

Nothing tastes as good as RITZ but RITZ

There is a CHRISTIE BISCUIT for every taste

KINDNESS REPAID

HALIFAX (CP)—Arthur Colwell, who was given a place to sleep when he was without money, admitted in court to stealing a watch and pen-knife from his benefactor, Claude Maruge. "It was kind of a mean theft," said crown prosecutor P. T. Hickey. Colwell, who had a police record, was sentenced to two years in prison.

The Neighbors

By George Clark

"His phone's been busy for two hours! The way those girls chase after him!"

Alma and Vicinity

Mr. Donald Hardy visited his friend, Mr. Jim Donald on Saturday. Friends of Gordon Barbour are glad to see him out around after his recent illness.

Mr. Stephen Gillis who has been visiting in Alma has returned to his home in Miscouche.

Mr. Fred C. Ramsay, M.L.A., is attending the sessions of the Legislature in Charlottetown.

Mr. Brenton Ramsay returned home after a delightful visit with his relatives in Massachusetts.

Mr. Ralph Rennie and Mr. Wallace Donald recently loaded a carload of sagoes for Heila, Israel.

Mr. A. K. Barbour entertained the Baptist W.M.S. on Friday evening. There was a good attendance.

Friends are glad to hear that Carl McLellan is recovering after his recent illness in Western Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hardy spent the week-end in Amherst where they attended the Barbara Ann Scott show.

Friends are sorry to hear that Mrs. Lloyd Dunbar is ill at her home in Montrose. All hope for a speedy recovery.

On Thursday morning Mr. J. H. Dunbar left for Montreal and Toronto. He will also visit other points of interest.

Many friends of Gordon Rix are pleased to see him home after having an appendix operation in Western Hospital.

Mrs. Arthur Galpin arrived in Alma Thursday evening to be with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Currie, who is quite ill.

Rennie's Store was broken into on Thursday night. The R.C.M.P. have been investigating and as yet the thief has not been apprehended.

Friends of Mrs. Mary J. Donald, the genial postmistress of Alma, are glad to see her on duty again after being quite ill at her home with "flu."

Many friends of Mr. Roscoe Barbour who is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, are glad to know that he had his operation and that he will soon be able to get around again.

On Tuesday evening a goodly number of farmers turned out to attend the Farmers Federation meeting which was held at Alma School. The secretary reported that a good number had joined up.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Harry Barbour was hostess to the Alma W.M.S. of the Church of Canada. In spite of the bad roads nearly all the members were present. Mrs. Earl Barbour kindly invited the members to her home for the next meeting.

The Young Peoples met at the home of Weldon Rennie on Tuesday evening. The president, Marion Barbour, led the meeting. Bob McAssey was in charge of devotional period and Jim Donald in charge of programme. Mr. Sheen kindly invited the Y.P.U. to the manse for the next meeting.

19TH CENTURY STATESMAN Richard Cobden, leader in the fight for the repeal of the Corn Laws, was a calico manufacturer in Manchester.

Wellington

Miss Blanche Day spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. Lowell Barlow, Borden, recently visited his parents.

Mrs. Robert Perry, St. Nicholas, recently visited Mrs. Emily J. Arsenault.

Mr. Eugene Brooks observed his birthday at his home on Friday, March 3rd.

Miss Rena Ferguson spent the week-end at her home in Union Corner.

Miss May Ferguson, Union Corner, visited her sister, Mrs. Wilfred Thompson of Charlottetown.

Mrs. Sable Cameron, Wellington Center, was a recent patient in Prince County Hospital.

A very large crowd attended the show held in the Wellington Station Hall on Saturday evening.

Mr. Leo Gallant left on Wednesday morning of last week on a trip to various parts of U.S.A. to visit relatives.

Her many friends are pleased to see Miss Mary McLure out again after her recent illness at her home.

O'Leary and Wellington hockey teams played on Thursday of last week, score being 11-5, in favor of Wellington.

Miss Wilna Newcombe, student at Central Business College, Summerside, was the week-end guest of Miss Daisy Barlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harkness and daughter Susan of Summerside visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barlow on Sunday.—B

Misses Hazel and Eunice Clark, Toronto, arrived home on Friday night of last week to attend the funeral of their father, Mr. Earl Clark.

