Worth $10 a Bottle.

Dear Sirs,—I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia, and have found it to be the best medicine I ever used. I could not eat without suffering from a terrible burning p in in the pit of my stomach I used six bo tles of B. B. B. and am glad I did so, or I should have been in my grave to-day, it completely cured me. I take a bottle every spring, and would not be without it if it cost $10 a bottle. DAVID PEDLEY, Morley, Alb.

A "harmless crank" is one that runs the grindstone by the aid of a boy. It is not subject to violent turns.—Binghamton Republican.

Offensive Sore Cured.

Dear Sirs,—I take pleasure in testifying to the great healing qualities of your medicines. I had the misfortune to injure my leg, and through cold and neglect it broke out in a running sore, my leg became inflamed and very painful, and the discharge was very offensive; various remedies failed to help me when I had the good fortune to try your B. B. B., and Burdock Healing Ointment. Before I had finished the second bottle the discharge had stopped, and in two weeks more my leg was as well as ever. I feel justified in recommending it to the public as a cure, if only given a fair trial. GEO. LAURIE,
Portage la Prairie, Man

"Is Miss Hawkins in?" asked Martin. "I dunno," said Bridget. "Who are you?" "Edward Martin." "No, sorr; she's out." —Harper's Bazar.

Tired, languid people who lack energy and appetite should take Burdock Blood Bitters, the best tonic strengthener and purifier extant.

"I see most of your hair has gone," said Brown to Burton. "Yes," replied Burton, "it's left for parts unknown."—Kate Field's Washington.

A Voice from Scotland.

Dear Sirs,—I can highly recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. It cured my daughter of a cough she had been troubled with since childhood. She is now twelve years old. Mrs. M. FAIRCHILD, Scotland, Ont.

Mrs. GEO. WARD, Josephine, Ont.

Druggist: There you are, Sir. One twenty-five: Excuse me, but I'm in the trade. Oh, I beg pardon. Ten cents.—Smith, Gray & Co's Monthly.

Mr. Hugh Caldwell, Clydesdale, Ont., writes—my daughter was troubled with female weakness, and for more than a year was under the care of doctors and taking medicine without getting relief. The Lover's Lament.

Your face is like a drooping flower,
Sweetheart!
I see you fading, hour by hour,
Sweetheart!
Your rounded outlines waste away,
In vain I weep, in vain I pray,
What power death's cruel hand can stay?
Sweetheart! Sweetheart!

Why, nothing but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts strength to the failing system, cures organic troubles, and for debilitated and feeble women generally, is unequaled. It dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money returned.

Pointers To Advertisers.

Success in business depends upon success in advertising.

Hence advertising is not a side issue.

It should have the precedence of all other questions in the mind of the merchant who aims at success.

It does have in the minds of merchants truly great.

Your capital depends on your advertising, not your advertising on your capital.

Capitalists will not place confidence in a commodity whose projectors hesitate to advertise.

By advertising you prove your own faith in that which you wish to sell. This inspires faith in others—in those who might invest with you as well as those whom you expect to buy.

There is no way in the world that you can build up confidence in your business enterprise so swiftly and surely as by advertising judiciously.

Regard your advertising expenditure as the most necessary part of your business investment. Regard it as the basis on which the foundation of success will be laid, and you will regard it in the right way.

There is no branch of your business of which you should give more careful attention than to your advertising.

Because there is no branch of your business that is so important.

You may advertise an article that every man, woman and child on the face of the earth needs and would be glad to buy. In fact, are famishing, are living in misery for the lack of.

But if you don't tell them you possess that article, and don't tell them what its virtues are, and don't tell them where they can buy it, the article will remain on your hands until you go into bankruptcy and it is seized by your creditors, and the public generally will never be benefited, nor will your children be able to fight at probate court over the property you might leave behind you if you had advertised.

As I Want

TO give every Farmer a chance to reap a good harvest, I have decided, after a year's experience in the Lime business that I can, with a small profit and large sales, put the price of Lime within the reach of every Farmer in the country to get sufficient Lime to enable his land to yield him the fruits of his labor, which it is impossible to expect land to do without the aid of lime or some other more expensive stimulant. Parties taking Lime throughout the cropping season, will have the benefit of the cash price by settling their accounts by July 1st, 1892.

Price and terms for this season:

Unriddled Lime for farm purposes, cash 62 cents; credit 67 cents.
Riddled Lime for Mason and Plastering, cash 65 cents; credit 70 cents.
Riddlings or Slack Lime, cash 20 cents; credit 25 cents.
