That watch and clock of yours that is nearly destroyed for want of cleaning by being run too long; a few days ago a watch was left to be cleaned and on examination one of the pivots was completely worn off by long usage without being cleaned, you had better attend to yours before it is too late, and bring them to the Modern Jewelry and Fancy Goods Store.

HIS TIME HAD COME

So Thought a Quebec Man Until Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him
of Bright's Disease

Quebec, April 23.—Narcisse Mangy, of 109 St. Anne Street, this city, considers himself an extremely fortunate man. He has come through the ordeal of Bright's Disease alive.

Bright's Disease is an extremely fatal disease of the kidney. The sufferer lingers on, growing weaker and weaker, slowly and miserably dying. Once it fastens itself upon a victim there is only one hope to save him. Dodd's Kidney Pills. But they never fail.

Narcisse Mangy says: "I have endured Bright's Disease for over five years. Doctors told me I would never get well. I thought my time had come. A friend told me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have just finished the fourth box and am cured.

Observation is a matter of education. It requires study to see things as well as it does to do things.

A CHOSEN FRIEND

Harvard Bronchial Syrup is the chosen friend of our best singers and most noted public speakers. No other cough remedy has such a widespread reputation. It quickly stops the worse cough, banishes hoarseness and clears the throat and bronchial tubes. Druggists and dealers recommend Harvard Bronchial Syrup.

Goldsmith.

Not long before the close of Goldsmith's life he produced the brilliant and humorous lines of "Retaliation." Varied accounts are given of the origin of this poem. It will be remembered that in a joke Garrick wrote the following couplet as an epitaph for Goldsmith:

Here lies Nolly Goldsmith, for shortness called Noll,
Who wrote like an angel, but talked like poor poll.

It was on April 4, 1774, that Goldsmith died. The precise spot where he was buried in the Temple churchyard is unknown.

This is Johnson's summing up of the character of Goldsmith: "He had raised money and squandered it by every artifice of acquisition and folly of expense. But let not his frailties be remembered; he was a very great man."—William Black's "Life of Goldsmith."

Daniel Webster's Paper Cutter. Joseph M. Terry of Peconic, N. Y., has presented a valuable relic of Daniel Webster to the Suffolk County Historical society. It is an ivory paper cutter which Mr. Webster used for a number of years in his library at Marshfield, Mass. Webster gave it to Charles Taylor, then a boy, whose father was at the time manager of Mr. Webster's farm. Young Taylor preserved the relic and several years ago while residing near Mr. Terry's house gave it to him.—New York Sun.

THREE LESSONS

There are three lessons I would write,
Three words as with a golden pen,
In tracings of eternal light
Upon the hearts of men:

Have hope! Though clouds enshroud round
And gladness hides her face in scorn,
Put forth the shadow from thy brow—
No night but has its morn.

Have faith! Whether thy bark be driven,
The calm's disport, the tempest's mirth
Know this—God rules the hosts of heaven,
The inhabitants of earth.

Have love! Not love alone for one,
But man as man thy brother call,
And scatter like the circling sun
Thy charities on all.

Thou grave those words upon thy soul—
Hope, faith and love—and thou shalt find
No death when life's surges most roll,
Light when thou else wert blind.

Strong Killings.

Miss Tiptilt—Yes, dear, we are both strangely beautiful, but I think you will admit that mine is of the most deadlv, fatal order!—Ally Sloper.

How She Knew.

Speaking of kindergartens for colored children calls to mind the experience of a "bobo de war" matron who was teaching one of the little darkies on her plantation how to spell.

The primer she used was a pictorial one, and over each word was its accompanying picture, and Polly glibly spelled o-x, ox, and b-o-x, box, etc. But the teacher thought that she was making right rapid progress, so she put her hand over the picture and said:

"Polly, what does o-x spell?"
"Ox," answered Polly nimbly.
"How do you know that it spells ox, Polly?"
"Seed his tail," replied the apt Polly.—Memphis Scimitar.

Dubious Compliment.

"And how did you and grandpa get along?" inquired the doting mamma of the precocious child.

"He was pleasant as pie," replied the cherub.
"As pleasant as pie?"
"Yes, mamma—short and crusty."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"Catch the opportunity." By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now you may build up your system and prevent serious illness.
