

Joe O'Brien Will Pilot Diamond Hal In Classic

Inglewood, Calif. (CP)—Veteran sulky driver Joe O'Brien, the crafty Canadian, Friday elected to pilot Diamond Hal in the third and possibly final leg of the $75,000 American pacing classic at Hollywood Park.

O'Brien made his bid when the highly-regarded Shadow Wave was declared out of the mile race because of lameness in his left front leg. Both Diamond Hal, who won one heat in the classic in 1955 and 1957, and Shadow Wave are owned by Saul Camp.

Widower Creed, who could end the classic if he wins today, and Belle Acton will be the probable favorites. Widower Creed won the first heat and Shadow Wave the second. The race is a best two-of-three series.

RACE-OFF PLAN

If a horse other than Widower Creed wins, a race-off will be held next Wednesday, closing day of the Western Harness Racing Association meeting.

O'Brien, a native of Alberton, P.E.I., who drove out of New Glasgow, N.S., for years, said Friday he would drive Shadow Wave in a race-off if the three-year-old regained his form, as anticipated.

Others slated to race today are Dottie's Pick, 1956 winner, Gold Worthy and Libby's Boy.

Commenting on condition of Shadow Wave, O'Brien said: "Same as before. But I still feel that with time and constant treatment we can get the horse in decent shape for the race-off if there is one."

REPLACES WILLIAMS

O'Brien replaced another stable driver, Jack Wills, Jr., for Diamond Hal, whose racing record is inconsistent.

In 1956, Dottie's Pick won the first two legs and the classic, with Diamond Hal fifth and fourth in the heats. Last year O'Brien won the first heat with Diamond Hal but raced fourth and sixth in the next two as Widower Creed won the last two heats.

O'Brien drove Scott Frost in the companion $75,000 trotting classic to successive victories in 1955 and 1956.

The weather was expected to be good today.

World's Biggest Goose Hunt Gets Underway In Illinois

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—The world's biggest goose hunt is in full swing. And it's big business.

Thousands of hunters have swarmed into Cairo. This community of 13,000 population looks like an armed camp. Hotels and motels are crowded. The hunters jam restaurants and crowd five deep at bars.

Harry Weeks, executive secretary of the Cairo Chamber of Commerce, estimates in the 50-day goose season they will spend about $2,000,000.

Owners of the commercial goose grounds, cafes, hotels and taverns say the figure might be conservative.

INSTINCT AND LAKE

The hunters have been drawn by about the same thing that attracts the geese—instinct and Big Horseshoe Lake.

The lake is a government preserve and the geese like to interrupt their long flight down the Mississippi River flyway from Canada to the south with rest on Horseshoe and raid the nearby corn and bean fields.

Some 200,000 geese may blanket the skies over Cairo in a single day. The Mississippi and Ohio Rivers meet here and the honkers are attracted to hundreds of acres of the swampy lake with its tall cypress trees and its shallow, quiet water.

Shooting on the lake is prohibited. But the birds fly daily from it to the feeding grounds or the Mississippi River. In between, the hunters crouch in pits.

Bayer Grabs Tournery Lead

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Giant George Bayer powered a six-under-par 64 Friday and seized the halfway lead in the $45,000 Havana International golf tournament. Bayer had a 139 for 36 holes.

The six-foot-five, 240-pound former University of Washington tackle holed out a spoon shot for a double eagle drive on the 509-yard third hole and went on to one of the most phenomenal rounds in professional tournament play.

Bayer, from San Gabriel, Calif., fell short of the professional Golfers Association single round record of 60, but he played every hole in par or better. Besides his double eagle, he had three birdies.

Until Bob Rosburg shot a 69 Thursday for a one-stroke edge

Rider Coaches Are Signed For Next Two Years

REGINA (CP)—Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union have extended the contracts of head coach George Terlep and assistant Bob Maddock.

Club officials announced Friday that Terlep and Maddock now are signed for the next two years. Both had been signed for a two-year term when they came here last winter.

Under Terlep, the club finished third place this season, but lost to second-place Edmonton Eskimos in the WIFU semi-finals.