R. C. A. F. and Wellington hockey teams played in Wellington rink on Monday night of last week, score ending 8-2 in favor of Wellington.

His host of friends regret to learn Mr. Fred M. Arsenault suffered a stroke at his home recently. One and all trust he will be restored to health in the near future.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of the late Mr. Earl Clark who passed away at his home on Tuesday, February 28th after a lengthy illness. Besides his sorrowing wife, he leaves to mourn two daughters and two sons, Eunice and Hazel of Toronto, Roy and Donald at home; also three brothers and two sisters, Lloyd of Summerside, Roy Kenneth of Toronto, and Donald of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. Rose (Daly) and Hettie of Toronto. Mr. Clarke, who had been in failing health for some time, was bedfast for only one week and was tenderly cared for by his wife. Funeral took place in Union Corner United Church cemetery on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. The services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Howe. A short service was held at his late residence then proceeding to the church. "Asleep in Jesus" was sung at the house, with favorite hymns of deceased being sung at the church, being "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", "Aloft With Me", and "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross". Pall-bearers were Emile Gallant, Leigh Hogg, Charlie Allen, Arthur Allen, Reggie Gaudet and Leonce Arsenault.

A wedding of wide interest was solemnized at the United Church Parsonage in Summerside on Wednesday morning, March 1st at ten o'clock when Rev. K. G. Sullivan

Howlan and Vicinity

Mrs. Frank Peters spent Thursday and Friday with her parents in Duvar.

Mr. Thomas Arsenault and son Harold of Duvar were in Howlan on Monday afternoon.

Dr. Cummings of O'Leary made a professional call at the home of Firmin Perry on Friday.

Mrs. A. A. Arsenault recently spent a few days with her aged mother who is ill at her home in Bloomfield Corner.

The many friends of Gordon Knollen are sorry to know that he has been on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Webb have been caring for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Gallant had a Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gallant and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gallant with their families.

Mr. A. S. Gallant is spending a week with his wife and relatives at their home in Woodstock.

Mr. Hector Richard, M.L.A. returned from Charlottetown on Thursday P.M. after spending a day or two there.

Mr. Heber Bryan, mail carrier, was out on his route on Monday after not being able to make the trip on Friday and Saturday owing to the condition of roads after the heaviest fall of snow this season.

Our teacher, Miss Marion Ellis, had quite a thrilling horse back ride on Monday a.m. getting to her school as the road didn't even have a track from O'Leary to Howlan. However she made the trip in good time.

The sympathy of their friends in this district is extended to the bereaved widow and family of the late John Thomas Dignan of Woodstock whose death took place on Sunday evening in Provincial Sanatorium in Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Darice Gallant recently had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Arsenault, accompanied by Mr. Cole Arsenault, all of Cas-cumpee.

United in marriage Miss Mildred Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ferguson of Union Corner and Mr. Lorne Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Barlow of Wellington.

The bride was attired in a steel grey dress with wine accessories and carried a corsage of pink carnations. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rena Ferguson, who was attired in a suit of wine gabardine and brown accessories, also carried a corsage of yellow roses. Mr. Claude Barlow, brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party left for Wellington where turkey dinner was served sixteen guests at the home of Mrs. Alice Barlow, grandmother of the groom. The bridal party then motored to Charlottetown where supper was served at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Thompson, sister of the bride. They also visited Mrs. Carrie Nelson. Previous to their marriage, a shower was held in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow when they were recipients of many beautiful gifts.

TINY MARAUDER

KITCHENER, Ont. — (CP) — After losing six prize pigeons, a rabbit and a rooster, John Plexan set a home-made trap to catch the killer. The trap yielded a marauding seven-inch-long white vessel.

Feet Killing You?

READ THIS! When feet are tired and aching: 1. Baths with Cuticura Soap. 2. Massage with Cuticura Ointment. 3. Dust Cuticura Talcum between toes and into shoes. Try CUTICURA OINTMENT AND SOAP.

BEDUQUE AND VICINITY

Mr. Sherman MacCaull, Borden, spent the week-end with his wife, Mrs. Mildred Craig, this village.

