CHARLIE FARQUHARSON,

☆☆☆☆☆☆ COME AND GONE

Everyone knows the inimitable Charlie Farquharson. With his inverted bray of the ass, the grizzled farmer from Parry Sound, Ontario, who has been for so long "out standing in his field", appeared here at the university on the evening of Thursday, November 15. Charlie's sidekick, Don Harron (or "Darn Herring" as Max Ferguson irreverently mentioned in Charlie's valued textbook, Histry of Canada), hosted the CBC talk program "Morningside", which was due for radio broadcast the following morning. The music of local folk entertainers "Lenny and Roy" was featured along with Dennis Thatcher's historical meeting with Queen Vickie, and Alan Rankin's tribute to PEI's roadways in springtime, among others.