Anderson, Laver Capture Aussie Tennis Tourney

ADELAIDE (AP)—Mal Anderson and Rod Laver Friday won the South Australian doubles tennis championship by defeating fellow Australians Ashley Cooper and Neale Fraser 4-6, 6-8, 11-9, 9-7 and 6-3.

The victory caused further worry among the selectors of the Australian Davis Cup team.

The Aussies haven't been effective in doubles play all year and the Cooper-Fraser pairings here were regarded as the country's best.

Ten Escape When Fishing Vessel Sinks

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S. (CP)—The captain and nine members of the crew of the fishing schooner Harry B. Nickerson were rescued early Thursday a few hours after the vessel sprang a leak and capsized on the Grand Banks off Newfoundland.

Only a few details of the sinking were available. H.B. Nickerson and Sons Limited, owners of the ship, said the crew were picked up by the fishing vessel Robertson. All were reported in good condition.

The crew spent several hours in a lifeboat which was battered by a severe storm.

The vessel's skipper is Captain Warren Levi of Liverpool, N.S. The Robertson is still at sea and there was no indication when she would return the rescued crewmen to shore. The 72-ton schooner sank while carrying a full cargo of fish.

Spirits Run High Prior To Opening Of WIFU Finals

EDMONTON (CP)—Normal wintery fare appears in store for Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Edmonton Eskimos today when they open the Western football final in Clarke Stadium, but spirits are running higher than the temperature.

Coach Bud Grant and the pennant-winning Blue Bombers arrived by air in mid-afternoon Friday then headed for a brief workout to smooth out last-minute muscle kinks.

Eskimos, who knocked off Saskatchewan Roughriders 58-12 in the two-game, total-point semi-final also went through a light workout and the odd break-through by the sun; wind light from the north or northeast.

The weather forecaster rubbed his crystal ball, then predicted game time will be something like this:

Cool, with a temperature of about 20 degrees; cloudy, with possibility of the odd snowflake and the odd break-through by the sun; wind light from the north or northeast.

Light snowflurries most of today brought nearly a inch of snow to the city and the forecaster said it to an inch more might fall before game time. It would not be enough to harm the playing field, however.

Park attendants kept close watch over the turf, swept off the first batch of snow and made preparations to start at 4 a.m.

Claims Adjuster To Take Charge Of $232,000

DENVER (AP)—A claims adjuster from Canada is in Denver to take charge of $232,000 that police say was recovered from the Ottawa bank teller whose Ottawa branch was robbed last Monday night ended 17-day spending spree.

Alan Warren of the Toronto branch of Lloyd's of London has the task of returning the money to Ottawa.

Johnston was arrested at a Denver night club for questioning in connection with the theft of $250,000 from the Imperial Bank of Canada where he worked in Ottawa.

Johnston said he would not fight extradition to Canada. However, U.S. Attorney Donald E. Kelley of Denver said exchange of the prisoner is covered under a Canadian-American treaty on extradition proceedings and that turning Johnston over to Canadian authorities isn't so simple.

Kelley said the extradition proceedings must be invoked by the Justice Department in Washington working with the Canadian Embassy.

Annual Meeting Is Held Of Ch'town Lady Golfers

The annual meeting of the ladies' branch of the Charlottetown Golf Club was held Thursday at the Charlottetown Hotel.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. M. Arnett Howatt, whose illness is greatly regretted, the vice-president, Miss Mabel Adams, presided. Miss Adams read Mrs. Howatt's report which summarized the events of a very successful year and congratulations were extended to the unique combination of champion of the Charlottetown Club, Miss Gail Mustard; and runner-up (her mother) Mrs. John Mustard.

It has never happened before in this club which was first established in 1902 and it is believed few other golf clubs can boast of such an achievement with such a mother and daughter combination.

Reports were submitted by various heads of committees and the new slate of officers for 1959 season is as follows:

Honorary president, Mrs. T.W. L. Prosser; president, Mrs. M. Arnett Howatt; vice-president, Miss Mabel Adams; secretary, Mrs. James H. Cerry.

House committee: Mrs. Kent Irwin, Mrs. Ray Praught, Mrs. Clifford MacDonald, Mrs. Joseph Molloy.

Handicap committee: Mrs. Ivan Horne and Mrs. W.L. MacDonald.

