

Grains of Gold.

It is truth awaiting full recognition that the actual learning how to use the hands dexterously and accurately, is a positive gain to the mental faculties.

He that has never known adversity is but half acquainted with others or with himself. Constant success shows us but one side of the world, for as it surrounds us with friends who will tell us only our merits, so it silences those enemies from whom alone we can learn our defects.

Whatever busies the mind without corrupting it has at least this use, that it rescues the day from idleness; and he that is never idle will not often be vicious—indeed, if wisely busy, he cannot be so.

There are certain manners which learnt in good society, are of that force, that if a person have them, he or she must be considered everywhere welcome, though without beauty, wealth, or genius.

Every one in this world has his or her share of troubles and trials. Let us, then try as much as we are able not, to increase the burden of any by as much as the weight of straw.

The primary use of knowledge is for such guidance of conduct in all circumstances as shall make living complete. All other uses of knowledge are secondary.

Duty is power which rises with us in the morning and goes to bed with us at night. It is co-extensive with the action of our intelligence.

In the affairs of life activity is to be preferred to dignity, and practical energy and despatch to premeditated composure and reserve.

To have respect for ourselves guides our morals, and to have a deference for others govern our manners.

There is always hope in a man that actually and earnestly works.

It is upon the smooth ice we slip; the roughest path is safest.

The Scotch Wife and the Doctor.

A Scotch farmer's wife stood at her door one day feeding her geese when the garden gate swung open, and there strode up to her one of those itinerant "professors," in snuff-colored "blacks" dilapidated silk hat, and wayworn heels. He smiled blandly, bowed twice, and after preliminary cough, launched into his standard discourse upon the many ailments that afflicted humanity, and the wondrous cures he had been enabled to administer to thousands of grateful sufferers.

The agitation against the Salvation Army in Neufchatel is assuming formidable dimensions, and the peace of the town is seriously threatened. The Salvationists are stoned as they pass through the streets and a few nights ago the windows of a house in which they had assembled were broken. At a public meeting held, resolutions were passed denouncing the Army as a nuisance, and calling on the authorities to expel foreign Salvationists from the canton.

Mr. Senecal's organ, La Minerve, has article to-day on how that gentleman has become suddenly the Jay Gould of Canada. It says the former has been following the renowned American's example by dealing extensively in stocks on the local market, and gives an example of his success in buying four thousand shares as Richelieu on a margin of $20,000 and making $144,000 profit out of them in a few months.

Though Italy in general is in a normal condition as regards public security, and serious attempts on life and property are much less frequent than formerly, there still exists in the Romagna, which is greatly infested by malefactors a perilous state of things. This, if not vigorously kept in check by the government, may extend to other districts and occasion an increase of crime.

A Turin jeweller has made a tiny boat formed of a single pearl, which shape it assumes in swell and concavity. Its sail is of beaten gold, studded with diamonds, and the binnacle light at its prow is a perfect ruby. An emerald serves as its rudder, and it stands on a slab of ivory. It weighs less than half an ounce. Its price is $5,000.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White's Excessive of painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of ingesting and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfeebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifling with the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unseasonable exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in the most necessary cases of throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1867 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the most necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Group—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, MRS. EMMA GEDNEY, 159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds I have ever tried."

A. J. CHANE, Lake Crystal, Minn., March 15, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."

JOSEPH WALDEN, Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."

JOSEPH WALDEN, Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
