MR. AND MRS. CEPHAS WRIGHT

Double Ring Ceremony Held At Lower Montague United

Lower Montague United Church was the scene recently of the marriage of Ruthie Matheson, daughter of Mrs. Daniel B. Matheson, Milltown Cross, and Cephas Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wright, Lower Montague.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. P. F. Burns, and wedding music was played by Mrs. Lloyd Fraser. Will and Bruce sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" prior to the ceremony, and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her brother Claude, the bride wore a street length dress of poseidone with wedding point sleeves and scalloped neckline. Her wedding length veil was held in place by a tiara of sequins and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Lorne MacPhee, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of green embroidered faille while Miss Alice Wright, sister of the groom, and Miss Christina Wilson, niece of the bride, as bridesmaids, wore identical dresses of orange ice organza over taffeta.

Flowergirls Donna and Lorna MacPhee, nieces of the bride, were charming in pink and blue nylon dresses.

The groom was attended by his brother Merrill, Donald Wilson and Weston Stewart were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception for 30 guests was held in the Lower Montague Hall. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with a cascade of yellow roses. All flowers and decorations used were in shades of yellow, orange and white.

Miss Joan Campbell was in charge of the good book.

Love And Spunk Winner's Beliefs

OTTAWA (CP) — He's Bert Gutsell, chosen Canada's "Mother of the Year" in a nationwide contest, believing in lots of love for children — and spanking.

The Toronto mother of two teen-age sons has had plenty of experience with children.

During the last five years she's cared for 26 foster children, all of them wards of the Children's Aid Society.

Mrs. Gutsell, an attractive brunette of 45, was in Ottawa Thursday to receive her contract award from the sponsoring Frontier's Telegraph Delivery Association.

She said in an interview that she began taking children into her home because other families in her neighborhood were doing it and she thought "it would be fun to have a girl."

Each time the foster children have left her to go back to their own parents or to adoptive parents, she has never been to do it again. "It's hard, because I have to pretend I'm happy at the time for two small brothers. But it isn't long before she

MARY HAWORTH

Now Ten Years Wed, Wife Fears Mate Homosexual

Dear Mary Haworth: After 10 years of marriage I finally realize that I am married to a homosexual. We have two lovely children, ages 7 and 9 years.

Have you ever heard of such a situation before? What does one do? How does one recognize a homosexual?

He is a good provider, a good father and a steady worker and denies that he is homosexual. Nevertheless I feel that it will be almost impossible to keep our home together; the mental torture is terrible.

My thought is that if we separate, but naturally this will be a hard thing to do. Please don't tell me to consult a priest or minister or doctor. But do give me your honest opinion on the matter.

Dear C. R.: In the name of common sense, why not consult a priest or minister or doctor? Why do you close your mind to the idea of working first — hand with impartial, sympathetic, suitable professional sources of day-to-day guidance in this family crisis?

What kind of solution do you expect from this column? Are you clinging unconsciously to a childish notion that a magic remedy for the trouble may be found? That if forced to it, some "authority" — this column, for example — may "say the word" that will make everything turn out all right?

Don't you see the contradiction of asking for advice and, at the same time, refusing to take more foster children under her wing. Currently she is caring for two small brothers aged 2½ and 4.

With Pastel Parasol, May Strolls the Flowered Way

We check them over now, the months gone by in this new year. January, February, March, April, we say. And find, almost incredibly, that the Maytime is here. Past are the winter's storms. Gone too are the white drifts. A memory looms, it comes to mind, is the loveliness of June. Gone too are the white drifts. A memory looms, it comes to mind, is the loveliness of June.
