DOWN - THE - BACK STRETCH

The entries for the four days racing August 15th to 18th at the Provincial Exhibition are published in this issue. It is a formidable list, in fact the largest entry list in the fifty years of the Fair's existence. Not only is the list of entries the greatest but far more horses are entered than ever before. Entries total 160, while individual horses number 113. Of course they will not all be here, some will drop out because of accidents, others will probably think the battle too tough, but allowing for casualties after carefully scanning the list we believe that at least 90 horses will face the starter in the four days racing.

Some of the classes are quite large but will probably boil down to at least 12, which is the number allotted before a division into two classes is called for by the rules. The starter will be Otto Irvine of Mars Hill, Maine, who has been well recommended and is highly thought of by local horsemen who have started under him at Woodstock. Mr. Irvine will arrive here on Monday morning, August 14th, and will meet the horsemen during the drawing for positions at the Judges' Stand, eleven p.m.

In the list of entries you will note three from Alston, Mass., a town on the outskirts of Boston. These are being brought here by Dannie Steele, former resident of Summerside, who has been racing horses in the United States for the past fifteen years. Dannie inherits horsemanship, his father having been one of the most prominent in his day. As a youth of seventeen Dannie started out driving horses and in a short time was a top-notch reinsman. With the Summerside mare Ada Mac, in the early 90's, he lowered the Charlottetown track record to 2.17.

Among the upset victories that the writer can remember most vividly was Dannie's win with the old warrior Vesta Boy, 2.05 owned by the Summerside Driving Club, at Halifax, September, 1912. Vesta Boy had been quite a figure on the Grand Circuit and after racing on minor ovals was purchased and brought to Prince Edward Island. He was a speedy horse but very difficult to get away, hence was handicapped. In the free for all at Halifax there was Frank Patch 2.06 1-4, who had been practically unbeatable, Banner Boy 2.07 1-2, brought down especially from eastern United States to take the measure of Frank Patch, Spooney Boy, Vesta Boy and two or three others.

Thousands of dollars were wagered in the pools the night before the race, about 93% of it by the backers of Banner Boy and Frank Patch, the others not being considered to have an outside chance. The race the next afternoon turned out to be one of the most spectacular in years, Frank Patch showed decided superiority over Banner Boy the [illegible] Adams pulling him out on the home stretch and winning easily. The second heat Banner Boy put up a little better fight but still it was Frank Patch without argument. Vesta Boy, on his bad behaviour and getting away rather badly and far behind each heat, finished well back.

I was sitting beside a friend from C[illegible]town who had a pocket full of dollar tickets on Vesta Boy calling for some $800.00 if they cashed. He was very glum as they raced for the third heat. Vesta Boy got away a little better and rounding the first turn was back some thirty yards from the leaders. Of course he was hopelessly out of it as we thought. The last half he seemed to improve his position and when Frank Patch, followed by Banner Boy, rounded the turn for home he had crept up to within three lengths of the leaders. Then Dannie did something dynamic through that driving energy and magnetism which is displayed by great drivers in an emergency, and Vesta Boy literally sprang to life, tearing through the stretch like a mad horse and making straight for the opening between Frank Patch at the rail and Banner Boy a length back on the outside. There did not seem room for him to get through and it was not possible for him to catch Frank within 100 yards from the wire, but he wriggled like a snake and almost flew through the air, seeming as though sulky and horse were not touching the ground, and then the people yelled like mad, the whole stand went crazy, everybody was on their feet as the shadow roll of old Vesta, with his nose high in the air, struck out in front of Frank Patch at the wire. Vesta Boy with the pole—and probably a superiority complex—went on to win the next two heats and race and my friend could hardly get the rolls of bills into his pockets that night when he cashed in at the pool room.

Congratulations to Mayor George McIntyre on again showing his ability to put on a first class crowd pleasing program of racing. It was an excellent curtain raiser for Charlottetown. The track was fast and new records were taken by two horses, while Jane Azoff 1.59 1-2, handicapped by not being accompanied with competition, stepped a mile in 2.07 1-2, only one-quarter of a second slower than the track record made by Patrick Direct August 8th, 1936 - 2.07 1-4.

Jimmie Power sprung quite a surprise in the first heat of the 2.21 Trot and Pace when he drove Miss Victoria to a win in 2.14. She was also 2-2-2 in the remaining heats, but her effort was the fastest in that class. Although Miss Victoria has raced for three years and has been battling with the leaders on almost every occasion, it was the first time she had ever won a heat, but when she did she made a good job of it and acquired a good record. Jimmie and mare got a great ovation from the large crowd.