18-hole match committee: Mrs. R.A. Parker, Mrs. H.T. Jardine, Mrs. Donald Campbell, Mrs. Stuart Watt.

Five-a-side match committee: Miss Helen MacDonald and Miss Marjorie Doyle.

Nine-hole match committee: Mrs. Lorain McEellan and Mrs. James Cameron.

CLAIMS TI-CATS TOUGHER

Edmonton bursts by Hamilton's fullback, Gerry McDougall, who piled up 142 yards. McDougall not only sparked the Grey Cup defenders to a 23-0 victory, but he also clinched his second straight Big Four rushing title. It was Ticats fourth

Team Members Chosen For Shrine All Star Game

HAMILTON (CP)—Jackie Hamilton of Edmonton Eskimos and Sam Etcheverry of Montreal will quarterback the Western and Eastern teams in the all-star game at the Shrine on Dec. 6.

Makeup of the teams, notable for the absence of such stars as Edmonton's Normie Kwong and Vancouver Rough Riders' Kaye Johnson, was announced Friday.

Hamilton Tiger-Cats placed seven on the East offensive line and five on the defensive line while Winnipeg Blue Bombers have three on the West offense and five on defense.

Western Offense—quarterback: Jackie Parker, Edmonton; halfbacks: Leo Hill, Regina; Johnny Bright, Edmonton; fullback: Cookie Gilchrist, Saskatchewan; punter, Vince Chapman, B.C.; center, George Druxman, Winnipeg; guards: Harry Bradford, Calgary, Cornell Piper, Winnipeg; tackles: Don Luzzi, Calgary; Roger Nelson, Edmonton; end, Ron Carpenter, Saskatchewan; Ernie Warlick, Calgary.

Western Defense—ends: Herb Brown, Winnipeg; Art Scullion, Calgary; tackle: Buddy Tinsley, Winnipeg; Chuck Quilley, B.C.; guard: Steve Patrick, Winnipeg; linebackers: Ted Tully, Winnipeg; defensive back: Gord Rowland, Winnipeg; Rolfe Miles, Edmonton; Harry Lunn, Saskatchewan; Larry Isbell, Saskatchewan; safety, Oscar Kruger, Edmonton.

Anthony Wins Over Sonny Ray

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Anthony, the top-ranked lightweight contender, had to go all out Friday night to ship surprisingly tough Sonny Ray of Chicago in a brisk 10-round television fight at Madison Square Garden. Anthony, the 4-to-1 favorite, won by unanimous decision in scoring his seventh straight victory.

Ray, who had a winning streak of nine broken, gave the heavily favored New Yorker a tough tussle until late in the eighth round. Then the sleek, 6-1, Anthony turned the tide by staggering his 5-11 rival with a blistering barrage in the closing rounds of the round.

Delaware, Ohio, to see the Little Brown Jug. Joe mentioned that Shadow Wave had gone lame last year when they were training him as a two-year-old, and was turned out. In the late fall he was taken up again, and early this year won at Hollywood in 2-0.

So there is a good chance that he will make a comeback from this latest injury.

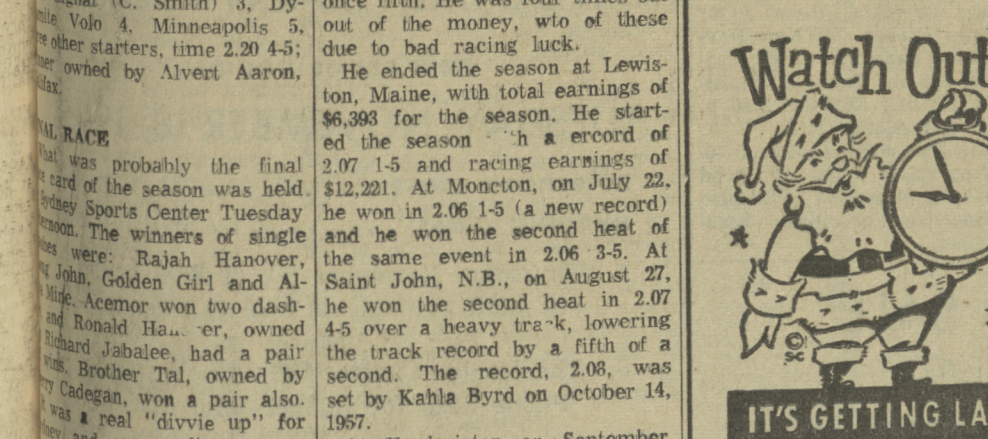

Hasn't Violated Amateur Rules

KITZBUHEL, Austria (AP)—Toni Sailer, world champion Alpine skier, said Friday he has not violated amateur rules.

