Sugar Prices Continue Climb

MONTREAL (CP) — Three sugar refineries pushed up the price once more Monday in a continuing spiral that has bumped up the wholesale price more than 58 per cent in 19 weeks.

The three companies—Canada and Dominion Atlantic and St. Lawrence refineries — announced a 30-cent boost for 100 pounds Monday on top of four separate increases in five days last week.

Once again, they attributed the increase to rising raw sugar prices.

The wholesale price for 100 pounds stood at $14.40 Monday. It was $9.10 at the beginning of the year.
