Miscellaneous.

Rev. Arthur Tooth, of London, is in New York.

The "Dumas pere of diplomacy" is what Disraeli called Ignaetieff.

President Hayes arrived at Columbus, Ohio, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. James Gordon Bennett has taken possession of his Newport cottage.

Victor Hugo, who has been laid up with the shingles, is taken a vacation in Germany.

Jules Verne is contemplating a voyage around the world in his new yacht, the St. Michael.

Collector Merritt took possession of his office in the New York Custom House on Saturday afternoon.

It is said that recently gold to the value of $150,000 was obtained in the mines of Beauce, P. Q., in one week.

Hodel, the would-be assassin of the German Emperor, signs himself "Hodel, author of the attempt upon the life of his Majesty, the Emperor."

"Bonanza" McKay is 42 years old, and enjoys an annual income of $12,000,000, including three-eighths of the profits of the Bonanza mines.

Bismarck's two sons are announced as candidates for election to the Reichstag. The Count Herbert Bismarck is 29, and Count William 26 years of age.

Earl Granville made an odd mistake in a recent speech in the Lords, when having occasion to speak of "the late Foreign Secretary," he spoke instead of "the late Lord Derby."

Joaquin Miller's feat in making "cyclades" a dissyllable, has been atoned for by an English poet, Percy Gordon, whose book the Longmans publish. He makes "wine" rhyme with "Heine."

The following telegram from Newfoundland has been received by Archbishop Lynch:—"His Excellency Mgr. Conroy is improving. His complaint was inflammation of the lungs."

John Payne Collier, now ninety, having completed his new edition of Shakespeare, contemplates a new edition of his "History of Dramatic Poetry." "My brain," he says, "will stand it if only my hands hold out."

The only substantial objection the St. John Telegraph has to Messrs. Tilley and King is that they are opposing Government candidates. They would be admirable fellows if they only were Ministerial candidates!

The Marquis of Lorne is reported to be the author of the fairy play "Elfinella," now being played at the Princess' Theatre, London. He writes under the nom de plume of "Ross Neil." The literary qualities of the play are highly spoken of.

Emma Collins, the New York young lady whose father sues Gen. Nichola Cassina, of the Spanish army, for damages for his daughter's seduction, has unaccountably disappeared. This case has caused considerable sensation in New York circles.

POTATO FAMINE.—Moncton is suffering from a potato famine, and that article, which has been scarce for weeks, cannot now be obtained for love or money. A few barrels of potatoes would be saleable merchandise in Moncton just now.—Times.

Judge Coursol returned from Montreal to Quebec on Saturday, where he had been on official business. He is making preparations to carry out the investigation of the Richmond volunteer shooting affair at the Tanneries Junction on the last 13th.

The Empress Eugenie and Prince Napoleon are both on the Continent. The former is staying at Ems, while the latter makes the tour of Sweden and Norway. About the middle of August they will meet at Arenenberg, Switzerland, where they will remain until some time in October.

A Rome despatch says:—"Instructions have been given for the preparation of lodgings for the Pope at Perugio. The French representative at Rome has been assured by the Pontifical Secretary of State that the Pope's absence from the Vatican will not disturb the Papal relations with France."

A cable special says Gen. Grant was received with great enthusiasm by crowds of people when he landed at Gothenburg, Sweden, and on reaching Christiana, the capital of Norway, on the 13th, over 10,000 people greeted him. King Oscar will go to Christiana to receive the General, and give him a State dinner.

An Italian, Sigismund Bandini-Giustiniani, nephew of the Cardinal, has become in his own right a Peer of Scotland, with the titles of the Earl of Newburg, Viscount Kynnaird and Baron Livingstone of Falcraig succeeded his aunt, the late Countess, who died a few days ago at the age of eighty-two.

Pursuant to the suggestion of the Burgomaster of Brussels, a national supscription by all the women of Belgium for the purpose of offering a present to the Queen of the Belgians on the occasion of her silver wedding on the 22nd of next August will be instituted. The subscriptions are limited to 5 cents.

