

NOVEMBER WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place on the evening of November 1st, at Hampton Presbyterian Church, the contracting parties being Mr. Albert C. Sturdy, eldest son of Mr. John Sturdy, Crapaud, and Miss Ada May Ince, only daughter of Robert Ince, Esq., of Hampton. The Rev. George C. Robertson assisted by Rev. T. Hicks performed the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride was dressed in white cashmere and carried beautiful bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Mary Jane Sturdy, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. Mr. W. Ince, brother of the bride, acted as best man, the ushers being Messrs. John Myers and D. McDonald. As the bridal party entered the church the wedding march was played by Miss Anne Smith. After the ceremony about one hundred and twenty invited guests drove to the home of the bride, where a bountiful repast was partaken of. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents. The happy couple carry with them the best wishes of their numerous relatives and friends for a happy sojourn through life.

WHAT ABOUT THE RAILWAY?

Sir,—The Local Government politicians brag a great deal about their having given Belfast and Murray Harbor a railroad. But where is the railroad? Money towards its construction, we hear, was voted during the last session of parliament. But voting money is merely talk and wind, like the speeches of politicians, until something be done with the money! We hear, "railroad!" "railroad!" but not a stroke of work,—and the season for working is about ended. The building of the railroad and bridge necessitates the making of a contract between the Dominion and Local Governments to carry out the provisions of our Local Act. Has that agreement been signed? If it has why do not Mr. Irving and Mr. McKinnon produce it, or at least say in so many words that the agreement has been signed? We respect both the gentlemen, and our knowledge of them leads us to the conclusion that if an agreement has been come to and signed both and each of them would, ere now, have said so. It is very odd to be everlastingly casting up to us the great obligations, we are under for this railroad and bridge, while a whole season is about elapsed and not a stroke of work is yet done. The fiddling soundings on the Hillsborough now going on, just as winter is approaching and on the eve of two local elections, are too thin to deceive anyone, and are of no benefit to us on the south side of the river,—or indeed to anyone else, except to a few of the faithful who get the pickings of the job. Earlier in the season we were assured twenty miles of the road would be under construction this year. Can you tell us, Mr. Editor, if tenders for this work have yet been called?

School Girls' Nerves

Many a pale, weak school girl, suffering from the evil effects of an exhausted nervous system, and thin, water-piped, has been fully restored to the vigor and buoyancy of robust health, by using A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. The healthful glow on the cheek and the brightness in the eye tell of the building up process which is taken place in the body.

WAR NOTES

At the Vatican no attempt has been made to hide the sympathy for England. It is understood, moreover, that the Catholic prelates of South Africa have been instructed to give no moral support to the Transvaal or the Orange Free State, because in both these countries the faithful have always been under the ban, while in England and the colonies there is no cause for complaint.

CRIMINAL LIBEL.—It is announced that General Funston, of the United States army, is to take action against Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, for criminal libel. It seems that in a recent interview in Chicago, Archbishop Ireland was quoted as saying that Gen. Funston had been charged with looting Catholic churches in the Philippines. The charges alleged to have been referred to by the archbishop were made by the editor of the Monitor soon after the landing of the Kansas troops in San Francisco. The Monitor stated, it is said, that General Funston had taken two magnificent chalices from a certain Catholic church in the Philippines, and that he had sent them home to his wife. Archbishop Ireland in his Chicago interview was quoted as calling upon Gen. Funston to deny the truth of the article and to sue the editor of the Monitor for libel or the public would be obliged, against its will, to believe him guilty of the criminal acts of which he had been accused.

She leaves tonight for Sydney and St. John's Nfld., with a cargo which includes 140 sheep, 30 cattle, 2 horses, 500 bags oats, 375 bags and 123 barrels vegetables and 41 bls oysters.

AN AMUSING MISTAKE.—Ministers who have received the report of the meeting of the recent Presbyterian synod of the Maritime Provinces are laughing at a mistake in the official minutes. The home mission report, presented by Rev. Dr. McMillan, it was intended should close with a familiar quotation from the scriptures, but the type-setter makes it read: "Fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with bounds."

SOCIALS LAST NIGHT.—The social in the Baptist schoolroom last evening was in every way a success. The programme was excellently rendered. The great number present thoroughly enjoyed themselves by it and the tempting refreshments.

An enjoyable evening was spent in St. Peter's Hall where the annual social for the congregation of the church took place. The social was successful in its object of drawing together the members of the congregation in social intercourse.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.—A double tragedy is reported from the township of Wilberforce, about eight miles from Eganville, Ont. On Wednesday morning the bodies of Mrs. William Yaster and the 17 year old daughter were found horribly mutilated about their heads by some heavy instrument while in bed. The husband and father, William Yaster, aged about 50 years, who for some time has given evidence of insanity, is accused of doing the terrible deed. He had previously threatened to take their lives. Three children younger than the dead daughter who were in the house at the time gave the alarm to the neighbors.

LONGEVITY IN P. E. ISLAND.—There lives in King's County, P. E. I., two very old people. One is Edward Power, 102 years past. Born in Tipperary, Ireland, before the rebellion there in 1798, he left there when quite young on the good ship Ocean, owned by one Kent, of Newfoundland. He emigrated to St. John's, N.B.I., first, and stayed there five years, after which he went to Grand River, King's County, Prince Edward Island. Since that time he made a home at Farmington, where he now lives. Mr. Power is in splendid health, and claims he will reach the ripe age of two hundred. The Sun reporter asked what reason he gave for his age, and he replied that he always made his living by farming, slept but little, and smoked lots of tobacco and drank strong tea.

The other aged person is Mrs. Mossey, a widow lady, now of Glencorradale. She is 92 years past. She was born on one of the Magdalen Islands, and emigrated to Prince Edward Island many years ago. She lives with her son, Isaac Mossey, a farmer. The reporter of the Sun while visiting there found her hale and hearty, with her eyesight and hearing as perfect as when she was a child. She claims to be able to hear a pin drop, and does her knitting as regularly as the day comes. She also claims that she will not die for many long years.—St. John Sun.
