THE DAILY EXAMINER.

MAY 20, 1892.

The Columbian Exposition

LIBERAL terms are offered to those of our enterprising men and women who may send exhibits to the great world's exhibition to be held next year at Chicago. The cost of transportation both going and coming will be defrayed, and the cost of maintenance while at the exhibition will also be paid by the Dominion Government. The care and the risk only will fall upon the Provincial authorities and the exhibitors. Professor Saunders is here to-day making the general preliminary arrangements for an exhibit from Prince Edward Island. It is hoped that an effort will be made both on the part of our Government and our people to make this exhibit creditable to the Province and such an one as will inure to its advantage in the future. The Professor suggests an exhibit of horses, cattle, grain, fish, fruits and building stone—of which he has seen a sample in the striking and beautiful rectory of St. Paul's Church—the best specimens of our ladies' handicraft and other things which may be creditably shown. He also suggests that photographic views of our public buildings and our rural scenery be displayed at the exhibition, to the end that those who will visit it may obtain an idea of its attractions as a summer resort.

There can be no doubt that the reputation of our Province for horses and grain and other produce of the farm would be widely extended by means of this exhibition at which all the world will be present. We think that the Provincial Government should heartily second the efforts of Professor Saunders and make arrangements for a Provincial exhibit of our best products.

The Untrustworthy Trustees.

THE country is still anxiously waiting for the Trustees of the Hospital for the Insane to publish a statement of the visits made by them to that institution, with the date of each visit. We have charged them with neglecting their duties in connection with the Asylum, and they, reply through the Patriot, that they have faithfully carried out the law in their superintendence. If they have nothing to fear why not publish the statement required? They confine themselves to bold assertions, hoping to cover up their neglect of duty.

Will the member for West River, as one of the Trustees, state over his own signature that he is not guilty of gross negligence. Some day the public may be startled by occurrences in the Hospital, a scandal to the Province, owing to his inattention to the duties of the position he has assumed.

We believe there are no less than four members of the Legislature Trustees of the Asylum, and the member for West River is the latest appointment. This is contrary to law. But it is nothing new for the autocratic combination that at present rules the Province to violate the law. These gentlemen are a law unto themselves. The Statute of 1879 amending "An act relating to the Lunatics and to the custody of Lunatics," distinctly enacts that only three members of the Legislature shall be Trustees of the Hospital at one time. The Government have appointed four members of the Legislature to that position. The Statute of 1875 enacts that the acceptance of the position of a trustee of the said Hospital shall not vacate the seat of any present or future member of the Legislature, provided only three members shall be trustees at any one time. The member for West River being the last appointment as Trustee, has clearly vacated his seat in the Legislature, and he has been sitting and voting in the House of Assembly for the last two sessions, contrary to law.

It may be contended that the seat is not vacated because the Trustees have not taken up, so far, the salary or remuneration attached to the position. In section 12 of the statute of 1875 it is enacted that "the sum of $250 shall be annually paid to and distributed among said Trustees." This section is not repealed, and the Trustees are now entitled to this remuneration. It will not do for these gentlemen to say that they do not intend to claim or take this money provided by statute for the position. This money may remain in the treasury during the life of the present Government. The present administration must, ere long, consult the people. The party will, no doubt, be defeated at the very first opportunity presented to the intelligent electors of the Province. Then, when in the cool shades of opposition, like their Liberal predecessors, they will greedily collect the money they neglected to take while in office, and the next Government can be compelled, by law, to pay them every cent of this money.

The electors will remember the boasting declamation of the Davies administration, when in the throes of dissolution. At that time the departmental salaries were $1600 per annum. That government announced in the press and in Parliament that they were about to introduce a great scheme of economy. The departmental salaries were to be reduced to $1300 per annum so soon as the necessary legislation could be had for that purpose, and that in the meantime the Attorney-General, Commissioner of Public Lands and Minister of Public Works would only take at the rate of $1300 per per year for the balance of that year. After these gentlemen were ignominiously hurled from power they forgot their promise, and exacted from the incoming government every cent of money coming to them at the old rate of $1600 a year. The present Trustees are not more upright nor less selfish than their predecessors, and history will repeat itself.

Even supposing that the Trustees decline to take the remuneration attached by statute to their positions as Trustees, Mr. Farquharson, by his acceptande of office, has clearly vacated his seat. Should the little Bonaparte become weary of the many demands on him as Attorney-General and vacate that office, and should Mr. Bell be appointed to the same on his verbal agreement that he would not enjoy the emoluments attached to it by statute—a very violent presumption—could it for a moment be contended that his seat as a member of the Legislature would not be come vacant? The offices in both case and the emoluments appertaining to each cannot be disassociated until a statute is passed doing away with the salary. Mr. Farquharson has clearly not been a member of the Legislature for over two years, and is now liable to all the penalties provided for the infraction of the law relating to the case. The Statute of 1890 declares that "no person who accepts or holds an office, commission or employment in the service of the Government or the Province of Prince Edward Island at the nomination of the Crown, or by, from, through or under any department in the public service of the Dominion of Canada or the Province of Prince Edward Island to which an annual salary is attached, shall be eligible as a member of the Legislative Council or House of Assembly, nor shall he sit or vote in the same during the time he holds such office, commission or employment." An annual salary is attached to the position of a Trustee of the Hospital; therefore, with the exception of three as specially authorized by the Act respecting the care of lunatics, no member of the Legislature can hold his seat while holding that office.

