New Mystery In Slaying At Polo Grounds

NEW YORK, July 5—(AP)—Just as police believed they were near a solution today to the slaying of Bernard Lawrence Doyle at the Polo Grounds, the mystery took a new turn.

Doyle, 54, a former fight manager of Fairview, N. J., slumped dead with a bullet in the head Tuesday as he sat in the grandstand with a 12-year-old neighbor boy to watch a doubleheader between New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers.

Police, believing he was slain with a .22 calibre bullet, arrested a 14-year-old Negro boy who lived in a nearby building and had a .22. Then a high police official revealed that Doyle had died from a .45 calibre bullet wound.

He pointed out that a .45 pistol can be shot accurately from a distance of 75 yards but said police did not believe the fatal bullet was fired from inside the Polo Grounds. The bullet probably was fired, he said, by someone celebrating Independence Day or by a person with a depraved mind.

SANTA MARIA, Calif., July 2—(AP)—The $1,000,000 Sun Ray Oil Company refinery near here was levelled by an explosion and fire that wrecked two distilling towers, burned two oil storage reservoirs, and killed two workers Friday night.

Mr. MacNaught To Visit Pacific Coast Fisheries

OTTAWA, July 5—(Special)—J. Watson MacNaught, parliamentary assistant to Fisheries Minister Mayhew and M.P. for Prince, is completing his summer itinerary which includes a tour of the Pacific Coast fisheries and of inland fisheries in Manitoba and the North-West. He will visit British Columbia in the latter part of August and on his return will spend some time examining freshwater fisheries of Manitoba.

Detained here this week on departmental business, Mr. MacNaught leaves Ottawa this week-end and is expected to be in his offices in Summerside on Monday or Tuesday.

Asked today by The Guardian if he had any word of the site of the proposed R. C. A. F. bombing and gunnery range on the north coast of Prince Edward Island, he said the matter was still in the discussion stage.

Fisheries Department officials are continuing their campaign for extension of the market of fresh and frozen fish from the Maritimes in Central Canada. A new feature in the program of increasing sales of salt-water fish in inland centres consists of visits by departmental inspectors and officials to fish-markets and chain stores in the central provinces.

They take note of the condition of fish displayed for sale and investigate bona fide complaints and suggestions made by retail buyers. While exercising no control over the fish business, departmental officers take occasion to suggest to shippers and fish companies how their sales might be boosted through paying more careful attention to the appearance and display of their products.

Fisheries Minister Mayhew takes the attitude that the best market for Canadian fish lies in the North American continent, as does Agriculture Minister Gardiner with regard to farm products. While opportunities for marketing Canadian fish and fish products abroad are not being neglected, he has urged the department and the trade to first concentrate on extension of the domestic market.

ATTLEE BACKER In Sending Aid To South Korea LONDON, July 5—(CP)—The House of Commons tonight endorsed the action of the Attlee Government in sending military assistance to embattled South Korea.

Winston Churchill, Conservative leader, called for new talks with the Russians to seek a peace settlement before the Soviets possess the "devastating power" of atomic weapons.

He declared that a Communist victory in Korea would result in a third world war.

Prime Minister Attlee, defending dispatch of British naval units to assist United States forces in the Korean fighting, said "there could not be a greater affront to the United Nations" than the invasion of South Korea by North Korean forces.

The Government motion, adopted without a division, was phrased as a request that the Commons support fully the steps "taken in conformity with the United Nations charter and helping to resist the unprovoked aggression against the Republic of Korea."

Outcome of the debate was a foregone conclusion. Both the Conservatives and the Liberals had made clear in advance they would back the Labor Government on this issue. The only dissent had been expressed by a few extreme left-wing members.
