

Play All Home Games In Hull

OTTAWA (CP) — The Memorial Cup champion Ottawa-Hull Junior Canadiens will play all their home games next season in Hull, Que., across the Ottawa River from the capital, it was announced Tuesday.

The Junior Habs last season divided their home games between the Ottawa Auditorium and the Hull Arena, playing a series against Ontario Junior A teams in Ottawa and an abbreviated Ontario Senior A, Eastern Division, schedule in Hull.

Habs' president James P. McCaffrey said directors felt the club should leave the Ottawa territory open as the new auditorium owners had applied for a franchise in the American Hockey League.

Schedule Will Be Discussed

WINNIPEG (CP) — An interlocking schedule for 1959 between its Eastern and Western division will be among the major items to be discussed here this weekend at the semi-annual meeting of the Canadian Football League.

The CFL, formed last January, is comprised of two delegates each from the nine pro clubs in the Big Four and the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

Before the CFL sits down Saturday to discuss its business, its two divisions will hold briefing sessions all day Friday.

The interlocking schedule, on the fire for several seasons, likely will be referred to a committee for further discussion.

It is reported that the Western clubs are in favor of a complete the Big Four and the Western Interprovincial Football Unions.

GOOD NEWS
DOUGLAS, Isle of Man. (Reuters) — This independent island off the northwest coast of England will continue to be a haven for those who dislike Britain's income tax. The island's budget, presented to the Tynwald (Parliament) Tuesday, does not change the present rate, about one-half that of Britain.

The Big Batters Had Rough June

NEW YORK (AP) — June brings to mind honeymoons but such outstanding major league batters as Stan Musial, Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra and Gil McDougald have had little about which to celebrate this month.

After making hay in May, these stars, along with Eddie Mathews, Dick Groat, Serm Lollar and Bob Cerv, went into a swoon in June.

In sharp contrast, such normally mediocre hitters as Solly Hemus, Andy Carey, Rocky Bridges, Rocky Colavito, Willie Jones and Don Zimmer have been hotter than this first summer month usually is. Also on the torrid side have been Duke Snider, Ted Williams, Al Kaline, Frank Malzone, Ernie Banks and the St. Louis Cardinal rookie, Gene Green.

On June 1, Musial was batting a lousy .431. During the next two weeks he was able to collect only 10 hits in 46 times at bat (.217) and his average dropped 52 points to a current .379. Willie Mays' decline (from June 6) has been even sharper. In his last 10 games, Mays has had only five hits, all singles, in 38 times at bat (.132) and his average has plummeted from .433 to .385.

During that time Willie hasn't driven in a single run.

Mantle's 17 hits in 62 at bats has reduced his batting average from .297 to .282. Berra averaged a mere .186 (11 of 59) in June and has slipped to .211. McDougald's .214 since May 31 has shrunk his average 40 points to .310. Groat's June average is .194. Mathews' is .235 and Lollar's is .289 as is Cerv's. The latter, however, has been playing with a wire jaw as a result of a fracture.

HOTTEST HITTER
Undoubtedly the hottest hitter in the majors right now is Hemus, the little pepperpot of Philadelphia Phillies. The 34-year-old Texan amassed 22 hits in 46 times at bat, a blazing, .478 pace, ran up an unfinished string of 16 consecutive hitting games, and raised his season mark to .361.

Carey, inserted in the New York Yankee lineup when Jerry Lumpe was injured, also went on a batting tear. He banged out 25 hits in 61 times at bat (.410) and boosted his average 91 points to .299. Snider, hampered the early part of the season by an ailing knee, has hit for a .406 average this month and raised his figure to .287. Another .400 June hitter has been Green, who is now .336 for the year.

Williams, off to his slowest start in the majors, pulled up from .269 to .292 with a .362 June spurge. Colavito has boosted his average 40 points to .314, Jones 47 to .313, Malzone 37 to .297, Kaline 33 to .296, Bridges 23 to .321, Zimmer 17 to .312 and Banks 15 to .318.

Riflemen Seeking Title Saturday

The Maritime Rifle Championship won last June by the New Brunswick rifleman, is up for grabs this Saturday June 21 at Squaw Point Range.

The New Brunswickers won the Inter-Maritime championship at the Sussex Range in June of 1957, with a score of 800 out of a possible 840. This was the fourth occasion on which the 800 mark has been reached in the 58 meetings between the three provinces.

On previous occasions the mark was surpassed twice by New Brunswick, once in 1955 when they established a record high with 808 points and also back in 1937 when their total was 804. In 1936, Prince Edward Island marksmen compiled an aggregate of 802, shooting on their home range.

Inaugurated in 1886, with the exception of the war years, the three eight man teams have met regularly on the third Saturday of each June.

During that time the Nova Scotia contingent has annexed the coveted trophy on 26 occasions. Prince Edward Island has held the championship 16 times as have the marksmen from New Brunswick.

LAST WIN
The last occasion for the Island marksmen to capture the top honors was in 1954, at Sussex.

Rain or shine the match next Saturday is scheduled to get underway at 9 a.m. with the first stage, consisting of seven shots for each competitor being fired from the 200 yard firing mound.

After the luncheon break the three squads move back to the 500 yard mound for the second stage, followed by the windup at 600 yards.

This year's Island contingent will be captained by Capt A.J. McCabe and coached by Sgt. P. J. Landrigan. The shooting members are: Mjr. G.A. MacDonald, Lieut. Mary MacLennan, SSM D. O. Clark, Mjr. A.F. Gormley, Lieut. R.E. Jenkins, C.P.O. S.G. Bowles, Lieut. G.J. Rogers, and Sgt. G.A. Coles.

The defending champions, New Brunswick are headed by Assistant Commissioner G. L. McGibbon and Coaches J.D. O'Connell and J.L. Morris. The rifleman are: C.G. Morris, Harry Smythe, WO2 R.G. Ferris, WO2 R.J. Stapleford, Capt W.T. Neal, Captain C.E.M. Peyton, Lieut. Arndt Parks, and WO2 C.F. Fowler.

Rifle representing the province of Nova Scotia are: Donald H. Ives, Jack Baker, Lieut. Col. J. Neal Dow, Gnr. Cliff Strong, C. L. Marshall, CPO W. Shorten, C.P.O. Reg Winter, and Doug Fraser. The team will be captained by Capt. W.A. Goss and BL (Buck) Rumsey will coach the squad.

At a recent meeting of the local Inter-Maritime committee, Tpr. Bob Barwise was appointed as Range Officer for the meet.

Quarter-Final Matches Today

STOCKHOLM (AP) — World Soccer Cup team officials worked frantically on injured players Wednesday in last-minute bids to get their stars fit for today's vital quarter-final matches.

Famous soccer players such as centre forward John Chales of Wales, inside forward Vava of Brazil, and goalkeeper Harry Gregg of Northern Ireland all were regarded as doubtful starters.

But officials of all three teams reported: "We are working hard and hoping that our injured boys will be fit in time."

Today's quarter-finals lineup: At Malmo, defending champion West Germany vs Yugoslavia; at Norrkoping, France vs Northern Ireland; at Stockholm, Sweden vs Russia; at Goteborg, Brazil vs Wales.

The winners of those matches go into the semi-finals June 24. There will be a play-off match for third place June 28 followed by the final June 29.

The World Cup started about two years ago with 50 nations playing preliminary games all over the world.

Out of those early qualifying matches, 16 teams came to Sweden for the start of the final stages of the tournament June 8.

The 16 finalists battled through three matches in a week of grueling group play. The teams had been divided into four groups with the top two from each section going forward.
