feel that I am appealing to you for your verdict on my past public character as one of your late representatives. My principles are unchanged. And now that one of the most important measures ever passed for the benefit of this Colony, and which I strenuously supported in my place in the House of Assembly—I mean the Loan Bill—has received the sanction and guarantee of the Home Government, it is evident that the men who have hitherto proved themselves the friends of the tenantry, should alone be entrusted with its management and perfection, in preference, at all times, to proprietary partisans, whose interests and aims it will be, if placed in power at this juncture, to prevent the leaseholders of this Island from becoming freeholders, under the operation of the Land Purchase and Loan Bills. If I will be again honored with your confidence, you may rest assured that I shall use my best endeavors to carry into effect all those truly liberal measures which tend to the advancement of this my adopted country.

I remain, gentlemen, your obedient servant.
