TAKE WARNING!

Neglect Not These Signals of Danger.

A Useful Lesson on Health Taught by The Indians' Example.

Let the Remedy be Simple and Safe—Kickapoo Indian Sagwa.

If you are ailing, not exactly sick but not feeling "just right," have a drowsy, dull feeling, bad taste in the mouth, variable appetite, occasional pains in the joints and muscles, and other signs of impending sickness, why not do as the Indians do—drive such symptoms out of the system by the judicious use of their reliable vegetable remedy, Kickapoo Indian Sagwa?

Don't neglect such warnings. That pain in your shoulder may develop into rheumatism, and a month's sickness deprive you of the income of your job.

That wild, furry tongue denotes your liver is out of order, and disease would easily take root in your system.

What could you do then? Think of your business, your income and your family.

Seek safety as you would fly from cholera or small pox.

You are in danger if you neglect these warnings. They may pass off, but the chances are against you, and even then the poison is only latent in your system.

Don't, however, put your trust in the numerous mineral medicines with which the market is flooded. The action of many of these concoctions comes from mineral poisons they contain, such as mercury, arsenic, strychnine, iodoform, iodine, potassium, and the like, and any druggist will tell you they are really, that is to say, Kickapoo Indian Sagwa.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa is a reliable product of the field and forest, nature's own vegetable growth of roots, herbs and berries, and of necessity are free from all mineral poisons whatever, because the Indians have no knowledge of them, depending wholly upon their laboratory for poisons, and upon their skill, born of centuries of experience, in preparing them.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, made by the Indians from roots, herbs and berries of their own growth and curing, is obtainable of druggists and medicine dealers only. One dollar per bottle, or bottles for $2.00.
