Davidge-Sharp Wedding

Baskets of red and white carnations were used to create a setting for the wedding at the R. C. A. F. Protestant chapel, Summerside, on Saturday afternoon, March 14th, of Dorothy June, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster Sharp, East Bideford, and William James Davidge, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davidge, Dundas, Ontario.

The 1:30 o'clock ceremony was performed by Padre F/L R. Condon. The music was under the direction of Miss Jessie Alcorn, who accompanied the guest soloist, Corporal Gordon Jackson, as he sang the Lord's Prayer during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was wearing a gown of white tulle with a high neck line and a full length skirt with insets of nylon net in front and back and her slippers were of white satin. The finger-tip veil of nylon tulle was held in place with a ruffled bandeau and she carried a shower bouquet of Better Time Roses.

Miss Betty Sharp, as her sister's bridesmaid, was wearing a gown of light green tulle, ballerina length, with net overskirt and matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of Pernet Yellow roses.

F/O Glen John was groomsmen and Mr. Anthony Williams and F/O R. C. Reid were the ushers.

Mrs. Sharp chose for her daughter's wedding a navy dress with pink accessories and corsage of Pink Delight roses. The groom's mother was attired in navy with light blue accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses.

Gates-Lecky Wedding

St. Mary's Anglican Church, Summerside, was the setting for an exceptionally pretty wedding on Saturday evening at seven o'clock when Frances Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilfred Lecky, Summerside, exchanged marriage vows with Morris Darrin Gates, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gates, Regina, Saskatchewan. The ceremony was performed by Ven. Archdeacon G. R. Harrison. The music was under the direction of Mrs. Creelman Macnevin, who accompanied Mr. Ivor Phillips as he sang 'Till Walk Beside You' during the signing of the register. The chancel was extremely beautiful with its decorations of spring flowers.

The attendants were, a sister, Mrs. Murray Hirtle, as matron of honor, Mrs. Claude Lecky and Miss Joyce Currie as bridesmaids. Mr. Alan Lecky, brother of the bride was groomsmen while Messrs. Claude Lecky and Murray Hirtle, brother and brother-in-law, respectively, were the ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of bridal satin, featuring a high, round neck line with nylon tulle yoke, lily point sleeves, soft folds of material over the shoulders, self pleated trimming at yoke and waistline and the skirt with its long train had a front panel. The full-length veil fell from a bandeau of seed pearl trim and her shower bouquet was of Queen Elizabeth roses.

The matron of honor was gowned in mardo-gras, while the bridesmaids wore spring lilac. The gowns were of imported nylon marquisette, strapless lace bodices with boleros and headpieces of matching material. They carried bouquets of deep pink carnations and light pink carnations respectively.

Mrs. Lecky chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of chiffon sheer, and chantilly lace in muted blue and her corsage was of Tallisman roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for eighty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's table, with its attractive arrangement of pink and white carnations and lighted tapers, centered a three-tier wedding cake encircled with tulle and topped with love birds.

Mr. A. S. Hopkins proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. Presiding over the tea cups were Mrs. Leslie Simmons and Mrs. A. S. Hopkins and assisting in serving were, Mrs. V. Enman, Mrs. Richard Hurst, Mrs. Sinclair MacKay and Misses Tone Macdonald, Wanda Wyatt, Dorothy Deley and Elaine Inman.

The bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal after which they will reside in Rockcliffe where the groom is a Flying Officer with the R.C.A.F. For travelling the bride wore a suit of tulle wool charmain with brown accessories and her corsage was an orchid.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Dorothy MacSweeney Smith of Moncton, N.B., Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jardine and daughter Margaret and Miss Valerie Rogers, Charlottetown.

Second School Parade Program Of Current Series

Last Friday evening, the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd. presented its second weekly radio program "Schurmans School Parade" of the current season, and as usual the students, who were the guests on the program came through with a delightful evening's entertainment. Three schools were represented on the talent part of the program. They were the Ellerslie-Bideford, Hampton and Baltic schools. In the interscholastic spelling competition a battle royal raged between the Hampton and Ellerslie-Bideford schools. The Ellerslie-Bideford school finished the first round of play in the lead only to be led by the Hampton school by one point after the second round of play. For the next four rounds, one of which was lone after the program left the air, the score remained at a tie. In the seventh round the tie was broken by the Ellerslie-Bideford school and they were declared the winners of the evening. The Hampton team was represented by Nat Merrill, Ruth Cannon, Howard Morrison, Barbara Dunford, Sarah MacQuarrie, while the Ellerslie-Bideford school team was made up of Lillian Millar, Edith Brown, Joan Oatway, Carl Millar, Norma MacDougall. S'ide Lady Passes Away

The death occurred at her home in Summerside on Saturday morning of Mrs. W. E. Brooks. Death came peacefully after a comparatively short illness and her passing will be learned with regret by a wide circle of friends for in the community in which she lived the deceased was held in high esteem. She was the former Mary C. Adams of Sea View and came to Summerside with her husband nine years ago where they have since resided. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn one son and three daughters, as follows: Rev. Garland C. Brooks, Windsor, N. S.; Mrs. Melvin Bridges (Joy), Cascomque; Mrs. Florence MacArthur, Union Road; Mrs. Una Glennie, Suffolk, P. E. I.; and two sisters, Mrs. James Moreshead and Mrs. John Barwise both of Springfield West. The body was transferred on Saturday to the Jelly Funeral Home where it will rest until funeral arrangements are completed.

The Accommodation, first steamboat on the St. Lawrence, made her first Montreal-Quebec trip in 1860. The body will again take place next Friday evening on Schurmans School Parade as the teams in the 1-3 and 4 and over classroom division schools battle to become the proud possessors of silver and French bronze spelling shields awarded each year by the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd.-S.

S'ide Business Women's Club Monthly Meeting

The regular monthly dinner meeting of the Summerside Business and Professional Women's Club was held at Mulberry Lodge on Wednesday, March 11th. After a sing song a short business period was held. It was decided to support the resolution recently passed by the I. O. D. E. and forwarded to the Summerside Town Council requesting the establishment of a provincial museum in Summerside. The tables were artistically decorated with shamrocks and green candles. The topic for the meeting was "Citizenship and Immigration." Miss Barbara Smith read a pamphlet "Ten Steps To Canadian Citizenship." Miss Edith Inman, programme chairman, introduced Mrs. Plomp the guest speaker. Mrs. Plomp came here from Holland ten months ago and gave a very interesting talk on the differences she found in Canada from her native country. She also sang several selections which were much enjoyed by all. The meeting closed with "O Canada."

New Mass Grave Found In Germany

BERLIN (AP) - A mass grave containing almost 700 bodies has been found near the old concentration camp at Buchenwald, the West Berlin newspaper Telegraf said Sunday. The camp was founded by the Nazis and later used by the Communists. Children playing in the area accidentally discovered the grave. ILLFORD, England, (CP) - A thief who stole $3 from a fish and chip store at lunch hour in this Essex community escaped by donning a clerk's white smock and mingling with the crowd of shoppers.