Another to take a new record was Uscita Britton, who lowered her's from 2.15 1-2 made at Northam, to 2.14 1-2. Buck Hanover 2.05 1-2 piloted by Driver MacLeod, put over a big surprise in the 2.13 Trot and Pace by landing a winner. Buck was reputedly purchased in the spring from his American owner by Mrs. Charles Ballard, and was raced at Truro July 1st by Billy Hood. He went a good race but did not win and was then disposed of to Samuel Walker, Halifax, who turned him over to Driver MacLeod. His next start was at Northam, where he and Aaron L. went to the half in 1.01 1-2, taking the steam out of both of them for that day and ruining their chances of winning the race. Barney Hanover won in three straight, stepping the first heat in 2.08, a new track record. Buck Hanover won second money. Wednesday at Montague Buck turned the tables on Barney, although Barney won the first heat, Buck came on to win the last two, showing more class. He is a whale of a pacer when just right, as his races last year show. He had six wins to his credit in fourteen starts.

Among the visitors to Montague races were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Baker, Dartmouth, N. S. Mr. Baker will be remembered as racing quite a few good horse through the Maritimes in past years, one of the most outstanding being King Spruce 2.10, now owned in this Province.

Marjorie M. 2.07 3-4 was a formidable racing machine in the hands of Mike Jabalee, North Sydney, but most horsemen considered that the great part of the credit was due to the mare and not the driver, although Mike was okay. Now that he has accomplished miracles with Dermat breaking two or three track records, it looks as though a greater amount of the credit must be given to driver than horse. Dermat was one grand race horse some four years ago, tramping half-mile tracks in the United States in 2.04 1-2 to 2.08 consistently. He was then brought down to the Maritimes but never seemed to show the form he displayed in the United States. Now in the hands of Mike he has been not only a winner, but has beaten top-notch importations from the land of Uncle Sam, notably Rainev [illegible] Henley 2.06.

Billy 2.08 3-4, owned by Haley McLaughlin Fort Fairfield, Maine, was a starter in the 2.13 class at Montague and won third money. This horse got into an accident at Fredericton July 20th, and was considerably shaken up. He was a good winner in Maine last season and his breeding is exceptionally fine, being by Volomite 2.03 1-4.

Aaron L. 2.10 1-4, turned the tables on his full brother and stable companion, Direct L. 2.09 1-2 at Montague. This horse has as much speed as the free-for-allers. That was shown by his half in 1.01½ at Northam. He seemed to have a bit on his field although the finishes were close.

George Callbeck, Summerside, appears to have made a lucky purchase in Uscita Britton, as since coming into his ownership she has won at Northam and Montague, and now sports a new record of 2.14½. Her dam, as mentioned in these notes previously, was Uscita, that won the seven heat race at the Provincial Exhibition many years ago and was owned by Dr. F. W. Christopher, Boston. The Doctor will be most interested in following Uscita Britton's career as he was very much attached to the dam.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Porter of Montreal, took a look at June Evans 2.13 1-2, their good trotter in Joey O'Brien's stable at the race track, Thursday afternoon. Friday morning Mrs. Porter sat behind June Evans and Aaron L. in workouts and showed that she is an accomplished horsewoman. Mrs. Porter has in fact driven in races and last year drove Lee Todd three heats all better than 1.10 to win.

Walter Gibbons, acting for Frank Adams, recently bought the three-year-old trotter Grace Abbey from Ben White. She is by Guy Abbey 2.06 1-4 and is said to have trotted miles in 2.10 on a mile track. Grace is entered in the 2.22 trot at Charlottetown.

The world's record for a mile and a half pacing held until recently by Little Pat 1.59½, was lowered at Addington, New Zealand, last week by Van Derby, who set up a new record of 2.09 3-5. It was a grass track b[illegible] over.

Henry Clu[illegible] been going great guns with the Sullivan and Mawhinney stable this year. At the Old Orchard track he reduced Federal's record to 2.01 3-4 and gave Dusty Hanover a new record of 2.00 3-4. He has also won several events with the three-year-old Brady Hanover 2.02 1-4. Owners Sullivan and Mawhinney turned down $5,000 for this lad. Henry has a fourth pacer—Renown — that he expects to place close to the two-minute list before fall.

Next Wednesday the Hambeltonian Stake, the richest event for trotters in the world, will be raced at Goshen, N.Y. There will be nine starters and the favorite is Peter Astra, a son of Peter Volo, in the stable of Dr. H. M. Parshall. Peter took a record of 2.02 1-2 last season as a two-year-old and this season has shown himself ready for the two-minute list.

