Pownal Notes.

Mr. Ross, of Charlottetown occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church, Pownal, on Sabbath evening, and preached an eloquent and instructive sermon from St. Paul's epistle to the Philippians, second chapter and part of the twelfth and thirteenth verses, "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God that worketh in you." He showed that these words are meant not only for the young Christian but also for the older ones. St. Paul had not attained unto perfection. "We know in part, I press forward to become more like him." God will not save us unless we are willing, we must cooperate with God; we must do our part, and then God is ready and willing to do his. Men use common sense in developing their natural powers; but do not use it to develop their spiritual life.

He earnestly impressed upon his hearers to live earnest Christian lives, as this short life is only a preparation for the real and never ending life beyond, when our bodies are left in the ground, or return to dust, so our spirits must—without further preparation—meet the judge of all the earth to give an account of the deeds done in the body. Mr. Ross is a very fluent speaker and made a good impression.—Com.

Pownal School

The semi-annual examination of Pownal school, was held on Monday 26th inst. The forenoon was devoted to the junior department. The examination was highly satisfactory to all concerned.

At the annual examination in this department the teacher offered a prize for attendance and deportment which she properly awarded to Miss Dilla Horro, Arthur G. Moore and Percy Judson. The prizes were valuable and useful, and (just whisper) we happen to know that each of her pupils will go home on Friday evening, carrying something besides their books. Miss Carver has endeared herself to her pupils by her kind and loving manner, and the many gifts each little one has received.

The senior department was taken up in the afternoon, and here also the work is first-class. Our teachers are second to none, and the pupils bright and intelligent.

Those who conducted the examination were the teachers (Mr. Jones and Miss Amy Carver), Mr. A. A. Moore and Miss Ada Campbell. Mr. Moore highly complimented the teachers and pupils on the successful examinations.—Com.
