pital as a result of drinking gasoline has returned to his home.

The Conway Community Hall at Conway in which dances are held every Saturday night was filled to capacity on last Saturday evening's dancing both old time and modern dancing was enjoyed by all to the best in music furnished by Mr. John Biggar, Tyne Valley, violinist; Mr. Harold Arsenault, Cascumpec, guitar; Mr. Oben Arsenault, Cascumpec, piano.

The Port Hill play "She's My Daisy" was presented on Wednesday evening May 16th in the Freedom Hall on the halives with the Women's Auxiliary of the St. Peter's Anglican Church, Lot 14. Rev. Mr. Dignan, Port Hill was chairman and he made a splendid job of it. Mr. Paul Newcombe sang between the first two acts accompanied by Mrs. Laurie Birch on the organ, and Rev. Mr. Dignan very capably sang between the second and third acts also accompanied by Mrs. Birch. A good crowd attended and a sale of home made candy helped swell the funds of both the Port Hill Players and the Women's Auxiliary.

The Teachers Study Group held in Conway School on Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. with the Supervisor, Mr. Merritt Callaghan, Alberton as chairman and the following teachers in attendance: Mrs. Laughlin Kilbride, Foxley River; Mrs. Reginald Palmer, Poplar Grove; Mrs. George Sharpe, East Bideford; Mrs. Ivan Hardy, Conway; Mrs. Oscar MacNeill, Maple Leaf; Mr. Alvin Hardy, Freeland and Mr. Keir Adams, Inverness. Many interesting discussions on school work were talked over and a pleasant and instructive hour and a half spent.

O'Leary and Vicinity

Mrs. Richard Wood, of Coleman, became ill on Saturday, May 26, and is confined to her bed. Her many friends wish her a speedy improvement.

Miss Marion Arsenault of Coleman, was among the students of Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown, who received her Commerce certificate.

Mr. Charles Read, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot G. Read of Coleman, an outstanding student and winner of the L. O. D. E. Scholarship, and student at McDonald College, Quebec, is spending a short time at his home in Coleman.

Among the second year students who have shown marked ability in public speaking at the Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown and who won one of the John H. Bell's Debate prizes is the name of Miss Audrey Gallant of Duvar. She is receiving congratulations.

Miss Margaret Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ellis, O'Leary, is congratulated on winning the Birks Medal for Art at the closing of Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown. She also received her Second Year certificate from the college. She is a graduate of the O'Leary High School.

Mr. Robert Frizzell of Springfield West, only seven miles from O'Leary, is receiving congratulations on winning the Prince of Wales College Staff Medal awarded to the student who shows himself most efficient in extra-curricular student organizations. Mr. Frizzell, a successful and efficient school teacher, is one of this year's graduates of the college and the many friends will watch the future career of this capable young man with interest.

Mrs. Perley MacNeill has returned to her home in O'Leary, after attending the closing exercises of Acadia University at Wolfville, N. S. where she was the guest of her son Rupert, and his wife. Mrs. MacNeill saw her son who already has his B. Sc. receive his Master of Science degree in geology. Mrs. MacNeill, also visited at Berwick, N. S. the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Champion and family, former residents of O'Leary.

Mr. Herbert Riley has returned to O'Leary after an enjoyable visit to Boston, and other American centers. He was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of O'Leary who were visiting relatives and friends in Boston, also by Mr. Riley's brother of Haverhill, Mass. and by his other brother, Harvey Riley and Mrs. Riley of California, who flew to Boston to meet his brother Herbert. It is thirty years since they last met. The brothers will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Riley, O'Leary and other relatives and are receiving a very warm and typical Island welcome.

Mr. Fred Champion formerly of O'Leary, but now the town electrician of Berwick, N. S. was a motor visitor to O'Leary on Saturday, accompanied by his mother from Charlottetown and Mr. and Mrs. Rupert MacNeill and little son of Wolfville who were guests of Mr. MacNeill's mother, Mrs. Perley MacNeill, O'Leary and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bernard, O'Leary. They were all warmly welcomed back and the party left again on Sunday, May 27. Mrs. Champion and son Fred were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Phillips, O'Leary.

Mrs. Jeremiah Dalton of Coleman had a very narrow escape from death on Friday afternoon when she was returning to her home in Coleman in a car driven by her son Lloyd and his family of Coleman. Also in the car was Mr. Dalton. The fumes from the exhaust got into the back of the car and from the little lake between Portage and West Devon, nicknamed "The bottomless lake," Mrs. Dalton remembered nothing more until she got home, and it is supposed she lapsed into unconsciousness and Dr. Dewar of O'Leary was immediately called and the young physician lost no time in getting to the home and was able to revive a few minutes later. It would have been impossible to save her. This correspondent visited Mrs. Dalton on Sunday evening, May 27th, and found her improved. May 27th, and confined to her bed and will be for some little time. Her many friends wish Mrs. Dalton a speedy recovery. Her daughter Olive, (Mrs. Everett Coughlin) of Kinkora was helping her mother on Sunday. The little granddaughter, Phyllis, was also overcome by the poisonous fumes but soon revived.

ST. MARGARET'S W. I.

The members of the Princess Ann Institute of St. Margaret's met at the home of Mrs. Daniel MacDonald for their May meeting, with an attendance of eight members.

The meeting came to order with the president taking the chair, and roll call was answered by each member giving a suggestion as to how members may improve the Institute. After the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, the various committees were re-appointed for the ensuing month.

It was decided to hold an entertainment in the schoolhouse, to buy a treat for a sick member and to have some work done on the windows in the school.

The secretary was instructed to order cook books for the members from the Institute headquarters. Two new members were welcomed into the Institute.

Miss Sadie Montgomery invited the members to her home for the June meeting; then after a delicious lunch, the meeting was adjourned by singing the National Anthem.
