THE DAILY EXAMINER.

APRIL 10, 1889.

The City's Claim.

HOWEVER good their claim may be, we cannot congratulate the City Council on their method of pressing it.

Mr. Hooper is authorized to grant receipts for Subscriptions, Job Work, Advertising, &c.

That the citizens of Charlottetown should not be shut out and unable to participate in the revenues of the Province merely because they have been incorporated and provide for their own municipal government, will be readily admitted.

We are not of those who think that Charlottetown should press her claim in an offensive way.

We are opposed to distinctions between town and country. Let us recognize one another's rights, promote one another's interests, bear one another's burdens and live in peace.

"A Mean Attack."

WE are not much concerned to answer the Patriot's article of Saturday last, under the above heading.

The fact that 300,000 persons are annually leaving the British Isles is alarming the London Lancet.

A QUESTION OF RELATIONSHIP.—Mack Carter, son of Bill Carter, married Tuck Phillips' daughter, and Tuck Phillips married Bill Carter's daughter, and Bill Carter married Tuck Phillips' daughter.

Beer Bros. expect to show their spring stock of Straw Hats and Bonnets next week.

Never, perhaps, was a more fitting time for a Whig's speech with an un-abridged appendix containing all the "suggestions" received from legal sources. Let the "boy" publish them, and we shall be better able to judge of their value in relation to "legal and historical questions."

The Patriot "understands"—its authority is not stated—that Mr. Ferguson "is entirely in error in stating that the Judge for Queen's County was the writer of an article attacking the junior member for Belfast."

We simply say this, in closing: that now, when one of the ablest men in this Province has spoken, openly and above board, the Patriot is, at least, right in saying, "If a Judge offends, let him be impeached in Parliament where he and his accusers will stand on an equal footing."

News From Newfoundland.

Tidings have just reached us from Newfoundland to the effect that the shore seal fishery, as distinguished from that prosecuted by means of the sealing fleet of steamers, has met with extraordinary success, particularly on the North and North-Eastern coasts.

In consequence of the unusually mild winter large herds of deer were met in the north of the Island, and our correspondent there informs us that the residents in the neighborhood of St. Barbe's, St. Margaret's and Ingomachois Bays have killed at least 500 of these very valuable animals.

Odds and Ends.

British grain markets continue dull, with lower prices again reported.

A spiced breath will tell on a man, even if his speech doesn't give him away.

Many Americans are colonels, majors and so forth, but those who go to Canada for asylum are mostly skippers.—Boston Courier.

Free and enlightened Americans are objecting to Jews in New Jersey watering places. Very likely some of these persons severely denounced the Russian persecution of the Jews when they heard of them.

The shipment of £250,000 of gold from New York which has been announced, and is said to be destined for London, although despatched by a North German steamer, cannot fail to be a very welcome consignment in support of European markets groaning under the weight of too much copper.

The fact that 300,000 persons are annually leaving the British Isles is alarming the London Lancet. As there are over a thousand births daily, this increase, with the accessions from abroad, more than counterbalances the loss by emigration and death, and as a fact the Mother Country is gaining, not losing population.

A QUESTION OF RELATIONSHIP.—Mack Carter, son of Bill Carter, married Tuck Phillips' daughter, and Tuck Phillips married Bill Carter's daughter, and Bill Carter married Tuck Phillips' daughter.

Beer Bros. expect to show their spring stock of Straw Hats and Bonnets next week.
