

Gems of Thought.

The most manifest sign of wisdom is continued cheerfulness.

Industry has annexed thereto the fairest fruits and the richest reward.

Laws are like cobwebs, which may catch small flies, but let wasps and hornets break through.

The mothers yearning, that completes the type of life in another life which is the essence of real human love, feels the presence of the cherished child even in the base degraded man.

The past is discolored, the future concealed in doubt. And yet human nature is heedless of the past, and fearful of the future—regarding not the science and experience that past ages have unveiled.

That man is never happy for the present is so true that all his relief from unhappiness is only forgetting himself for a little while. Life is a progress from want to want, not from enjoyment to enjoyment.

People are apt to pay you in the self same coin you pass on them. If you give the gold of love you will get gold in return, and if you give the brass of impatience you will get it back again before many days.

"My boy," said a father to his son, "treat everybody with politeness, even those who are rude to you. For remember, that you show courtesy to others not because they are gentlemen, but because you are one."

All successful men have agreed in one thing—they were causationists. They believe that things went not by luck but by law. Belief in compensation or that nothing is good for nothing characterizes all valuable minds.

Good fortune and bad are equally necessary to man to fit him to meet the contingencies of life. Few men who have not experienced the vicissitudes of fortune know how to bear them with firmness or are fit to meet them.

You find yourself refreshed by the presence of cheerful people. Why not make the earnest effort to confer that pleasure on others? You will find half the battle is gained if you never allow yourself to say anything gloomy.

All our days are so unprofitable while they pass, that 'tis wonderful, where or when we get anything of this which we call wisdom, poetry, virtue. We never get it on any dated calendar day. Some heavenly days must have been intercalated somewhere.

Of what a hideous progeny is debt the father! What lies, what meanness, what invasions on self respect, what cares, what double-dealing. How in due season it will carve the frank, open face into wrinkles? how, like a knife, it will stab the honest heart!

Mothers and teachers do not take much pains to train their children and pupils into good habits of enunciation. They are carefully taught to sing, but they are not carefully taught to read and speak; yet more than half the charm of all social intercourse depends upon the agreeable use of the voice.

Disobedience lost us an Eden of flowers but God has replaced it by an Eden of love. We sometimes wander from its shades, but when weary and worn by the conflicting cares of this world, we creep back with thankful hearts to that one spot for ever green in the great desert of life.

SOMETHING NEW.—There has always been great difficulty in getting water-proof coats to fit satisfactorily about the neck and shoulders, for stout and round-shouldered men. You can avoid this and have a perfect fit by leaving your measure with us. We have made arrangements with an English firm to have these coats made on our own patterns, so that we are in a position to warrant a good fit. We can show over 100 samples of the goods from which the coats will be made, ranging in price from $8 to $24. Every coat warranted to come the same as sample of goods shown. You can have better material and cheaper than buying ready-made goods.—John McLeod & Co., Merchant Tailors. [Aug 27 tf]

ELECTRIC GLOSS.

FOR cleaning Solid Silver, Nickel, Brass, Copper and Plate Glass. Quick! Sure! Permanent! No dirt, no trouble, no labor. Bring entirely free from grit and acids, it cannot injure the most finely burnished surface. It is the only preparation ever produced that will polish brass or copper without the use of acid. Nothing approaches it for removing grease and finger marks from Brass, Copper, Glass, etc.; while for cleaning Nickel or Stoves it is especially useful. Retail price, 25 cents per bottle.

MICA WASH.—This wash is the only thing of the kind ever invented. A stove may be as handsome as a jewel and shine like ebony; but smoked mica lights will spoil it all. Day by day mica becomes sootier and higher in price, and an article that will clean and preserve it is valuable to all concerned. Try this wash once, and you will always use it. Retail price, 25 cents per bottle. The above household necessities are manufactured by The Electric Gloss Co., Philadelphia, U. S. A., and sold by every respectable Drugist, Stove Dealer, Hardware Merchant and General Dealer in Canada. The Canadian Trade supplied by
