GRIT CORRUPTION.

MERCENARY MEMBERS — BUYING A SPEAKERSHIP.

THIS is the way the St. John "News" comments upon the Nova Scotia Speakership Scandal:—

Mr. Speaker Mack, of the Nova Scotia Assembly, was induced by Woodworth—the irrepressible Woodworth—to state, a few days ago, to a public audience at Caledonia Corner, Queen's County, Nova Scotia, how he got the Speakership. The story, as told by him, was taken down, and a copy of it, attested by the chairman and secretary of the meeting and several other respectable persons present, has been published. The story was told with an unaffected and delightful simplicity. It runs thus:

"I found that the only other candidate was Dr. Campbell; and I thought that I was as fit for the office as he was. Mr. Eisenhour told me that I ought to give Dr. Campbell, some of the salary if I got it. I agreed to. Dr. Campbell afterwards came to me and said that he would nominate me as Speaker. And after I became Speaker, he (Dr. Campbell) wrote me a letter asking me for the money. I gave him $300 out of the salary, as agreed upon.
I gave Mr. Freeman something; no matter how much."

Mr. Freeman, we believe, is Mr. Mack's colleague in the representation of Queen's County. The story, at first sight, seems to be bogus, but on closer inspection appears true, or, at least, to have been told as related by Mr. Mack. The Dr. Campbell spoken of represents Inverness in the Nova Scotia Assembly. It does not seem likely that Messrs. Mack, Campbell and Freeman will ever again have it in their power to divide the spoils of an Assembly's Speakership."

THE QUEBEC ELECTION.

Statements and Opinions.

The following despatch from Ottawa appears in the Rouge journals:—"It is now more than probable that the Federal Parliament will be adjourned almost immediately, and that the dissolution of the House will follow very shortly. The Ottawa Government will seek to take advantage of the gains to the Liberal party in the recent Provincial elections, and thus secure for themselves a new lease of power."

Messrs. Turcotte, Caron and Magnan, classed by the Rouge and Reform papers as supporters of Mr. Joly, have been communicated with since their election, and all three declare themselves unqualifiedly hostile to the Administration. The Conservatives have a majority of two, which probably will be increased to three by the result of the election in Chicoutimi to-day—Mail.

Quebec party papers are still disputing about the result of the Provincial elections.
Both parties claim the victory. What seems certain is that a majority or, at least, about one-half the new Assembly is composed of professed Conservatives, elected as such, and who in their canvass openly condemned the dismissal of the DeBoucherville Cabinet; and what seems probable is that a small majority of the House will be found ready to give the Joly Administration a reasonably fair trial. So far as we can make out, this double view of the case contains something like the whole truth about the situation.
But it must be admitted that matters are much mixed in the great St. Lawrence River Province.—St. John News.

THERE is a weekly paper in St. John called the Penny Dip, "devoted principally to the publication of scandals," the St. John Globe says. On Saturday, Mr. John Bowes, one of the publishers of the Dip, was whipped on King Street by Mr. H. H.
Bowes. The Globe of Saturday gives the following account of the affair:—"Its (the Dip's) sensation to-day was an account of the marriage of a contractor, hailing from Montreal, to a St. John lady living in the vicinity of the Cathedral, and it gave a "report" that this contractor had already a wife and children in Montreal. Mr. H. H.
Bowes, felt that he was the contractor referred to, and early in the day he determined to have satisfaction. He purchased an ordinary whip, and about 2 o'clock took his stand on King Street, waiting for the appearance of Mr. Bowes. Many persons who knew his object, and quite a number waited about expecting to see a fight. About 2.30 o'clock Bowes met Bowes on the north side of King street, and at once "went for" him in vigorous style. Bowes grasped the whip, and then Bowes commenced to use his fists. He is credited with being quite a fighter—a quick and hard hitter. He beat Bowes about the face until the eye witnesses drew him away, when he went off in one direction and Bowes walked away by another route. An immense crowd gathered on the street, attracted by by the disturbance. Very little sympathy is felt for Bowes."

It seems from an incident reported in an English scientific journal that at last an antidote for strychnine poisoning has been found. A slyke terrier picked up a bit of bread on which a vermin poison, composed mostly of strychnine, had been put. The usual symptoms rapidly developed themselves, the dog became rigid, and only an occasional tetanic spasm showed that life was not extinct. The owner then remembered having read in the proceedings of the British Medical Association that hydrate of chloral was an antidote against strychnine, if taken soon enough. He at once injected forty-five grains of chloral hydrate under the dog's skin. A quarter of an hour afterwards, when the dog was lying apparently dead, the owner moved it with his foot, when the dog at once struggled to its feet and went to its usual place near the fire.
Soon after it took some milk, and, except for being quieter than usual, seemed none the worse for what it had gone through.
This is one of the most important medical discoveries that has lately been made.

A New Orleans man thinks he has struck a good thing. He would have iron telegraph poles, and have them cast hollow.
These will serve the double purpose of holding up the wires and ventilating the sewers.
If he would carry the scheme a little further, he might connect all the stovepipes in the city with them, and thus their usefulness could be further extended.

A negro boy in St. Louis County, Missouri, is thought to possess the largest feet of any human being in America. They measure 2 1/2 inches in length, and are covered by No. 24 shoes.

"What's the difference," asked the teacher in arithmetic, "between one yard and two yards?" "A fence!" said Tommy Beates. Then Tommy sat on the ruler fourteen times.

A Dutchman was about to make a journey to his fatherland, and wishing to say "good-bye" to a friend, extended his hand and said: "Vell, off I don't come back, hollo."

"I say, Mick, what sort of potatoes are those you are planting?" "Raw ones, to be sure; your honor wouldn't be thinking I plant boiled ones."
