To any representation we make. The Watches we sell are the best money can buy. And the plain truth is strong enough to sell them. In these days of sham and misrepresentation, take time to think before buying a watch. We have some exceptionally good movements in plain neckle and silver cases. They make good, sensible, everyday watches. If a single one proves less trustworthy than we promise we'll take it back willingly.

NOVEL TEA.—This is the original and refreshing title of the Tea to take place at Kinkora fall particulars regarding which will be learned on reference to the adv. in another column.

GOOD MILK CANS.—The J. D. Bell Manufacturing Co., of Montague, advertise 250 fifteen to twenty gallon cans for sale, made of the best material. All who desire to have good cans should address Mr. Bell.

A BAD ACCIDENT.—We hear with regret that Rev D H Simpson, of Berwick, N.S., suffered a compound fracture of the leg a few days ago, the result of a kick from a horse. At latest accounts he was doing as well as could be expected.

CONTRACTORS.—Read the advt. calling for tenders for the erection of a new stone Church at Kinkora. The specification and plans may be seen at the office of W. C. Harris, Esq., Architect, at the Bishop's Palace, Charlottetown, from the 11th to the 25th inst., and at the parochial residence, Kinkora after that date. July 4th is the last day for receiving tenders.

MILITARY CERTIFICATES.—The certificates for the class of Engineers lately attending the Royal Military College, Kingston, have been received. Lieut J H Morris and the non-com's who accompanied him, are to be congratulated on the successful result of their examinations. Lieut Morris obtains a 1st class grade 'A' certificate with 93 per cent. Corporals J J Duff, Duncan Kennedy, John Simmons and Jos D Stewart also obtained 1st class certificates.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind, colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

HOW TO LEAD A WILD COW.—“A few years ago,” writes a reader of the Farmer's Advocate, “I purchased a highly mettled Jersey heifer. She was sent from her former owner by train, and when she arrived at our station she was so wild and excited we could not untie her in the car. In fact, we knew if we did turn her loose she would go over everything jumpable. So we threw a blanket over her head and tied her. We then tied an old sack over her eyes so that she could not see. This so completely subdued her that she walked home some four miles tied behind a wagon as quietly as anyone could wish. In a few years the cow was again sold, and her purchaser, although confident he could lead any cow, could not get her home until he had taken my advice in blindfolding her with an old sack, when she again led away quite peacefully.”

The Silk Cotton Tree.

The most remarkable tree on the island of New Providence is without question a specimen of the silk cotton (Bombax ceiba) situated near the postoffice and prison. Growing from its trunk are half a dozen buttresslike extensions, as if to make a firm footing for its great spread of branches of 116 feet. A little boy to whom I showed a photograph of it expressed its appearance very well when he said the spaces between the buttresses would make fine horse stalls. The pods which grow on the tree contain a soft, silky material which the natives sometimes use for stuffing pillows. There are more of these trees, but none so large or old as this one, and we heard no estimate of its age. It is a near relative of the monkey tamarind. Between this bombax and the library is an avenue of Spanish laurel, a member of the fig family—untidy and inelegant trees, with a growth of roots hanging from their branches which never reach the ground. All these trees bear fruit, but the figs are small and unfit for eating.—E. G. Cummings in Popular Science Monthly.

It Killed Him.
“I should fancy the laundry business was about as easy as any to start.”
“What makes you think so?”
“All you have to do is to lay in a supply of starch.”
“Yes.”
“Well, that'll starch you all right.”
Three days after there was a burial.—London Tit-Bits.

Woman's Woe.
It was terrible. The tempest beat the sea into a horrid fury, the waves were mountain high and they swept over the frail craft ceaselessly.
“My flesh creeps!” he cried.
“My complexion runs!” shrieked she.
For it is the lot of women to suffer most.—Detroit Journal.

A business man is the most patient creature in the world. He cannot wait to hear any long-drawn-out story of the cause of his ailment. He doesn't care twigs about a fine spun theory of how he should treat himself. He may be predisposed to scrofula, or consumption. “That,” he will tell you “has nothing to do with the case.” He wants to be well. If he can be cured, write out a prescription and send in your bill. So, here's the first part of the proposition.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a microbe hunter and killer. Many persons of scrofulous blood, encourage the breaking out of unsightly sores, to prevent the disease going to the lungs. There is no need of this state of dread and discomfort. Purify the blood. It can be done. “Golden Medical Discovery” will cure 98 per cent. of all consumptive cases, also of all other lingering bronchial, throat and lung diseases.

BEER BROS

I have been frequently told that “Dry Goodmen” try to persuade buyers from inspecting my goods.

It is easy to guess why they do this—and I sincerely hope they will continue in that course, for it only tends to make the shrewd buyer so much eager to know what I am selling at low prices. I employ no salesmen, sell only to gilt edge buyers, and my only terms are cash. Housekeepers will find it to their advantage to inspect my waagners and skirts. See the widely known “King Diamond Skirts” at such a low figure. Buyers will save shoe walking and money by trading with me.

Artificial Teeth.

When the natural teeth have been lost, the comfort, the health, the speech, and the personal appearance will be greatly enhanced by the substitution of Artificial Teeth skillfully made. Good health, good appearance and comfort depend upon the dentists skill in making an Artificial set knowingly and perfectly fitted. Artificial teeth can be made to present a very natural appearance an occasional dark tooth, an irregular arrangement, or a tasty fillings will break the plain monotony so often noticeable. The sunken condition of a persons cheeks and lips due to the loss of the natural teeth, is changed completely by the insertion of properly made Artificial teeth. We make Artificial teeth that will fill out hollow cheeks and add youth and tone to the countenance. If you are troubled with bad fitting Artificial teeth that do not stay in their places as they should, we can, by use of a new method, make your old set over at a small expense and give you a perfect fit. We guarantee our work to be satisfactory in all respects. You can call in, in the morning and have your teeth same day.
