The Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire and children of the Empire (Junior Branch) Head of Empire (Junior Chapter) of Canada, files, National Chapter of Canada, 182 Lowther Ave. Toronto 4, Ont., Toronto, March 17th, 1950.
Mr. Sam Glasier Advertising Manager, 20th Bend Street, Toronto, Ont.
Dear Mr. Glasier:
On behalf of the National Film Committee of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire should like to congratulate you on your production of bringing to the screen such an exceptional film as your production of Agnes Newton-Keith's true novel story, "Three Came Home."
It is seldom that a stage or film interpretation of a book of merit as to have been reached the month club selection critical heights of your company's masterly approval. Your company's masterly presentation of a story which could so easily have been overstressed and simplified and delicate emphasis evoked a motion picture of heart-breaking appeal.
"Three Came Home" should be a "command performance," for the attendance of all people who are aware of the futility of wars and who hope most sincerely for peace. I do trust that the members of your order and all people loving citizenship throughout the Dominion will avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing so important a picture.
Yours very truly,

antly spent in music and singing. Mr. Bann Webb sang several very amusing songs, which were greatly enjoyed. Guitar music being supplied by Mr. John Webb. The bride who is an accomplished and trained singer was heard in two splendid solos, also a male quartette composed of Elwyn Boulter, Ivan Webb, Wesley Dignan and Alban Craswell sang a few favourite hymns. A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by the ladies which brought this enjoyable event to a close by all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dignan many blessings for their future.
A fatal accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shield on Tuesday about 10 a.m. when play was being hauled for banking and on returning with a loaded truck wagon one of three small children lost his balance and accidentally fell under one of the wheels passing over the little lad. He was instantly killed. Little Ronald was 1 year and 7 months old and a very lovable child and will be surely missed by his surviving parents, three brothers Reggie, Lloyd and Raymond and sister Marjorie to whom their neighbors and friends extend sincere sympathy.
