

MISS NORMA

RUBY AND HER DOGS

THE JULINDA FAMILY

Exhibition Vaudeville Has Excellent Entertainment

The vaudeville attractions at this year's exhibition are of the highest quality. Whether it be slapstick comedy or the genuine artistry of highly skilled artists, there is entertainment to please all tastes.

The Julindas, a family act of father, mother and three daughters ranging in ages from six to 12 were amazing. The whole family co-ordinated their efforts to bring a most wholesome type of entertainment. The huge audience literally took the Julindas to their hearts.

Miss Norma is an attractive young lady who does some amazing stunts on the slack wire. Her gracefulness, balance and poise won her the well merited applause of the crowd.

For the kiddies there is a most entertaining dog and pony act. Ruby's dogs and ponies display a degree of training which at times almost reaches human intelligence.

Edna and Leon combine to bring one of the finest adagio balancing acts seen in Charlottetown. Leon raises his partner to a hand to hand balancing position with a grace and ease which makes their act a thing of beauty. They bring thrills to the audience when her male partner tosses Edna from one hand to the other while she does a head to hand stand at the ex-

Drowned By Rising Tide

POINT DU CHENE, N.B. (CP) RCAF Cpl. C. W. Roe of Halifax, reported unable to swim, was drowned Monday when a rising Northumberland Strait tide swept over a sandbar on which he was stranded near this eastern New Brunswick resort centre.

Volunteers and four doctors failed to revive Roe, who was stationed in Moncton.

Keen Competition Among Top Holsteins Yesterday

Very keen competition was waged yesterday among the Island's top Holstein breeders and when it was over Judge Jim Brown of Newcastle, Ontario said it was a very good show. It finished out on a roadway below the cattle barns at the Vaudeville show took over inside the Jones Cattle Arena.

Cattle from fifteen herds were vying for honors at the big show. Nobody had any walkaway with ribbons but perhaps Hooper Brothers of Rustico had the most honors. They had seven firsts, six seconds, three thirds, two fourths and a fifth and a sixth place.

Cyril Jones, Charlottetown R.I. was another strong contestant with four firsts, three seconds, no less than eight thirds, two fourths, six fifths and a sixth. He had the junior female champion and reserve senior and reserve grand.

Unworthy Gurney, herdsman at Falconwood Farm, had a good day which was topped when his aged dry cow went senior and grand champion. She is Falconwood Glengales Marksman's Grace.
