Diphtheria Prevalent.—The schools at Harvey and Waterville, N. B., are closed owing to the prevalence of diphtheria.

Literary and Scientific Society.—Reserve Thursday evening next for the Literary and Scientific Society. Subject: "Motion and Energy."

Bigamy.—Halifax is to have two more bigamy cases shortly. In one case the parties reside in the south end, and in the other the much married man lives at the north end.

Scott Act.—The executive committee on the Scott Act petition will meet this evening (Monday) at 8 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. lecture room. Important business to be transacted.

Thanks to the accomplished Artiste, Mlle. d'Erina, for taking down "The Harp that once thro' Tara's Halls," used to reflect such glory on the poets and bards of Erin.—Journal des Debats.

How to Cure a Cold.—We read in a contemporary that a sure way to avoid colds is "just simply to stop breathing." The remedy would be effective if persisted in long enough.

Hockey.—The Hillsborough Hockey Club will meet to-night at 8 o'clock sharp, in the Salvage Corps rooms. All members are requested to be present. Important business. By order of the secretary.

Mortgage cut Down.—The mortgage on the Masonic Temple, Halifax, has been cut down from $21,000 to $15,000 with the proceeds of the big bazaar, held in August last. The interest on the former sum was $1,260, and now it is only $750.

Police Court.—This forenoon a lad named Levi A. Smith had Aubrey Larter summoned on a charge of assault and battery. Smith charged that Larter met him on Government Pond and struck him in the face with his fist. Larter denied the charge. The hearing of the case was adjourned until to-morrow to enable both to procure witnesses. The assault case of Clerkin vs. McKenna was adjourned till Wednesday.

The Harbor Light.—The Harbor Light was re-opened for the season on Saturday night. An interesting programme of vocal and instrumental music was rendered. There was a large attendance. The Harbor Light is doing a good work and deserves to be encouraged in every possible way.

Messrs George Carter & Co. have donated to Harbor Light a quantity of interesting literature and games.

The Elliott.—Captain McMillan's new steamer, the Elliott, got into Georgetown early on Sunday morning, after a hard passage in rough and thick weather, during which she behaved well. She is now loading for the West Indies, and will be ready to sail to-morrow evening. Captain McMillan came up from Georgetown in the train yesterday afternoon and returned in the evening. He will probably go as far as "the Gut" in the Elliott.

Towed Out.—The schr. Laurier, owned by George H. Toombs, and loaded with potatoes for Boston by M. Trainor, was towed out to open water westward of St. Peter's Island yesterday by the tug William Aitken. The tug had a hard time of it, the ice outside the harbor being about nine inches thick, and once the schooner came into collision with the tug tearing away some of the staying supporting the latter's smokestack. The schooner was somewhat chafed as a result of the scraping against the ice. The Messrs. Batt are entitled to very great credit for the manner in which they took the vessel out, considering the many obstacles in their way.

Advertising for a Wife.—The Moncton Times says: In the latter part of last August a man named David W. Armstrong, of Readville, Mass., advertised in the Times for a wife, stating that he was desirous of getting a New Brunswick lady. A young lady named Hawkes, of Hillsboro, A. Co., answered the advertisement, and immediately a courtship sprang up between the two. Photos were exchanged, and matters apparently satisfactorily explained, as the two finally became engaged and the wedding day was set for Thanksgiving day. The prospective bride made every arrangement for her marriage, but at the last moment the unknown would be husband failed to show up. He wrote, however, explaining his absence and fixed another day, but again failed to come to time, and the engagement is now considered at an end, as the Massachussetts man has not been heard of recently. The young lady is about 20 years of age and rather prepossessing.

Operatic.—It is pleasing to be able to announce that the citizens are to be again favored with a rich treat in the Masonic Temple by local talent. This time it is the opera of "Olivette," a bright and sparkling comic musical play, to be given under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. on their anniversary (26th of April, 1894). Although it is early to announce this presentation, it shows our friends are determined by enterprise, energy and plenty of practice to do the thing well. Judging from past successes, we have not the least doubt but that this will surpass all former efforts. Our local amateurs, as a rule, give far better performances than nine-tenths of the professional companies coming from abroad, for the reason that more careful study is made of all the parts by our people, and a finish and tone is given that is noticeably absent in large portions of plays by professionals. When we say that Mr. Earle is the musical director, and is now at work training the principal singers, and that full rehearsals will be commenced in a few days, we know that our people will have full confidence in the rendition of the musical department. The same may be said of the dramatic portion, as it will be under the direction of well known city talent. The music will be brilliant, the costumes elegant, and the acting lively and free from any objectionable feature.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

The Stanley crossed over to Georgetown from Pictou yesterday forenoon, and the mails and passengers were brought to the city by special train early in the afternoon.

P. E. Island Hospital.—A telephone message this afternoon says that Donald McKinnon, who was stabbed so severely at Queen's Arms a few nights ago, is doing very well.

Midnight Mass.—It was announced yesterday that admission to the Pontifical High Mass in St. Dunstan's Cathedral at midnight on Christmas Eve, would be by ticket, each ticket costing twenty-five cents. New music has been imported for the occasion, and the regular choir will be assisted by an efficient orchestra.

The Story Exaggerated.—We learn upon further enquiry that the story told by the White girl concerning the affair on Pownall Street on Faiday night is greatly exaggerated. The man in the case assures us that he never usen a knife or chased her with the intention of using a knife, and denies positively that he knocked her down.

Woman Missing.—A Mrs. Brown, living with her brother-in-law, Charles McGregor, Esq., St. Peter's Road, left her home at an early hour this morning, and up to the time of going to press, so far as we could learn, she had not returned. Mrs. Brown has been melancholy for some time past; and her friends, who are very anxious concerning her, have been searching for her all day.

Schooner Wrecked.—A telegram was received from St. Pierre, Miq., this forenoon by Mr. W. C. Hobkirk, Consul for France, to the following effect: "We announce to you the wreck of the ship Gracie M. Parker. All hands and cargo lost. The wreck occurred near St. Pierre on Saturday night."

A similar telegram was received at Alberton. The Gracie M. Parker was owned by J. H. Myrick, and left Alberton on Wednesday last with a load of lumber for H. W. Turner, of O'Leary. The following are the names of the persons lost: Terrence Farrell (captain), William Farrell, John Oliver, Alfred Matthews, James Dogherty, Frank McDuff, and Joshua Doiron. The latter belonged to O'Leary and went as supercargo. The sad affair has cast a gloom over the whole neighborhood.

It will do you good to visit the Bazaar (up stairs.) The show of toys, dolls and china have never been equalled in the city. Competitors blame our enormous sales to the discounts we are giving off "shopworn goods." Well, we have a quantity of shopworn goods, (and by this we do not mean old faded out goods, but articles that have been in stock since last Xmas, and are as good as new) and when it comes to selling for 5 cts. what cost 25 cts., or for 25 cts. what cost $1, it takes the wind out of our competitors sales. Besides these we will prove that we have more than three times the amount of entirely new stock in every line of toys, dolls and fancy goods, of any firm in our line in the city. Prices are our advertisers.—Bazaar Co.

The Struggle IS OVER.

The Tories have been "routed horse, foot and artillery" (see Patriot, 14th), and now sounds the knell of the N. P. The doom of the "bloated manufacturer" is at hand. The monopolist must now take a back seat.

We are glad to announce that no change of government can affect us. The monopoly we possess of being able to offer A1 value in Furniture is still ours. We propose to continue our well-known "trade policy"—the BEST GOODS at the LOWEST PRICES. Our Furniture campaign for 1894 will interest all housekeepers.
