

we blush to say...

we're  not

turning over a new leaf in '56

The point of Resolutions seems to be:
To make them solemnly, break them with glee.
So, to break this discouraging mold —
We hereby abandon New leaf for Old.

1956 we solemnly resolve:
NOT to desist from attempting to solve
Your household problems, whatever they are,
With merchandise above! prices below! . . . par!

NOT to ignore the latest creations,
NOT to limit our sale sensations,
NOT to curtail our charge account file,
NOT to abandon our service with smile

hoping these negatives will bring you cheer,
We wish you a positive

happy New Year