Mrs. Reginald Forbes, returned to her home this week after spending some time with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Webster, Lower Beduque.

The condition of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lidstone, who have been quite ill for several weeks, is at this date, March 7, slightly improved.

A considerable number from this community were in Charlottetown last week-end to the Barbara Ann Show. Needless to say they were all loud in their praise of what they saw.

The Beduque Women's Institute held a pantry sale in Mr. Walter Bowness store Friday afternoon, 3. A fine assortment of home cooking was quickly disposed of and a snug sum was realized for Institute purposes.

Congratulation from this community to the Central Beduque school for having won the coveted trophy in the Annual Rink School Ice Sports in the Beduque Rink on Tuesday, February 28th. Beduque school won the trophy last year and came a close second this year.

IN MEMORIAM

WALLACE LOWTHER

In the passing of Mr. Wallace Lowther to his eternal reward February 17th, the community of North Carleton lost one of its oldest and most respected residents. Mr. Lowther was the son of the late Matthew and Hannah Lowther born in North Carleton 93 years ago. In 1888 he married Annie Muttart who pre-deceased him four years ago. He is survived by one son Hedley of North Carleton. Mr. Lowther was a successful farmer until his retirement, 16 years ago. He lived a consistent christian life, and those who know him found him a friend indeed; in the home one met that kindly welcome which was his strong characteristic. He was a member of the Methodist Church when young and after union of the United Church of which he was a faithful member being in his place of worship until a few months before his death.

A large number of friends and neighbours attended the funeral service which was held Sunday, February 19th, from his late residence. His pastor, Rev. Burton Crowe officiating. His theme being based on II. Timothy 4.7. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Nearer, My God to Thee" and "Peace Perfect Peace." Interment was in Seale-town United Church Cemetery. The pallbearers were Percy Lowther, Hudson Lowther, John Haslam, Heber Myers, Stephen Huestis and Neil Bradshaw.

CARD OF THANKS

Hedley Lowther wishes to thank all his kind friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness during his recent sad bereavement.

O'Leary and Vicinity

Mrs. J. M. Sheen and son, George of Kimsdale, P. E. I. were visitors to O'Leary on Saturday, March 4.

Mr. Gordon Knollin, Bloomfield, has been confined to his home for the past two weeks. All hope to see him around again soon.

The Mission Band of O'Leary United Church sold delicious doughnuts on Saturday afternoon, March 4th and found ready purchasers.

Mrs. McCallum, one of the older residents of Coleman, is on the sick list and confined to her home. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Angus MacKenzie, the Jeweller at O'Leary is also on the sick list and is confined to his home. His legion of friends wish him a quick convalescence.

Mrs. Sam Duncan, one of the aged and beloved residents of Bloomfield is also on the sick list and under the Doctor's care. Her friends hope that she'll soon be feeling very much better.

The Canadian Girls in Training of O'Leary United Church held a social on Friday evening, March 3rd at the home of Mrs. Herbert Watcher. After the Worship service and study, led by Mrs. W. G. Dickson, was completed, delicious refreshments were served. The girls decided to have the large painting of the O'Leary United Church, which was painted by Mrs. E. B. Ellis of O'Leary and donated to the C. G. I. T., framed and hung in the Church.

Miss Thelma Locke of O'Leary R.R., is receiving congratulations on receiving her cap at the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown, Capping Ceremony. Miss Locke is one of twenty-three nurses to receive their caps, the largest number of probationer nurses to be capped at one time. Her many friends wish her every success in her chosen profession. Another O'Leary young lady, Miss Betty Fale, also received her cap at this ceremony and her legion of friends unite in wishing her continued success.

The Evening Auxiliary of O'Leary United Church met for their regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, March 2nd, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Turner. There was a very large attendance. The president, Mrs. Lewis Bernard presided. The theme of the worship service was: "What can I give to my Church?" and was conducted by Mrs. Stanley Dunville, assisted by Mrs. E. W. Turner, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, Mrs. A. S. Palmer, and Mrs. Claude MacNeill. A reading on "Stewardship" was given by Mrs. E. W. Turner. Mrs. Neary Shelton had the Missionary for prayer. Delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting, which will be the Easter meeting, will be held at the home of Mrs. Herbert Watcher.

