Ninety-one Years in One House.

The Hants, N.S., Journal says: On Monday evening last, Mrs Ruth Rudolph, the oldest resident of Windsor, passed away at the advanced age of 91 years. Her demise took place at her residence on Gerrish street, the same house in which she was born, from which she was married and where she has always resided. The deceased was a sister of the late Joseph Richards and was the widow of Thomas M. Rudolph who was murdered near Kempt Shore, in the year 1829, while in the discharge of his duty as deputy sheriff. She leaves no near relatives, her two children, a son and a daughter, having died some years ago.

The Telephone Company

—OF—

P. E. ISLAND.

PARTIES using the Telephones would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