Notes and Comments.

—The Nineteenth Century and Westminster for May are to hand.

—The statement telegraphed to THE EXAMINER that the Church of England in this Province has decreased by 5,559 is erroneous. The correct figure is 559.

—Seeding operations in Manitoba and the Northwest are reported "most favorable when compared with past years." It it said that if no set-back occurs before the end of the month—as was the case in May, 1891—growing grain will be considerably further advanced over the condition at the close of corresponding months of last year.

—That Sir John Thompson was misled by Mr. Davies' erroneous statement that the reserved Act provides for an appeal to the people within the year, is evident from his subsequent remark that "in view of the position of affairs in the Island, no unavoidable delay will take place in regard to it." Mr. Davies has misled Parliament, and should rise to explain. In point of fact, the present Legislature will not expire until March, 1894; and but for the crisis which has been precipitated, there need not be an election until then.

—Mr. Cornelius Howe, representing the Continental Egg Company of Great Grimsby, the largest concern of its kind in Great Britain, had an interview with Hon. Mr. Foster recently with reference to the Canadian egg trade. The Continental Egg Company, as its name implies, has heretofore devoted its attention to eggs from the continent—Denmark, Austria, Hungary, Germany, etc.,—but Canadian eggs have attracted so much attention in Great Britain that it has been thought advisable to send an agent here with a view to securing a portion of the great trade which it is evident must spring up in Canadian eggs. Mr. Howe expresses himself as confident of a large and profitable trade being done, especially if proper care is taken in the selection and in the packing, and for the purpose of giving information on these important points he will visit all the egg centres of the Dominion and will be pleased to meet anyone interested in the trade. He will visit Charlottetown.

Personal.

The death is announced of General George K. Lapka, a contemporary of Louis Kossuth.

Judge Barbidge, of the Exchequer Court, left this morning. There were no cases to be tried before him in Charlottetown this year.

Mr. Harry S. McLeod arrived home last evening from Philadelphia, where he has been studying medicine.

We regret that our fellow townsman, Councillor Hughes, was accidently kicked by a horse yesterday afternoon and will be confined to his house for a few days. He is under the care of Dr. Beer, and is as well as possible under the circumstances.

Professor Saunders, Canadian Commissioner for the World's Exposition at Chicago, arrived here last evening. He called upon His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor this forenoon, and had an interview with the Leader of the Government this afternoon. He leaves to-morrow morning.

THE Crescents are requested to meet for practice to-night. Second team vs. first.

TUG-OF-WAR.—Late advices from San Francisco report that the Canadian team defeated all the other teams in the big tug-of-war competition recently held at that place. There are several Islanders on the victorious team. It is more than likely that a team of Canadians will represent the state of California at the World's Fair tournament next year.

General Telegraphic News.

MONTREAL, May 18.—A movement is on foot among the retailers of the city to start a telephone company in opposition to the existing Bell monopoly. Cheaper rates and better service are the objects had in view.

QUEBEC, May 18.—Conservative organs here all agree now that no action will be taken against Pacaud for recovery of the $100,000 received by him out of the Baie des Chaleur railway subsidies, but in another form.

AUBURN, N. Y., May 18.—Joseph L Tice, of Rochester, the wife murderer, was electrocuted this morning. The execution was entirelp successful. The electric current was turned into the body four times, each contact being brief. The total time of contact was 50 seconds; total time of execution 53 seconds. The physicians present all declare that Tice was dead the instant the first contact was made. A close examination of the body showed no marks or burns upon it.

MONTREAL, May 18.—It is understood that the deficit of the Quebec Government under the Mercier regime amounts to over $1,600,000.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., May 18.—A terrific hurricane has passed over central New Zealand, and the damage done is enormous. Long stretches of railroad embankment were washed away, and traffic is greatly interrupted. It is late autumn here, and hundreds of acres of wheat, corn, oats and barley were ruined, the standing crops being beaten down. Many coasting vessels were driven ashore, and it is believed the loss of life will prove heavy. Reports come from all parts of the country of building blown down or unroofed. The money damage caused by the storm cannot be estimated. It is thought many men in the wood cutting camps have been killed by the falling trees.

OTTAWA, May 18.—The government cruiser Canadienne is waiting orders at Quebec preparatory to leaving for Labrador. Before giving final instructions as to the treatment of Newfoundland fishing vessels in these waters in the matter of traps or permission to use seines, the Newfoundland government has been asked whether their refusal to enter into the modus vivendi as proposed by Canada might be considered final. The Newfoundland government has not yet formally replied, but the question is being considered by them. Under the law, the Canadian government has authority to prevent the setting of a single trap or the use of cod seines by Newfoundland fishermen in our waters, and by the bill now before parliament additional authority can be taken to prevent any Newfoundland fishing houses from doing business on the Canadian coast.

BOISE CITY, Iowa, May 18.—Bill Dampman, a miner at Sabe Creek, has for some time beeen missing a great deal of rich amalgam from his sluice boxes. He kept watch for several nights and noticed that a small calf came about the same time every night to drink from the sluice box. Last night he fired at the calf. With a cry the calf staggered upon its hind legs, then fell to the ground. Running up to the supposed animal, Dampman discovered he had shot and killed a young man who had been around the camp for some time. A later investigation showed that instead of a man the supposed boy was a girl about 18 years of age.

Missed day by day from its usual place—but

One less the pilgrim's daily cross to bear;
One more the crown of the blessed to wear.
At home in heaven!