Mrs. Mary Wallace passed away in the ninety-fourth year of her life, at her home in Colman, P.E.I. on Saturday night. She was a friend to all. Whenever there was sickness or sorrow she was there to help; she was a devoted Christian and knew her Bible well. She was confined to her home for the past several years but always bore her sickness with Christian fortitude and courage. She was a valued member of The Church of Scotland at Colman. Funeral services have not yet been definitely decided pending whether relatives from a distance can be present but will be held either Tuesday or Wednesday, March 7th or 8th and will be conducted by her Minister Rev. H. J. Bishop assisted by Rev. W. G. Dickson. Interment will be in Mill cemetery. "Servant of God Well Done".

The Women's Missionary Society of the O'Leary United Church held their regular monthly meeting on Friday afternoon, March 3rd, at the home of Mrs. George Bernard. There was a fine attendance. The president, Mr. William Turner presided. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. J. M. MacWilliams, assisted by Mrs. William Turner, Mrs. A. J. Matheson, Mrs. George Matthews and Mrs. W. G. Dickson. Mrs. J. M. MacWilliams had the Missionary for prayer and also conducted the study period assisted by several of the ladies. It was decided to invite the ladies of the Church of the Nazarene and the Knutsford Baptist Church to join the ladies of the O'Leary United Church W. M. S. in their special Easter program which will be held in the United Church, and a committee was formed to make arrangements for this meeting. The members of the committee are: Mrs. Lewis Bernard, Mrs. E. W. Turner, Mrs. J. M. MacWilliams and Mrs. W. G. Dickson.

EMERALD NOTES

Mr. Earl Todd, Rose Valley, was a recent visitor to Emerald.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Goodwin, Emerald, were among those attending the hockey game on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paynter and family Kelvin were visitors to Emerald on Sunday.

Fenton Mayne, Annes McIntee and Waldron Morrison attending the hockey match in Kensington Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Mayne and family, Charlottetown, were visitors to Emerald Sunday.

Miss Elsie Mayne and little niece Joane Mayne, Emerald, were recent visitors to Charlottetown, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Mayne. While there they attended the Barbara Ann Scott show.

CUT FIRE LOSSES

FORT WILLIAM — (CP) Fire losses in Fort William last year were more than 50 per cent lower than in 1948. Fire Chief E. H. Deas reported losses were estimated at $48,951 compared with $90,421 the previous year.

Advertisement for Kem-Tone paint, featuring a large price tag of $4.98 and the text 'MIRACLE WALL FINISH re-decorates a large room!'.

- ALL THESE ADVANTAGES: 1. Covers most surfaces—wallpaper, paint of walls, plywood, brick interiors, etc. 2. One coat really covers. 3. Dries in one hour. 4. One imperial gallon does large room. 5. No "pointy" odour. 6. A durable, washable surface. 7. A pleasure to put on.

ROLL IT ON WITH THE NEW KEM-CRAFT ROLLER-KOATER

SUMMERSIDE HARDWARE CO. SUMMERSIDE PHONE 3111

YOUR Kem-Tone DEALER

Professional Cards

R. E. ELLIS Fire - Auto Casualty INSURANCE 5 Summer St., Summerside PHONE 2413

B. F. Hunter, R.O. OPTOMETRIST Complete Visual Analysis Glasses Fitted PHONE 3118 SMALLMAN'S BUILDING Summerside, P.E.I.

T. Earle Hickey Chartered Accountant Canadian Bank of Commerce Building PHONE 2888 Summerside

E. E. Parkman, Opt.D., R.O. OPTOMETRIST Eyes Examined Glasses Fitted Office Hours: 9 to 12; 1 to 5 and by appointment. REGENT THEATRE BLDG. Summer St., Summerside

Keep Libby's in the Refrigerator and encourage your youngsters to help themselves... It's truly delicious, and an excellent dietary source of vitamins A and C

Libby's

"GENTLE PRESS" TOMATO JUICE

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK if you don't agree that all low Libby's "Gentle Press" Tomato Products—JUICE, SOUP, CATCHUP and CHEESE SAUCES—are the best you've ever tasted.