

Cascumpec Girl Tendered Shower

On Saturday afternoon, October 30, from three to five o'clock Mrs. Norman Oliver, Cascumpec, entertained at a cup and saucer shower given in honour of Miss Kay Lockerby, whose marriage takes place in the near future. The gifts, presented in a novel manner, were taken from an attractive "Wishing Well," which contained the dainty refreshment table, and were opened by the guest of honour.

The cards were read by Miss Evelyn Carpenter and the gifts placed by Miss Verna Wallace. After being showered with congratulations the bride-to-be graciously thanked her friends for their gifts.

Entertainment consisted of contests and music. A dainty collation of ice cream and cake brought this happy event to a close.

Assisting the hostess in serving was Mrs. F. J. Carpenter, who cut the loaves.

The children of this vicinity enjoyed several jolly Halloween parties. On Friday, October 29, Miss Peggy MacNeill, teacher of the Breadalbane Village School, was hostess for a party in the school classroom. On Saturday afternoon, October 30, the junior reading club, after their regular meeting in the Breadalbane Library, enjoyed a pleasant social hour of Halloween games and contests, during which the senior girls served refreshments.

Miss Lois MacDowell, Pleasant Valley, and Miss Eleanor MacSwain, Union Commercial College, Charlottetown, were visitors to Breadalbane, on October 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Woodside were visitors to Cornwall on Tuesday, October 26, when they attended the funeral of Mr. Malcolm MacPhail.

Mrs. William Graham, Mr. Alan Hickox, Mr. Millage MacLeod and Mrs. Pomroy Murray, Breadalbane, attended the annual dinner of the Rural Beautification Society, in the Charlottetown Hotel, on Thursday evening, October 26. Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Hickox were the representatives of the Breadalbane Cemetery committee which received a prize in the Beautification Contest; Mr. MacLeod and Mrs. Murray represented the Breadalbane Library Committee which was awarded the first prize in the Community Beautification Contest.

Happy birthday greetings were extended to Miss Katherine Matheson by ten of her little playmates who enjoyed a party at her home on October 23, in honor of her seventh birthday.

Misses Elaine and Joyce Newson, Westmoreland, were visitors to Breadalbane on Saturday, October 23.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Robert Todd in the death of her sister, Mrs. Lavinia Glover, Charlottetown, on October 31.

Friends regret to learn of the illness of Miss George Wigmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wigmore, Breadalbane.

"DIAL M FOR MURDER" NOW AT CAPITOL, S'SIDE

"Dial M for Murder" the widely heralded, new Alfred Hitchcock picture, starring Ray Milland, Grace Kelly and Robert Cummings, opens today at the Capitol Theatre. Suspense and mystery are the elements which are reportedly mixed with dangerous romance in the story of a three-cornered love affair which leads to murder. Ray Milland is Tony Wendice, married to lovely Grace Kelly, new Hollywood star. The role, as portrayed on the stage was one which required a dramatic sense of calculated evil and appealing suavity. Milland, long a favorite in Hollywood and winner of an Academy Award "Oscar," is said to reach new heights of dramatic achievement in his portrayal.

Congratulations go out to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richards whose marriage took place in St. Mary's Church, Indian River, on Wednesday, October 27th. They were attended by the brides brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Murphy. The bride was the former Miss Florence Gallant of New Annan.

What might have been a more serious accident happened on the highway near Elmer Moase's, New Annan when a car driven by Maurice Croken of Emerald and a truck driven by Harold Mill, Clermont, collided. The car was quite badly damaged. Neither one of the occupants were hurt, although the truck rolled over a couple of times.

ADMIRAL KNIGHTED

LONDON (Reuters)—The Queen Tuesday knighted Vice Admiral Charles Hughes-Hallett for his services with the British mission in Washington. He was one of more than 200 military and civilian men and women to receive awards from the Queen. A highlight of the investiture was the presentation of the George Medal, given for personal gallantry, to Freda Holland, 41-year-old nurse who was the heroine of a fire at a nursing home last April.

They were models of decorum, and their visits were mutually pleasurable.

Worshippers attending the Services of Public Worship in this Pastoral Charge, on October 31st, were attentive listeners to an inspiring address, by the Pastor, taken from Acts 4:12. "None other Name whereby we may be saved". Hymns sung were: "Lead on Thou King Eternal", "Rise up, O men of God", and "Lead us Heavenly Father, Lead us."

Listeners to the enjoyable band concert at the armories on Oct. 27, vividly recalled those days when we had some fine bands here to which it was a pleasure to listen.
