CAR RALLY

CAR RALLY:- The UPEI Winter Carnival Committee has once again decided that the Annual UPEI Car Rally will be held in conjunction with this year's activities. For those of you who didn't have any plans for Saturday, Jan 26 (and don't make any, you may not return.) A keen interest by various entries has already been demonstrated and there looks like there will be a large field. The race begins on Sat. Jan. 26 at 9 A.M. and will go rain or shine. So get your cars ready, find a navigator (be sure to find a good navigator, rumor hath it, some entries from last year are still trying to find their way back). Entry forms can be picked up at the Student Union Office. These entry forms must be returned to The Barn by Thurs. Jan. 24. Any questions about the car rally, you can call Patrick Kelly at CIMN ext. 316.