The Duchess of Galliera proposes to make to the City of Paris a magnificent present estimated at several millions of francs. She has decided on leaving to it by will her gallery of pictures, sculptures, and works of art, as well as a piece of ground on which to build a museum to contain the artistic treasures, to be called the Galliera Museum.

Miscellaneous.

The Austrians will enter Bosnia on the 28th inst.

The health of the Emperor William is steadily improving.

General Grant is in Norway, where he was very warmly received.

The English militia reserve will be disbanded at the end of this month.

A number of the Nobeling family have changed their names to that of Edeling.

King Alfonso has nominated Senor Mantilla as Spanish Minister at Washington.

The Archbishop of Quebec has returned from his pastoral visit throughout the various parishes of his diocese.

Letters from Rev. Mr. Butler, missionary at Labrador, state that the reports of the recent famine were very much exaggerated.

Sir H. W. Hoyles, Chief Justice of Newfoundland, will retire permanently from the bench and from the colony in September.

Emigration from Egypt to Cyprus is proceeding on a large scale, and probably a direct service of steamers will be established between Alexandria and Cyprus.

As was to be expected, the rumors of the betrothal of the ex-Empress Eugenie's son and the Princess Thyra of Denmark are contradicted.

Ex-Minister Munchausen and Windthorst advise the Duke of Cumberland, son of the late King George of Hanover, to compromise his claims with Prussia.

The President of the United States has appointed General Badger postmaster at New Orleans, in place of Parker, suspended. Parker is a brother-in-law of General B. F. Butler.

Negotiations are now advanced a stage whereby the Papal Nuncio at Munich will have jurisdiction over the Catholic Church and bishops in Prussia. This compromise will probably lead to a conciliatory arrangement between Prussia and the Vatican.

Harvesting operations are now being generally engaged in about Belleville, and a great breadth of barley, wheat and rye has been cut during the week. The crops are very large and the grain is in splendid condition.

Fifty meetings in favor of the annexation of the Southern Tyrol to Italy are organizing in the principal towns. The agitators are extremists. Their course is disapproved of by the best people. The government cannot interfere so long as they do not violate the law.

Ministers are disappearing one by one from Ottawa, but a bare quorum now remains. Mr. Laurier left for the East last week and Mr. Laflamme will return to Jacques Cartier shortly. It is now generally understood that the elections will take place about the second or third week in September.

At one of the meetings in Lennox the other night, Mr. Cartwright "congratlated the people upon their intimacy with financial questions, and said he had distributed his Budget speeches liberally among his constituents." And he ought to have added that he made the country pay over $4,000 for that liberal distribution.

It is authoritatively denied that Austria has uttered any menace to Italy. The Italian Government, in communication with that of Austria, deplored the radical agitation, pointed out that its significance has been exaggerated, and spontaneously offered assurances that it will not suffer the right of public meeting to be abused to the detriment of international relations. The Italian ambassador has returned to Vienna.

Russia intends to the best of her abilities, to be hard after England in the matter of Asiatic railways. It is proposed to build a road from Orenburg, which is in the extreme east of European Russia, north of the Caspian Sea, two hundred German miles into Central Asia. Whether these projected railways in the great eastern continent will ever pay as purely commercial undertakings may be doubted, but money, is after all, better spent on them than in war, and the future gain to civilization is not to be estimated.

The lines have fallen to Lieutenant Governor Cauchon in pleasant places amid the verdure of the Prairie Province, though he has been a well-abused man in his day. He has just spoken some wise and winning words to parties presenting him with an address in his Provice. He said: "I have not come here to aid legislation favorable or unfavorable to this or that element or to this or that class. No; my duty is traced by the constitution itself. It is to watch over the general interests of the people of the country." Stick to that, your Honor.

Lord Beaconsfield having, by superior capacity, achieved a signal triumph at Berlin, a learned Jew has pointed out that the same was foretold ages ago by Zacheriah, chap. viii., v. 23, in the following words:—"Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: 'In those days it shall come to pass that ten men shall take hold out of all the languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of Him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

The application is somewhat curious, it must be confessed, when we observe that, exclusive of the British representatives, there were just ten members of the Berlin conference.
