P.E.I.'s Confederation Role Bigger Than Often Realized

SUMMERSIDE—Addressing the directors of the Canadian Tourist Association at a meeting here last night, Rev. Francis Bolger, DD, dean of the department of history at St. Dunstan's University, said that P.E.I. was responsible in more ways than one for the realization of the bringing about of Confederation in Canada.

The directors of the association are meeting in the province this week.

Father Bolger told the group that it was this province's indifference to a maritime union that made Nova Scotia and New Brunswick look to larger and more significant than the two Canada and themselves.

Father Bolger recently had published a book on this province and Confederation. The Cape Breton, which in 1959 received his PhD. from the University of Toronto, took the assembly back to larger and more significant than the two Canada and themselves.

Meetings of the directors resume in Charlottetown this morning and they will be the guests of the P.E.I. Tourist Association this evening at a banquet at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Locale Changed For S'side Blood Clinics

Gregory Delghan, of the Summerside Junior Chamber of Commerce, who is the chairman of the Red Cross blood donor clinic for Summerside, stated last night that the locale for next Monday and Tuesday's clinics will be the new fire hall instead of the Legion Home. He said it was unfortunate that this change had to be made at the last minute after all the posters, cards of notification to former donors, etc., had been sent out from Red Cross headquarters in Charlottetown.

The Summerside clinics have a quota of at least 500 donors for the sessions to be held Monday and Tuesday afternoon and evening from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9.

Mr. Delghan stressed the fact that the objective for all the Red Cross blood donor clinics being held during the Island's "Centennial Year" was a 100 per cent result in each centre. He said that the Charlottetown clinics, held early in April, had "set the pace" with a 104.4 per cent result, and that he was hopeful the Summerside result would be similar.
