

Kings Member Complains Inequities In Fishing

Iceland was strongly defended in the Island legislature yesterday for its stand to protect the country's fishing rights. The champion of the Northern Island was a fisherman of long experience, George E. Saville, liberal representative from 5th Kings.

Mr. Saville was complaining of the inequity which allows foreign trawlers to come within three miles of the Canadian coast while under a fisheries regulation Canadian trawlers must stay outside the twelve mile limit.

"I have every admiration for Iceland in trying to protect her rights and I think Canadian fishermen should be better protected," said Mr. Saville.

"We must protect our inshore fishermen," he said.

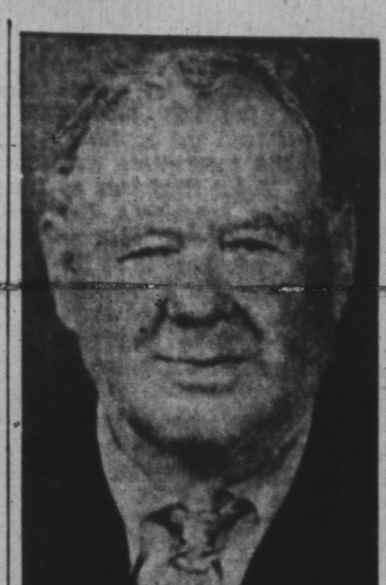

ISLAND VEGETABLES

Speaking of the frozen food plant at Sherwood, Mr. Saville thought it was a wonderful plant. He could not understand why Island stores were stocked with imported vegetables while Island vegetables were frozen in the field. Mr. Saville said he would like to see a frozen food plant in Kings county where he felt good crops could be grown.

The causeway, Mr. Saville felt, would be built. He said that projects much larger than this had been completed in Salt Lake City and in the Netherlands where material was more difficult to obtain than here.

In the meantime, Mr. Saville observed, a car ferry must be constructed, because a causeway would probably not be a reality until 10 or 15 years.

The veteran member from Annapolis said it made him smile to think of the present government being turned out. He said their road building program had been tremendous and if anyone went into the Georgetown district and told the people there was nothing done, they would laugh at you.

GEORGE E. SAVILLE

GOLD MINE

The Kings member said lobster fishing had become a "gold mine" to many Island fishermen. He stated that in a short season many of them earned between 24 thousand dollars while their wives work in the lobster factories.

He felt that perhaps this was the reason for so many vacant arms. Referring to his own district, he recalled that less than ten years ago many farms were growing fine crops but were now grown up in waste and.

The inshore fisherman, however, was not making out so well according to Mr. Saville who complained that the drags were causing poor catches for the smaller fisherman. "I'm not against drags, but

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

He asserted that rural electrification had revolutionized the country districts of the Island. "If you bought all the electrical equipment they wanted to sell you, the house couldn't hold it. It has done much to keep the family happy and if a man does this, he has gone a long way," he added.

Speaking of the educational program, Mr. Saville said, "I am no prophet of doom, but I am convinced that the present Minister has done more for education than all the other governments put together and I believe he will go down in history as one of the greatest apostles of education that this province has produced."

is a large, 32-ounce jar of MIRACLE WHIP, the salad dressing that combines tangy, home-made flavor with satin-smooth texture. I use it, in some way, most every day—for the salads we all enjoy, and in sandwiches for the young man of the house. Nobody has ever been able to copy Miracle Whip—and so, salads made with it are unique for flavor, for smoothness—for downright goodness. Try blending Miracle Whip with diced apples and celery, add nuts and raisins, serve on crisp lettuce—and you'll bless the thought! Miracle Whip is a delight to use, and to taste. Do try it, this very week!

about an exciting series of laundry tests conducted in Brandon, Manitoba. 288 housewives were asked to try SPIC AND SPAN in a new role—adding it to their laundry. They used their regular detergent, added ¼ cup of pine-scented Spic and Span, and reported that they did get better washes with green Spic and Span. Why? Spic and Span is a fine, safe cleaning agent and a natural water softener. It adds EXTRA CLEANING POWER to your laundry. It works with the detergent to get clothes really clean and fresh. I use Spic and Span in my laundry. I think you should, too.

"SHE WAS JUST A BAG OF BONES," writes Mrs. G. of Owen Sound, "when my little daughter found the half-dozed, bedraggled and terrified kitten on our door-step. We simply couldn't turn it away to die, and now, in less than a month, she has been transformed into a light-hearted, silken beauty. The very first day of her adoption we began feeding her DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION WHOLE FISH CAT FOOD... and she has had it every day since. She loves her Dr. Ballard's Cat Food and has developed into the healthiest, most playful and endearing companion imaginable." Dr. Ballard's Cat Food will make your kitten a Champion, too!

"I AM A BARBER," writes one of the thousands who has a deep gratitude for what RAZ-MAH has done for him, "and for the past four years have suffered with chronic bronchitis. I am thankful to say that now I find RAZ-MAH gives me quick relief". You can imagine what it means to a man like this to be freed from the struggles with bronchial coughing. Others with asthma have found the same relief. So have hay-fever victims. If you are troubled yourself—or if you know of anyone who suffers from asthma or chronic bronchitis—do tell them about RAZ-MAH, and suggest they try it. It will be a real kindness.
