FAREWELL PARTY AT TIGNISH

—On Saturday afternoon October 22nd, the members of the Tignish Catholic Women's League sub-division, gathered in a body at the home of Mrs. Jerome Richard to tender her a farewell party prior to her departure for Boston, Mass., where she plans to reside in future with her daughter, Mrs. F. Sisk (Frances).

A nicely worded address was read to Mrs. Richard by Mrs. J. F. Gallant and a beautiful crucifix was presented her by Mrs. Foster J. Skerry on behalf of her sister members in the C. W. L. organization. Mrs. Richard thanked the members for their kind words and gift, a token she will ever cherish she told them. Refreshments were then served by several of the ladies present, after which an hour of social chat with music and singing was enjoyed before the ladies departed after wishing Mrs. Richard best wishes for the years to come.

Twenty-eight years ago the organization of the Catholic Women's League was formed at Tignish, and on the charter drawn up at that meeting was the name of Mrs. Jerome Richard and all down through the twenty-eight years Mrs. Richard has been a faithful and valued member, always ready and willing to help with the work undertaken by the organization.

She gave willingly of her time doing work for the church, this work was near and dear to her heart; her charity knew no bounds, and the sick found in her a most kind and consoling friend, and it is with deep regret her sister members bade her farewell, but also wish her health, happiness and God's blessing in her new home.

"KILL THE UMPIRE" IS BASEBALL RIOT

—Probably the most maligned individual in all of America, the baseball umpire is eulogized in Columbia Pictures' forthcoming comedy, "Kill The Umpire". Starring William Bendix, "Kill the Umpire" opens today at the Capitol Theatre, with a supporting cast topped by Una Merkel, Ray Collins and Gloria Henry.

Bendix is seen in the new comedy as an ex-ball player, a rabid fan who keeps losing jobs because he goes to too many ball games on company time. Forced to choose between his family and his fun, he takes up umpiring as a career. A disputed decision leads to a near-riot in a ball park, culminating in a tar-and-feather mob scene with Bendix undergoing a hair-raising series of encounters in his determination to continue umpiring.

Frank Tashlin penned the screen play. "Kill the Umpire" was directed by Lloyd Bacon and produced by John Beck.
