The demand of Thos. Steel and Matthew Halloran, for a Road along the banks is far too high. It is understood that the people of Sheep Pond had a right of way to Souris, and it is necessary to enquire whether an action will lie against Steel and Halloran for refusing such right of way. But if it appear that a Road has been given along the Bank of the customary width, and has been washed away by the sea, then one pound per chain for a Road along the Bank fifty feet wide, may be allowed and paid to Thos. Steel and M. Halloran.	13 0 0
