'PUNCH' IMLACH hasn't stopped talking just because the hockey season has come to an end. He's at it again, this time discounting rumors of a possible deal with Detroit Red Wings.

WE SAID as many nice things about 'Punch' as we could during the hockey season. We realized he made excellent copy and that he instilled a spirit in the Leafs that carried them to the Stanley Cup finals.

THERE ARE RUMORS that trade winds are blowing around Yankee Stadium. There may be nothing to these rumors but the situation of the club at the present time is such that anything that would cause improvement is within the realm of possibility.

WHAT'S WRONG with the club? Casey Stengel maintains it's not all with the Yankees. He admits his boys are far from their peak but he also insists that the other clubs are much stronger than they were in 1958.

THIS IS ANOTHER SEASON and Stengel's warning seems to have been well taken. All the other clubs are indeed showing new spirit and are refusing to be awed when they take the diamond against the Stengelmen.

LAST SEASON the Dodgers went exactly nowhere but down to the National League. They had a hard time winning ball games from anybody except the league champions, the Milwaukee Braves.

WHEN WE SENT this column to press, the San Francisco Giants were leading the pack with their west coast buddies, the Los Angeles Dodgers, in second place.

SPORT ECHOES

BY NORMAN MACDONALD

The Prince County softball league got off to an auspicious start at the re-organization meeting held at CJRW Monday evening.

"Peanuts" Arsenault, Summerside boxer, gets back into action in New Glasgow, N. S., on May 11. He faces "Sluggo" Turnbull, a fellow he has defeated in two close contests at Summerside, a split-decision in each case giving Arsenault the nod.

There were no RCAF representatives at the meeting, and someone had heard unofficially that the airforce boys would confine their softball activities along the fistic trail right smart if it is properly blazed for him.

Carl "Agape" Arsenault, another Summerside boy, is also on the card. Carl is a green boy who seems to have oodles of potential ability. We think he will come along the fistic trail right smart if it is properly blazed for him.

homer of the season and the longest blast of the year in Comiskey Park.

The game was the only afternoon encounter in the major American League action at night when New York carded at Kansas City, Boston at Detroit and Baltimore at Cleveland.

In the National League the schedule called for a full slate of night games: St. Louis at Philadelphia, Chicago at Pittsburgh, San Francisco at Cincinnati and Los Angeles at Milwaukee.