Strong Tennis Contingent Is Expected Here For Open Tourney Next Week

With the Prince Edward Island Open Tennis Tournament scheduled to open here Aug. 14, court fans expected tonight to see many of the big names of the Canadian tennis world flash their racquets in Charlottetown.

Don McDiarmid who turned the tournament practically upside down last year when he marched to the men's singles title with successive victories over Laird Watt, Canadian Davis Cup player, and Gordon Robinson of Niagara Falls is expected to defend his championship here this year. The tall Ottawa stylist is scheduled to play in the Nova Scotia Tournament next week and will be here the first of the following week.

Watt To Play

Laird Watt who was named Canada's best player and most effective man on the Canadian Davis Cup team in 1938 is another starter in the big meet and Laird is reported to be playing top-notch tennis this year. Recently he won the Montreal City Tournament and also the Quebec Tournament when he proved himself superior to any of the boys who made the Davis Cup squad this year. Watt was not a team candidate because of business reasons.

Garnet Raper, a strong player, will be back and he reports "Red" Haire of Garden City, N. Y, will be coming with him. It will be Haire's first appearance in a tennis tourney here. He went to the finals in the Nova Scotia open singles last year, losing to Don McDiarmid in the title round.

Among Women Players

A strong detachment of women players are on the entry list which is still far from being completed, tournament officials here said. They released a number of names including Dorothy Hurst, 16-year-old Toronto girl who holds the Ontario Junior Championship and Miss Ruth Fishleigh, a former Ontario Junior Champion who has since graduated to senior play and has been a ranking player in her province in that division.

Other women players who are expected to appear here although entries were not received to date include Vera Jager, a junior star hailing from Garden City and Miss Claire Walsh of Toronto, ranked sixth in Canada and fourth in Ontario.

Nova Scotia, always dependable for a strong representation, is expected to court Bev Piers and Kaye Doyle who took the Eastern Canadian mixed doubles title here last year, and Mrs. F. V. Woodbury and Mrs. H Jones who took the women's doubles in the same tourney.

Another outstanding player who is expected to enter the men's singles list here is Bill Piggott of Hamilton, Ont. Bill was one of the men who fought for a place on the Canada cup team this year. He and Don McDiarmid were in the running right up to the last minute.

Doug Haig and J. S. Beck of Toronto are other men players who have notified local tournament officials that they will be here.

Doubleheader Baseball Bill Is Scheduled

Baseball fans will be treated to another baseball doubleheader at the Victoria Park diamond over the week-end, when the Stars and Rovers, second and third place teams in the City Baseball League race lineup against each other in the first encounter at 1:15, with the Dominions, local intermediates tackle the Summerside All-Stars in the second encounter at 3.30.

Rovers, trailing the Stars by one game for the final playoff spot, will be out to advance in the standing, while Stars will be seeking victory number two in the new schedule.

It will be the first start for Whackey McEachern's Dominions when they lineup against Summerside All-Stars. An even bet to capture Island intermediate honors Dominions can expect plenty opposition from the crew of ball-tossers Summerside will put on the field and a close, exciting tussle appears to be in the offing.

Last night's City League game between the Anchors and Stars was postponed owing to wet grounds.

Halifax Star Outstanding In Meet

TRURO, Aug. 4—Paced by the versatile Marie Collier, Halifax Ladies Aathletic Club captured point honors at the Maritime Women's track and field meet held at T. A. A. C. grounds Wednesday. Miss Collier, the most consistent competitor on the grounds, won five firsts, thus netting 25 points of the Halifax team's total of 79.

(Miss Collier is a granddaughter of Mr. William Collier, Rochford St., Charlottetown).

Riggs And Wood In Tennis Final

(By The Associated Press)

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 4—Bobby Riggs of Chicago today entered the final round of the 49th annual Meadow Club invitation tennis tournament with a hollow 4-6, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2 victory over Bob Kamrath of Austin.

Riggs' opponent tomorrow, for the second successive year, will be Sidney Wood, who was equally unimpressive in defeating Ernest Sutter, of New Orleans, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

The doubles team of Don McNeill and Frankie Parker gained the final round, but rain interrupted the match between Riggs and Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., who trailed Bill and Chester Murphy of Chicago, 11-13, 4-2. McNeill and Parker defeated Frank Guernsey Jr. of Orlando, Fla., and Russell Bobbitt of Atlanta, 6-2, 5-7, 7-9, 6-4, 6-2.

BLANK ST. PATS

AMHERST, N. S., Aug. 3—The touring House of David baseball team blanked Amherst St. Pats 5-0 here today in an exhibition baseball game, the brilliant fielding of the visitors.

