Pisquid Notes.

A meeting of the young men of this place was held at their club room on Friday, the 8th inst., for the purpose of starting a singing school. The meeting was well attended. After the transaction of some preliminary business, it was determined to obtain the services of Messrs. A J. McDonald and D G. McDonald as instructors, which position was accepted by them.

The debating society held a meeting on the night of Monday, the 11th inst., at which the well-known subject was discussed: "Which has done the most for civilization, the pen or the sword?" That quite a lively interest is taken in this pastime was shown by the fact that the room in which the meeting was held was packed to its utmost capacity. Mr John A. McDonald was appointed chairman, and the debate was proceeded with. A lively war of words then ensued between the supporters of the different sides. A number of eloquent speeches were made, which clearly showed that some of the young men around here are not entirely devoid of oratorical talent. Notable among these were Messrs. P O'Hare and A. J. McDonald, these gentlemen completely bringing down the house by their sparkling wit and humor. When the arguments on both sides were pretty well exhausted, the chairman was called on to give his decision, which he did in favor of the "Pen." The subject chosen for the next night's discussion is: "Which exerts the most influence on man, wealth or talent?"

Both Equal to the Occasion.

"The bargain's made, you want a kiss to seal it."
She said, "because you think my lips so kissable;
I cannot give a kiss, but you may steal it,
For such a theft just now I think permissable."

He stole it. Then he said, "if I did wrong
I'll give it back; I did not wish to rue it."
She thought a minute, may be not as long
And answered, "Very well, you'd better do it."

She Let Him Off That Time.

"Now, this is a nice time to come home," she said, gathering her brows like a gathering storm.

"I'm sorry," he said humbly and hiccoughingly.

"I haven't said anything before," she continued, "but I'm going to put my foot down"

"You'll have to put it down pretty hard, then," he said, "for it is a mighty small foot."

She put off scolding him till a future time.

COLD FACTS.

The following from a patient of Dr. Farrel's who was cured of Consumption shows what

PHOSPHOLEINE!

(Pronounced FOS-FO-LEEN).

Dear Sir,

Last summer I was troubled with a cough, and my physician says unmistakable symptoms of consumption, including debility and loss of flesh. I lost 30 pounds in weight in a few weeks. My physician, who examined me, advised me to use your COD LIVER OIL CREAM with HYPOPHOSPHITES (PHOSPHOLEINE), and I am happy to be able to inform you that it has produced a complete cure, and I have regained from 124 to 154 pounds in weight, and am now enjoying good health. I drove 65 miles at night across Cape Breton during a snow storm in December without suffering from it in the least.

I am, dear sir, yours faithfully,
Halifax. E. R. HARRINGTON.
