Why you take Cold and Cough.

Generally caused by exposure to cold, wet feet, sitting in a draught, coming from hot and crowded places, in thin dress, or wearing damp clothes, stockings, or any other cause tending to check suddenly the perspiration. The result produces inflammation of the lining membrane of the lungs or throat, and this causes phlegm or matter, which nature tries to throw off by expectoration. In many cases she is unable to do so without assistance, and this is Why you use Allen's Lung Balsam.

The Telephone Company

P. E. ISLAND.

PARTIES using the Telephones would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:-

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back ten or fifteen feet from the transmitter, if you speak loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a needless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.

ROB ANGUS, Manager, World's Fair!

The Children's Enemy.

Scrofula often shows itself in early life and is characterized by swellings, abscesses, hip disease, etc. Consumption is scrofula of the lungs. In this class of disease Scott's Emulsion is unquestionably the most reliable medicine.

"How do you manage to get rid of burs?" asked Snodgrass, as he came in and took a seat by the busy man's desk.

"Oh, easily enough," replied the busy man. "I begin to tell them stories about my smart youngster. Now, only the other day he said—'What! Must you go? Well, good morning.'—Harper's Bazar.

That Pale Face.

For Nervous Prostration and Anaemia there is no medicine that will so promptly and infallibly restore vigor and strength as Scott's Emulsion.

She—If so much was to be gained by it, why didn't he make a secret of his marriage?

He—He decided it would be impossible. You see the girl was bound to be in it.

Nutty—No. I couldn't find mine when I came out. This one belongs to my sister.

USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and nerve remedy.

Mrs. Byers—I've been through every store in town this afternoon, and I'm nearly dead.

Mr. Byers—You look a trifle shopworn.

CON LIVER OIL has long been justly celebrated as a lung healer. Alone it is difficult to take, but combined with the Hypophosphates in Puttner's Emulsion, it is agreeable to the taste, and unequalled by any other medicine for weak lungs.

Jagsby—Wife, I (sic) was "held up" on my way home.