Leslie And Graham Ready For Title Battle Tonight

Champion George Leslie and challenger George Graham both wound up training yesterday afternoon for their big Maritime heavyweight title fight which is scheduled for ten rounds or less at the Sporting Club tonight.

Leslie, just tipping the scales at a mere 200 pounds arrived in the city yesterday morning, browned and ready for the first defence of the title which he captured from Bill Sparks of Amherst a little more than three weeks ago. Leslie will not predict to win by a knockout from his tough challenger but the big Souris heavyweight is confident he will be the "winnah and still champion" after tonight's fight has passed into history.

As usual he will go out from the opening bell seeking to carry the offensive and he feels sure that he can make Graham fight his way. Leslie was never in any better condition for a scrap and Graham can be sure of meeting a champion as physically fit as hard conditioning can make him.

Graham likewise wound up his conditioning sieze yesterday. The big Murray Harbor boy who took the Island title away from Leslie at one time only to have Leslie take it back from him, promises the fans to put up a much better scrap tonight than he did on the occasion when he lost the title. He is probably 100 percent more fit and the manner in which he has been mauling sparring mates in workouts betokens plenty of trouble for his opponent who will carry a big weight and height advantage into the ring. However, this is not bothering the soft-spoken Graham any. He won't even make a prediction on how the fight will turn out, but it is dollars to doughnuts that the Murray Harbor mittslinger will give the champion plenty of argument all the way.

Danny McCormack, fast Souris welterweight and one time holder of the Island lightheavy title trades punches with Danny Mullins of St. Peters in the semi-final. This bout might well steal the show. Mullins and McCormack both know plenty about the finer points of the game and both can "sock" plenty hard when the occasion warrants. Both also fight best when hurt and fans might very well see a bristling two-fisted fight all the way.

Well matched preliminary bouts round out a card that should spell "ACTION" all through.

Island Yachts Are Prominent At Regatta

SHEDIAC, N. B., Aug. 4—Prince Edward Island yachts were prominent in the annual regatta held here today. Mongrel, owned by Ray McDougall, Charlottetown, failed to finish the first heat but placed third and second in the others.

Lifford In Decision Win Over Parsons

HALIFAX, Aug. 4—Johnny Lifford of St. Stephen, N. B., won a 10-round decision over Martin (Kid) Parsons, Halifax fishhandler in the main bout of a boxing card tonight. The fight was billed as for the Maritime lightweight title held by Lifford.

The decision favored the New Brunswick boy 2-1. Lifford weighed 136¾, his opponent 132.

After an even first round Lifford came out fast for the second and piled up points on his challenger. He continued the same tactics in the third even when a flurry of blows drew blood from his nose.

In the next few rounds his wide open tactics let him down and although his attack continued strong he took a lot of punishment. Lifford's abilities to absorb the shock of Parsons' blows saved him from a knockout because the fishhandler's punch carried dynamite.

In the eighth and ninth the St. Stephen battler went back to his smart jabbing style: in the 10th he tried to outpunch Parsons again but the Kid put the dampers on him with straight rights to the face.

Alice Marble In Easy Victory

EAST HAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 4—(AP)—Miss Alice Marble, United States and Wimbledon Champion, heading the seeded list of the annual invitation women's tennis tournament, had an easy task today in defeating Miss Dorothy Workman of Los Angeles, seeded No. 4, in straight sets, 6-3, 6-1, to enter the final round.

Miss Marble will meet Miss Helen Jacobs tomorrow

Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan of Brookline, Mass., seeded No. 2, was less fortunate in her quarter-final match which she extended to three gruelling sets before losing to Miss Jacobs, 8-6, 5-7, 6-3.

Harold S. Vanderbilt's Ranger won its fourth straight victory over T. O. M. Sopwith's Endeavour II at Newport, R. I. two years ago today. It was Great Britain's 16th bid for the America's Cup which has remained inthe United States since 1851.

Rack Rifle Class Added To P. R. A. Meet

The annual prize meet of the Provincial Rifle Asscoiation opens at Kensington Rifle Range on Monday August 7th and closes on Tuesday August 8th.

In addition to the usual annual matches which take place for marksmen using peep sights, a new class has been added in all the main shoots and is open to members using the rack rifles as issued with open sights. Any member from the province who has not won a prize of over $2.00 in any squadded deliberate fire competition on the P. R. A. or D. R. A. is eligible as a competitor in the rack rifle class competitions.

It is expected that this innovation will attract quite a number of marksmen who otherwise would be unable to compete on account of not having the equipment necessary for the peep sight class.
