THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 13, 1879.

The Belfast Election.

A meeting was held at Montague Cross Roads last evening and at Uigg on the evening previous. Both these were decidedly in favour of the Government candidate, Mr. Crawford, whose election is safe beyond a doubt.

Personalities at Pownal.

No person acquainted with the manner in which the Patriot has attacked the Hon. Mr. Ferguson for the last six months, can sympathize with Lawson, Stewart & Co., on account of the rough handling which they say they received from Mr. F. at the Pownal meeting. If Mr. Henry Lawson would only treat his opponents with common decency, he would soon find that he would have little to complain of. It would, however, be folly to expect anything like fair dealing from the Patriot. He is evidently one of those to whom the words of Byron apply:—

Even then the boldest start from public sneers,
Afraid of shame, unknown to other fears.
More darkly sin by satire kept in awe,
And shrink from ridicule, if not from law.

We are assured that the Patriot's version of Mr. Stewart's ruffianly attack on Mr. Ferguson is altogether untrue. Mr. Stewart was first to make allusions to private business—but he gained nothing by doing so. We hear that the opposition will not allow Mr. Stewart to attend any more meetings in the Belfast district; and for this at least, they are, to be commended.

It seems that at Pownal, Mr. W. D. Stewart read to the assembled electors the contents of a paper which he said was written by Mr. F. W. Hyndman—to the effect that Mr. F. W. Hyndman had not prepared the statement referred to at the meeting and published in the EXAMINER of yesterday; that it was a false statement; that it was prepared by some one else, and only signed by Mr. Hyndman as Provincial Auditor at the request of the Leader of the Government. This is the report; and we believe it substantially correct. If so, Mr. Hyndman has certainly much greater ground for complaint against Mr. Stewart than against the Hon. Mr. Sullivan; for nothing Mr. Sullivan could possibly say could be half so damaging to Mr. Hyndman's character as an official and a man. Had Mr. Stewart attacked Mr. Hyndman, the effect would, of course have been nil. But as he was attacking the Government and defending Mr. Hyndman, his statement is most damaging and libellous. We look for a contradiction, or at least an explanation, on the part of Mr. Hyndman. Indeed, we should not be much surprised if Mr. Hyndman sued Mr. Stewart for libel.

THE PRINCESS LOUISE leaves Quebec to-day on board the Sarmatia for Liverpool. She will proceed from Liverpool to Windsor to visit her illustrious relatives. The date of her return to Canada is unknown.

At the recent Marine Board examination held in this city on the 16th and 17th, Capt. P. A. Scott, R. N., Chairman, Mr. Louis John Westaway, of Georgetown, passed and received a masters' certificate of competency. We are pleased to see our Island marine men still striving to obtain rank in their profession.

Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements or opinions of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—In looking over the "New Era" of to-day's date, I find the following paragraph:—

"W. H. Mitchell has not been in the employ of this office for several months past; and has no authority to give receipts or collect money on our behalf."

Mr. Patrick Raymond Bowers must have known when he penned the above paragraph that it would injure me, and I have no doubt that it was wilfully inserted in his paper with this malicious intent.

The reader of the above paragraph would infer that I had been collecting money and giving receipts for Mr. Bowers, without his order or authority.

Now, Mr. Editor, I desire to state to the inhabitants of this city and the public at large that the inference to be drawn from the above paragraph is without foundation in fact. I have never collected any money for the "New Era" under false pretences. This I positively and emphatically declare; and it well shows the evil mind of the man and the vindictive spirits which animates him, when he descends to such despicable means to injure his fellow man.

Yours very truly,

W. H. MITCHELL.
