The Editor of the Maple Leaf is Mr. M. A. Melnick, a native of this Province, a good portrait of whom appears in the number.

L. O. L.—The annual meeting of Hamilton L. O. L., No. 1366, Clyde River, was held on Monday evening, December 6th, in their lodge room. Although the weather was somewhat unfavorable, quite a number of the brethren were in attendance. Reports of the different officers showed the lodge to be in a flourishing condition, both financially and otherwise. The brethren of Hamilton lodge intend building a new lodge room during the coming summer. After a considerable lot of general business in connection with the lodge was transacted, the following excellent staff of officers were installed, by County Master, Brother W. S. McNeill, assisted by Brother Geo. Beer, King William Lodge: W. M., McNeill; D. S. C., Gordon McKinnon; Chap.—Charles McLean; F. S., Celdon McLean; Treas.—Colin J. McPhail; D. of C.—Heber McLean; Lecturer—John McPhail; Com.—Bros. Daniel McDonald, Sr., Jas. McPhail, Dan McDonald Jr., Hector, McNeill, Kenneth McNeill. After the installation appropriate addresses were made by the newly installed officers and visiting brethren, after which the lodge closed in due form with bright prospects for the coming year.

WOMEN'S UNION prayer meeting in Zion Church hall today at 2.30 p. m. All interested in Missions should attend.

WARNING TO RUM SELLERS.—A lady resident in the country not far from Charlottetown writes complaining that liquor is being sold freely to farmers and others, and also the illicit traffickers that indication prevails amongst the families in her district through husbands and fathers, coming home the worse for drink. She says the drink is not supplied by the vendors and wonders what the authorities are doing to put down the illicit traffic. She warns them, and also the illicit traffickers that unless an immediate stop be put to this hawking of liquor, the women will take the matter in hand themselves and make a raid upon Charlottetown in force, some market that should be necessary, however, when the Government is making such a lot of money out of the vendor's business. It should be in their interests as well as that of the families of countrymen to put a stop to competition at all costs.

CONCERT AT CAVENDISH

On the night of January 3rd a most enjoyable banquet was held in the classroom of the Presbyterian Church at Cavendish. The young men of the district belonging to the Taxis Group entertained the young ladies of the C. G. I. F. group at a goose supper. The tables were artistically set and provided with a great variety of delicious cookery supplied by the mothers of the boys.

About twenty five guests were present. Before beginning supper thanks were returned by all rising and singing Praise God from Whom all blessings flow. To say that the supper was heartily enjoyed is only but expressing it. It was indeed an inspiration for one to look at the bright happy faces of the young people gathered about the tables.

Mr. Artemas Moffatt who was present as a guest was appointed to the duty of toast master which he carried out in his usual efficient and inimitable style. The first toast was to "The King" and was responded to by all rising and singing "God save the King". The next toast "Our Church" was responded to by Mr. Sydney Bonnell who was in charge of the Cavendish congregation during the past summer. He clearly set forth the place of the church in the community as a social, moral and spiritual agency. Mr. Moffatt answered the toast to "Our Group" in a most interesting speech. He pointed out the high ideals for which each of the groups stood. Miss Eva Simpson, then sang very sweetly the solo "When the Great Red Dawn is Shining". The toast to "The Ladies" was ably responded to by Mr. Harold Simpson. He vividly set forth Canada's debt to the womanhood of our land. Toasts were then drunk to the health of Mr. Bonnell, who is on his holiday from Pine Hill College, and Mr. Leslie Tremere who recently returned from the Canadian West. Voluntary toasts were proposed and drunk to the honor of Mr. Moffatt and also the Cavendish ladies who so efficiently served the tables. After this program had been completed the guests gathered about the blazing fire and heartily sang popular choruses. The entertain community which possesses young men was closed before midnight by the singing of Auld Lang Syne. It is a night which the young people kind especially when it is pervaded will long remember. There is surely throughout by an inspiring religious great hope for the future of any influence.