"I haven't done anything to substantiate such charges," he said following an official announcement by the Austrian Ski Association "that all its efforts to retain Sailer's amateur status had failed" because he had been "ill advised" in business matters.

Sailer said he has not been officially informed of the association's announcement.

UNB Red Devils Take To Ice For First Workout

FREDERICTON (CP)—The University of New Brunswick Red Devils, coached by former Detroit Red Wing Pete Kelly, take to the ice at the Beaverbrook rink here this weekend for their first workout of the season.

UNB is expected to do double duty this season. The Red Devils will probably play in the proposed Southern New Brunswick hockey league, with St. Thomas Tommies, Mount Allison University and St. Dunstan's University of Charlottetown. The Red Devils are defending champions. They lost to St. Francis Xavier in the Maritime finals the past two years.

Following is the college schedule:

December:
5—UNB at St. Thomas January:
16—Mount Allison at St. Dunstan's;
24—St. Dunstan's at Mount Allison;
30—UNB at Mount Allison;
Thomas at St. Dunstan's February:
7—Mount Allison at UNB (afternoon game);
13—St. Dunstan's at St. Thomas;

20—Mount Allison at St. Thomas;
UNB at St. Dunstan's.

Packers Arrive In Moscow To Play Ruskijs

MOSCOW (Reuters)—The Kelowna Packers hockey team arrived here Friday from Sweden to play five games against Moscow teams during the next few days.

The first game will be against the Russian champions Sunday.

Moscow radio said a sell-out crowd of 14,000 will watch the game.

"All tickets for the game at the Palace of Sports were snapped up within hours of going on sale," the broadcast said. "This will be our first glimpse here of the Canadian masters."

Football Games To Be Televised

TORONTO (CP)—The CBC said Friday night it has completed arrangements to carry the Big Four and Western Interprovincial football finals on its national television network today.

The opening of the Big Four final in Ottawa between Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Ottawa Rough Riders will be carried from 1.55 p.m. AST until the game ends, probably around 4.30 p.m.

The WIFU game at Edmonton between Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Edmonton Eskimos will begin at 4.55 p.m. AST.

Originally the CBC planned to carry the Big Four game for eastern Canada only and the WIFU game in western Canada. But a CBC spokesman said heavy demands from the West for Big Four coverage had resulted in the new arrangements to handle both games nationally.

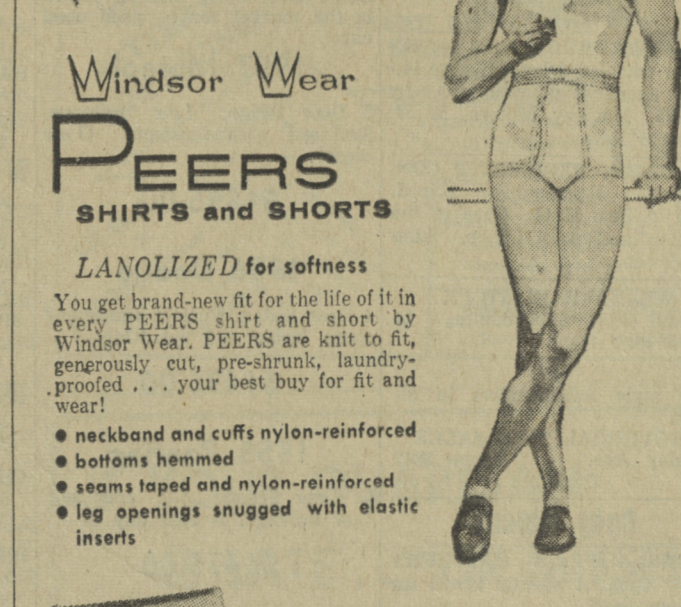

The proposal has been approved by Canadian football commissioner S. G. Halter of Winnipeg.
